EXECUTIVES

E.G. (KEN) KENDRICK MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

A charter member of the ownership group that brought baseball to the Valley of the Sun, Ken Kendrick's involvement in the general partnership took on added significance in 2004 when he assumed the role of Managing General Partner. Kendrick has taken an active role within the organization, representing the ownership group in the day-to-day operation of the organization and also representing the Diamondbacks when Major League Baseball owners convene during the course of the year.

After receiving a B.S. in Business Administration from West Virginia University in 1965, Kendrick started his career with IBM in Baltimore. Three years later, he founded Datatel, Inc., which became the industry leader in the development of software for the management of infrastructure technology for colleges and universities. Today, Kendrick remains semi-active in the operation of Datatel, serving as chairman of the Datatel Scholars Foundation, which provides college scholarships to students throughout the U.S. and Canada.

As Datatel continued to grow and prosper in the 1980s, Kendrick stepped down from the daily oversight of the company to explore new business opportunities. He served as President of a Texas-based banking technology company for four years in the 1980s until it was purchased by a subsidiary of General Motors. In 1989, Kendrick invested in a community bank – Woodforest National Bank – in The Woodlands, Texas, which now is one of the largest employee-owned banks in the U.S. Kendrick is also a principal of CDK Partners, a real estate investment group focused on the development of downtown Phoenix.

Kendrick also owns the Bumble Bee Ranch, which includes more than 74,000 acres for horseback riding, cattle driving, off-road and helicopter tours and overnight facilities which are devoted to supporting charities that provide services to children throughout Arizona.

Consistent with the charitable ways of the D-backs organization, Kendrick is very active in his charity and philanthropic endeavors, beginning with his role as Chairman of the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation. He and his wife, Randy, were the 2007 Living and Giving Honorees for the Desert Southwest Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. He also serves as a director for various charities including Childhelp USA, Helping Hands Housing, Challenger Center for Space Science Education, Phoenix Country Day School, TGen Foundation, Cleveland Clinic Foundation and Roaring Fork Conservancy.

A native of Princeton, W.Va., Kendrick is a proud alumnus of West Virginia University in Morgantown and sits on the Board of Directors for the university's WVU Foundation. He and his wife have established a program at WVU's College of Business and Economics focused on free-market research. Kendrick also supported the construction of the Donald J. Brohard Hall of Traditions, which provides a first-class showcase for the tradition of Mountaineer football and serves as a recruiting focal point at WVU. In November 2006, Kendrick was one of four industry leaders with strong ties to West Virginia that was inducted into the state's Business Hall of Fame.

Ken and his wife, Randy, and their two children, Cal and Catie, make their home in Paradise Valley.

MIKE CHIPMAN GENERAL PARTNER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Mike Chipman is one of the five general partners who possess the largest financial stake in the franchise, and while he takes a low-profile approach to his role, his business acumen is invaluable when the partners assemble to make executive decisions regarding the shaping of the Diamondbacks.

A graduate from the U.S. Air Force Academy with a degree in Computer Science, Chipman spent five years in the basic research arm of the Air Force, attaining the rank of Captain before resigning his commission to pursue a career in civilian life. He spent the next few years as a research scientist working in the area of computational physics, principally at Science Application International in La Jolla, Calif.

Chipman then made a huge impact in the computer software industry in the early 1980s when he became an investor and founder of Chipsoft, Inc., the original owner and developer of Turbo Tax, the leading income tax preparation software program for consumers and small businesses. Chipman served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Chipsoft until 1993, when Chipsoft and Turbo Tax were sold to Intuit, Inc. Chipsoft grew from a spare room operation in the Chipman's home to a 550-person public company by the time he retired at age 45.

Since retirement Chipman has invested in various businesses principally through an Investment Angels group. Chipman has recently had a hand in the development of the highly successful Bank of Internet USA and has been involved as an investor with other banks in Northern Nevada. He has been an owner of commercial real estate in Arizona for more than a decade during which time he became one of the primary investors in the Diamondbacks.

Chipman and his wife, Evy, make their home in Lake Tahoe, Nev., where he has built a model railroad, complete with nearly 1,700 trees, a project that has kept him busier than he even imagined. The Chipmans spend a lot of "baseball time" locally in Paradise Valley after having wintered in Carefree for 10 years. Chipman's son, Michael, and wife, Erin, are the parents of the first grandchild, Owen.

DALE JENSEN
GENERAL PARTNER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Dale Jensen is the largest single investor of the Arizona Diamondbacks, a position in which he's very familiar since he is also an investor in over 45 other companies.

Jensen is also a big investor into the revitalization of downtown Phoenix. He is a part owner of the Phoenix Suns, Alice Cooper's town Restaurant near Chase Field and the Dodge Theater. Jensen and his business partner, Bradley Yonover, are the principals behind bringing the Grand Prix Arizona, a Champ Car street race, to downtown Phoenix in November 2007. He is also a key principal in the proposed Jackson Street Entertainment District, which would cut a path across the southern end of downtown, stretching from Central Avenue to Chase Field. The entertainment district would include 300,000 square feet of office space, more than 1,000 housing units, a hotel, courtyards and paseos that are permanently closed to vehicular traffic, and at least 450,000 square feet of entertainment and retail space.

Jensen began his professional career at the tender age of 23, serving as the youngest Vice President of The National Bank of Commerce. After three years, Jensen co-founded Information Technology, revolutionizing the banking industry with computer software and solutions during the infancy of the computer era, and later sold the company for $383 million in 1996. Among his subsequent holdings in technology and entertainment, Jensen is among a quartet of principal investors in M101, a new entertainment entity that delivers high definition, highly produced visual content focused on music, as well as delving into film and television production branding.

A Nebraska native, Jensen's holdings also include Superior Shores Lodge in Two Harbors, Minn., the Sands Hill Golf Club near Mullen, Neb., and Alive Spirits, a company that co-brands celebrities and liquor.

Jensen, who spent 1968-70 at the University of Nebraska before joining the National Guard during the Vietnam War, was a major contributor to the renovation of the university's Andersen Hall, the journalism and mass communications building and has endowed the Dale M. Jensen chairs in math and computer science at Nebraska. He is a large donor to Nebraska's athletic department, attends every home football game at Memorial Stadium and also owns a part of Pinnacle Sports, which has the radio rights to all Cornhusker sports events.

Jensen is also very active in a broad spectrum of philanthropy, not the least of which is donating money and time to find a cure for cystic fibrosis. He is a member of the Boomer Esiason Foundation's Board of Directors and was a Esiason Foundation MVP in 1997 after helping the former NFL quarterback, who's son Gunnar has cystic fibrosis, raise funds to find a cure.

Jensen and his wife, Vicki, make their home in Paradise Valley. He has a son, Christopher, who has followed him into the field of technology.

JEFFREY MOORAD
GENERAL PARTNER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

One of the most recognizable names in professional sports, Jeff Moorad brought over 20 years of sports industry experience to Arizona in August 2004, when he was named a member of the executive team of the Diamondbacks. The career change was finalized when the Office of the Commissioner formally approved Moorad as an owner and General Partner in the Diamondbacks' ownership group. Armed with a wealth of experience in Major League Baseball on the player side of the table, Moorad is now the spokesman for the Diamondbacks' ownership group, as well as overseeing along with Ken Kendrick the day-to-day operations of the franchise.

Moorad brings a unique perspective and sports business acumen to the Diamondbacks, and is committed to bringing the fans of Arizona a championship team and a consistent winning product. Equally important to Moorad, is the strong desire to build upon the organization's reputation in the community as positive and active leaders and contributors.

The founder of Moorad Sports Management, he began specializing in athlete representation in 1983, with his main focus on Major League Baseball. Moorad's reputation as a knowledgeable and respected negotiator has earned him a spot on The Sporting News' 100 Most Powerful People in Sports on eight occasions, as he helped revolutionize player representation.

Moorad's client base took off in 1984 when he was retained by Will Clark and four other members of the U.S. Olympic baseball team, each of whom were Top 10 draft choices. He then joined forces with Leigh Steinberg in 1985 to form one of the most dynamic twosomes in the history of sports representation, covering both Major League Baseball and the National Football League. The successful duo negotiated over $3 billion in athlete contracts throughout their 18 years together, including representing Pro Football Hall of Famers Steve Young, Troy Aikman, Warren Moon and Thurman Thomas.

Moorad was the negotiator on a number of landmark contracts for a client base that included Manny Ramirez, Eric Karros, Ivan Rodriguez, Mo Vaughn, Shawn Green and Raul Mondesi, just to scratch the surface of All-Star talent he represented. He also represented former D-back Matt Williams, who joined Clark in spring training with the Diamondbacks as on-field advisors. Moorad represented more than 40 first-round selections from baseball's annual First Year Player Draft in his practice, highlighted by breakthrough deals for No. 1 overall selections Pat Burrell (1998) and Darin Erstad (1995), both draft records at the time.

While sports representation occupied the majority of Moorad's professional time, it also led to work in the entertainment field as he has consulted and appeared in major motion picture projects involving sports. Jeff was the baseball technical consultant for the Universal motion picture "For Love of the Game" and had a cameo appearance in the movie, and then he and former partner Steinberg both appeared in and served as technical consultants to director Cameron Crowe in the 1996 Oscar-winning picture "Jerry Maguire."

The former President and CEO of Moorad Sports Management, his firm did not stop at athlete representation as Moorad guided it into a variety of sports ventures, publishing projects and charitable community projects. Consistent with his civic commitment, Moorad helped his clients understand the responsibility of serving as role models in the community, encouraging them to contribute millions of dollars to community programs, including their own non-profit foundations and alma maters. Leading by example, Moorad endowed a $100,000 scholarship to his alma mater at UCLA. He and his wife, Jan, were also the honorary chairpersons for Childhelp USA's 2007 Childhelp Drive the Dream Gala. He has also been very active in the California Coast and Arizona Chapters of the Young Presidents' Organization (YPO), an exclusive peer network that creates better leaders through education and idea exchange.

Moorad is also very active in helping raise funds to find a cure for amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, more commonly known as Lou Gehrig's Disease, through Augie's Quest. The foundation is named after his good friend Augie Nieto, who was diagnosed with ALS in 2005 after he became one of the most successful innovators in the U.S. fitness industry as chairman of Life Fitness. Moorad helped link Augie's Quest to the Muscular Dystrophy Association as well as assist in fast-track research funding at Phoenix-based Translational Genomics Research Institute (TGen), where scientists have already made significant research breakthroughs in less than two years.

Moorad currently serves on the Board of Directors for Oakley, Inc., a worldwide leader in performance optics, and PROTRADE, a sports entertainment company committed to reshaping the way people think about sports through its unique virtual sports stock market. He also is on the Board of Directors for TGen and is a Vice President for MDA.

A native of Modesto, Calif., Moorad earned an Associate in Arts degree from Modesto Junior College in 1976, where he served as Student Body President, a degree in Political Science (B.A.) in 1978 from UCLA, then received his law degree from Villanova University School of Law (J.D.) in 1981. Jeff and his wife have three sons and reside in Paradise Valley.

JEFF ROYER
GENERAL PARTNER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Jeff Royer's family is an original founding investor in the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Royer's involvement has grown to become a member of the General Partnership. Royer's love for baseball began in his youth as a devoted fan of Warren Spahn, the record-setting left-handed pitcher of the Milwaukee Braves. In the Wisconsin town where he grew up, work schedules were often made around the Braves' game schedule. He learned at a young age that baseball would be his primary sports interest.

Royer's business career began in investment banking. Since the late 1980s, Royer's work has focused on private equity investing but the primary focus of his business interests is telecommunications. His private and public investments include Galtronics Ltd., an antenna company, and Shaw Communications, a Canadian cable and satellite company.

Jeff, his wife, and family are all devotees of the game and spend as much time in Phoenix as possible. He makes his residence in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

DERRICK HALL
PRESIDENT

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Derrick Hall was named President of the Arizona Diamondbacks on Sept. 6, 2006, officially taking the day-to-day lead of the organization after having served as Executive Vice President; Senior Vice President, Marketing and Communications; and Senior Vice President, Communications since joining the team on May 23, 2005.

Immediately after being named President, Hall developed a "Circle of Success" mission statement with his executive management team to begin concentrating on five important areas heading into the 2007 season: Fan Experience (fun, entertaining, safe, attention to detail), Performance (consistency, discipline), Community (contribution, leaders, involvement), Culture (people, integrity, family, innovation) and Financial Efficiency (responsibility, value).

Developing under the O'Malley family ownership of the Los Angeles Dodgers as a young executive in the 1990s, Hall learned the value of taking care of the fans. He preaches it to everyone that works for the Diamondbacks and spends valuable hours listening and communicating with season ticket holders. Hall has been invaluable in the community re-establishing relationships with civic leaders as well as meeting with corporate partners to discuss how the Diamondbacks can better grow their business. His exceptional skills in dealing with people has invigorated the D-backs front office and fan base as the organization went through a re-branding process with new colors, logos and uniforms heading into the 2007 season.

Hall quickly established himself since joining the organization two years ago. After he took on various marketing-related responsibilities in December 2005, he put together a marketing partnership with the Gila River Indian Community that became Arizona's first-ever presenting sponsor for a sports franchise when the team announced all aspects of the organization would be presented by Gila River Casinos beginning in 2006. The multi-million dollar, long-term deal branded the Gila River Indian Community with messages throughout the team's TV and radio broadcasts as well as with signage throughout Chase Field. Hall also established kid-friendly programs to enhance the family experience and, with the help of Joe Garagiola, Sr., created the "No Chew Crew" to educate children and the public on the harms of chewing tobacco.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Hall made a brief stop as Senior Vice President, Corporate Communications for KB Home, a Fortune 500 company based in Los Angeles, and was responsible for all external communications, public relations, crisis communications and regional and national media efforts. He is credited for increasing the brand awareness of the nation's fifth-largest homebuilder by seeking and achieving feature coverage in mainstream outlets like Newsweek, BusinessWeek, Time, Life, U.S. News & World Report, Money, USA Today and The Wall Street Journal as well as on television shows such as "Access Hollywood" and "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition."

Hall spent parts of 12 seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers, joining the organization's Single-A Florida State League affiliate in Vero Beach, Fla., in 1992 and departing as the club's Senior Vice President, Communications in 2004. In between, he was a strategic communications specialist that served key roles during three ownership changes with the Dodgers and was recognized for reuniting Fernando Valenzuela with the organization after hiring him as a color analyst for the team's Spanish radio broadcasts in 2003. Known as an industry-wide specialist in strategic communications, Hall spent a great deal of time on image building, media training, brand promoting, pro-active story pitching and crisis management, and taught a sports public relations class at the University of Southern California. His reputation allowed him to assist other local teams, organizations from other sports, sports agents, and professional athletes with their public relations issues, needs and strategies.

Hall stepped outside of baseball for employment during the 1999 season, first as a member of the media as a host for a three-hour morning talk show on the Dodgers' flagship station (XTRA 1150 AM) and as host of the "Dodger Game Day" pre-game radio show when the team played at Dodger Stadium. He also had a stint in front of the camera as a fill-in sports anchor at KNBC-TV Channel 4 in Los Angeles.

Hall is also a member of The Thunderbirds, the Phoenix Pride Commission for the City of Phoenix, ad hoc committees for the ASU Alumni Association and ASU Athletic Director, Phoenix Children's Hospital (strategic marketing committee), United Methodist Outreach Ministries and is the 2006-07 Honorary Chairman for the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Arizona's annual campaign as well as the Honorary Host of the 2007 ASU Founder's Day. He is an active member of the Ohio University Sports Administration Alumni Advisory Board, and chairs committees for the purpose of fundraising and development. Hall is very active with charitable organizations by serving on the following Boards:

- Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce
- Greater Phoenix Convention and Visitors Bureau
- Downtown Phoenix Partnerships
- US Airways Education Foundation
- Valley of the Sun United Way
- United Blood Services
- Baseball Professional Scouts Foundation
- Arizona Foundation for Women's "Men's Anti-Violence Network"
- Phoenix Community Alliance
- Arizona Science Center

Hall received a bachelor's degree from Arizona State University, where he was named "Man of the Year" in 1991, in broadcasting and journalism and a master's degree from Ohio University in sports administration. In 2002, he was inducted into the ASU Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communications Alumni Hall of Fame and was awarded the ASU Young Alumni Achievement Award in 2003. In 2006, Ohio University's Sports Administration Program awarded Hall as the 25th recipient of the Charles R. Higgins Distinguished Alumnus Award.

In 2007, Hall was named the "Father of the Year" for Arizona through the American Diabetes Association, is the recipient of the "Al Molina Community Lifeline Award" from Teen Lifeline, was an Honorary Host for ASU's Founders Day and was named to Phoenix Business Journal's annual "Forty Under 40" list.

Hall and his wife, Amy, reside in Paradise Valley with their children Logan, Hayden and Kylie.

TOM GARFINKEL EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Tom Garfinkel was promoted to Executive Vice President, Business Operations on Oct. 9, 2006, and oversees all marketing and branding, communications, ticket sales, corporate partnerships, strategic planning, human resources and information technology. Garfinkel originally joined the organization in May 2006 as Senior Vice President, Strategic and Corporate Development.

Garfinkel oversaw all aspects of the Diamondbacks' advertising campaign that showcased the fan experience in print, radio and television advertisements entering the 2007 season. He also commissioned Target Commercial Interiors for the $4 million re-branding project throughout Chase Field.

Prior to joining the Diamondbacks, Garfinkel spent five years with Chip Ganassi Racing Teams, joining the company in 2001 as Vice President and leaving in 2006 as Executive Vice President overseeing all business operations of the 400-employee company. He negotiated more than $500 million in sponsorship and driver contracts that resulted in a 280 percent increase of annual company revenue during his tenure with the company. Also while at Chip Ganassi Racing Teams, the company won two championships and grew to include three NASCAR Nextel Cup teams, one Busch Series team, two IndyCar teams and one Grand-Am team with sponsors that included Target, Chevron, Coors, Toyota, Dodge, Microsoft, P&G, Pepsi, Johnson & Johnson, Fujifilm, Energizer, Glaxo Smith Kline, Gillette, CompUSA, and Clorox among others.

Garfinkel's background also includes time at Texaco, Inc., where he managed their sponsorships and corporate branding department, and at Miller Brewing Company in strategic marketing and sales. Additionally, he has consulted on projects for Nike, Coca-Cola and Dell Computer Corp.

Garfinkel earned a B.A. from the University of Colorado, Boulder, and an M.B.A. from the Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan. He and his wife, Allison, reside in Paradise Valley with their sons, Harrison and Jackson.

TOM HARRIS EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Tom Harris was promoted to Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer in October 2006, and will continue to oversee all general accounting, finance, administrative activities, and ensure operations are in accordance with ownership goals and objectives. He also supervises risk management and legal obligations for the team.

Harris originally joined the Diamondbacks as Vice President, Finance in July 1995 after leaving the Phoenix Suns and America West Arena, where he was the Financial Controller of the arena for two years. Prior to entering the sports industry, he was employed by Gene A. Schwarzkopf, CPA, Ltd. for three years. Harris earned a B.A. in accounting from Arizona State University, where he also earned his Master's degree in taxation. He began his professional career in 1985 at Arthur Andersen & Co.

Harris serves on the Board of Directors for the Arizona Chamber of Commerce, is a member of The Thunderbirds and was inducted into the ASU School of Business Hall of Fame in 2005. A native of Winslow, Ariz., Harris and his wife, Kathleen, reside in Phoenix with their children, Sean, Sarah, Kelly and Katie.

DIANNE AGUILAR SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNITY AFFAIRS & TICKET OPERATIONS

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Dianne Aguilar has 30 years of ticketing experience, which included an impressive array of sporting events in the Valley before joining the Diamondbacks. She supervised ticketing for Arizona State's 1987 Rose Bowl appearance, the 1992 NBA All-Star Game, the 1993 NBA Finals and the opening of the US Airways Center.

Born in Phoenix and a graduate of both Tempe High School and Arizona State University, her ticketing career began in the Athletic Ticket Office of ASU during her days as a student in 1976. While still a student, she was promoted to ticket manager and during her tenure, the Sun Devils played in the Rose Bowl and Sun Devil Stadium was expanded to its current size.

In 1990, Aguilar was named ticket manager for the Phoenix Suns and was later named Director, Ticket Operations for the move to America West Arena. One of her monumental tasks was determining seating assignments for season ticket holders from Veterans Memorial Coliseum into the new facility. This was a skill that came in handy during the seat selection process for the opening of Bank One Ballpark.

Aguilar's favorite sport, baseball, was the one she had not worked and she jumped at the chance to join the Diamondbacks as Vice President of Ticket Operations and Special Services. Her responsibilities include supervision of the ticket operations, suite services and tour departments at Chase Field, and working with the ADA (American Disabilities Act) to ensure the stadium is handicap accessible. Dianne also oversees the community affairs department and serves as the Executive Director of the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation.

JOSH BYRNES

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Josh Byrnes was named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Diamondbacks on Oct. 28, 2005, becoming the second GM in the organization's history.

Since assuming the General Manager duties, Byrnes has worked to build a roster with more depth, greater financial flexibility and increased opportunity for the talented young players in the Diamondbacks system. The acquisitions of Randy Johnson, Livan Hernandez, Doug Davis, Orlando Hudson, Eric Byrnes, Chris Young, Jeff Davanon and Alberto Callaspo have solidified the starting rotation and the middle of the field.

Byrnes began his front office career in 1994 as the Cleveland Indians were moving into Jacobs Field. In his time there, Byrnes performed a myriad of duties (advance scouting, contract research and preparation, pro scouting) before being named Director of Scouting in 1998. During Byrnes' stint in Cleveland, the Indians broke a 41-year playoff drought and won five consecutive AL Central titles.

In the fall of 1999, Byrnes followed Dan O'Dowd to Colorado as the Assistant General Manager of the Rockies. During his three years in Colorado, Byrnes assisted O'Dowd on all Major League transactions and also was very involved in the club's scouting and development operations. During that time, the Rockies saw players like Jason Jennings, Juan Pierre, Matt Holliday, Aaron Cook and Juan Uribe grow through the system, while drafting players such as Jeff Francis, Garrett Atkins and Brad Hawpe.

After the 2002 season, Byrnes accepted the Assistant General Manager position with the Boston Red Sox. Working with Theo Epstein, Byrnes assisted in all Major League personnel and contractual issues and continued an active role in all scouting matters. During Byrnes' three years in Boston, the Red Sox won at least 95 games each year, participated in the playoffs each year and ended the franchise's 86-year championship drought with a World Series title in 2004.

Originally from Washington, D.C., Byrnes attended Haverford College in Pennsylvania, establishing school career records for home runs and RBI (since broken). Byrnes and his wife, Charity, reside in Phoenix with their daughters Avery and Darby.

RUSS AMARAL

VICE PRESIDENT, FACILITIES & EVENT SERVICES

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Beginning his 10th year in the organization and eighth at Vice President, Russ Amaral's job scope continues with oversight of all guest-related functions and starting with the 2007 season, adds the stadium operations element (engineering, security, operations, and grounds keeping) to his supervision.

Amaral began his facility career with the opening of the America West Arena in 1992, working in various capacities up to Director, Event Services, and in 1997 was given the opportunity to help in the final planning and opening operation of then Bank One Ballpark in 1998. He was invited by Major League Baseball to work the 2000 "Subway Series", which proved to be invaluable as the Diamondbacks won the 2001 World Series with a thrilling Game 7 victory over the New York Yankees.

Amaral is a graduate of Oregon State University, earning a degree in Business Administration. He and his wife, Beverly, make their home in central Phoenix.

Dbacks™

CRAIG BRADLEY

VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Craig Bradley enters his first season as the D-backs Vice President, Finance after serving as the organization's Controller for the previous three seasons (2004-06). Bradley will continue to work closely with all departments within the organization overseeing the accounting, reporting and business operations functions.

Bradley originally joined the D-backs in September 1997 as Business Manager, Baseball Operations and worked alongside former General Manager Joe Garagiola, Jr. as well as other baseball department directors in setting up and managing the minor league system, Dominican academy and scouting and major league operations.

Prior to the D-backs taking the field, Bradley worked as the Assistant General Manager, Business Operations for the Triple-A Phoenix Firebirds from 1994-97. With the Firebirds, he was responsible for game and stadium operations, season tickets, box office and merchandising.

After graduating from Arizona State in 1988, Bradley began his career with Arthur Andersen & Co. before moving into the construction and manufacturing industries. He played baseball for the Sun Devils from 1983-85, earning a junior varsity letter.

A Certified Public Accountant, Bradley is also a member of About Care, Inc. He and his wife, Dr. Jennifer Bradley, have two daughters, Cecilia and Olivia, and make their home in Chandler.

BOB GEBHARD

VICE PRESIDENT, SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Bob Gebhard joined the Diamondbacks prior to the 2005 season as Vice President, Special Assistant to General Manager. He was coming off a five-season stint in a similar position with the St. Louis Cardinals, working closely with Walt Jocketty on the club's day-to-day Major League operations including player evaluations and contract negotiations.

None of those roles were new to Gebhard, who was on the ground floor of the Colorado Rockies' franchise, joining the club in the winter of 1991 and building the entire baseball operations department from scratch. His efforts were rewarded with Colorado's lone playoff appearance only three years into its existence in 1995, winning the National League's first-ever Wild Card spot on the final day of the season. Among his early successes in Colorado included the signing of veteran Andres Galarraga to a free agent contract the day before the 1992 Expansion Draft, then engineering a trade for slugging outfielder Dante Bichette immediately following the draft, with the twosome eventually comprising half of the famed Blake Street Bombers. Gebhard and his staff were so thoroughly prepared for the Expansion Draft that six members of the 1995 Division Series playoff squad still remained when the Rockies played the Atlanta Braves.

Gebhard joined the Rockies after a successful stint in Minnesota's front office, joining the Twins as their Director of Major League Personnel in 1987 then assuming the role of Vice President/Player Personnel the following year. His first and last years with Minnesota culminated in a pair of World Series rings, as the Twins knocked off the Cardinals in 1987 and the Braves in 1991.

Gebhard had an 11-year playing career as a pitcher that included big league duty with both the Twins and Montreal Expos. He was a player/coach in the Montreal chain from 1974-75, then was promoted to Minor League Field Director and pitching coach in 1976, a role he held for six seasons. Gebhard was part of Montreal's big league coaching staff in 1982, then served as Director of Minor League Operations through 1986. He then joined the Twins, the organization that selected him in the 15th round of the first June draft in 1965.

A native of Lamberton, Minn., Gebhard earned 16 letters in four sports in high school. His athletic career then shifted to the University of Iowa, where he co-captained the baseball team and also played basketball.

Gebhard and his wife, Nancy, have three children, daughters Angie and Emily, and son, Casey. They also have five grandchildren. The Gebhard's still make their home in Littleton, CO.

SCOTT GEYER

VICE PRESIDENT, BROADCASTING

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Scott Geyer's endless hours of work began in 1995 as he prepared the organization for its live television productions, as well as provided design insight into the construction of Chase Field from the media point of view. The Diamondbacks had the right man providing that information, as Geyer is in his 25th year of sports television, serving the club as the director for each game telecast throughout the year.

Prior to his move to the Diamondbacks, Geyer spent 10 years as producer/director of the Phoenix Suns television package, while also managing the production and post-production division of America West Arena since it opened in 1992. His baseball television resume includes directing a major league package for FOX Sports Net and a five-year stint directing AAA baseball in the Valley in the 1980s.

Geyer is a native of the San Francisco Bay Area and graduated from San Diego State University with a degree in broadcast journalism, prior to making the Valley his home in 1980. Scott and his wife, Lisa, have two sons, Adam (13) and Travis (10).

NONA LEE

VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL COUNSEL

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Nona Lee was promoted to Vice President and General Counsel for the Diamondbacks. In that capacity, she is responsible for all of the legal needs of the team and Chase Field. Previously, Nona worked for five years as Associate General Counsel and then Vice President for the Phoenix Suns, Arizona Diamondbacks, Phoenix Mercury, Arizona Rattlers, Bank One Ballpark, America

West Arena and Dodge Theatre.

Lee is the founder and president of the Phoenix Women's Sports Association (PWSA), an Arizona non-profit corporation whose mission is to "help girls and women find their power through sports." In 2007, the Business Journal selected Lee as one of the Women in Business honorees. In addition, she serves as a Vice President of the Board of Trustees of the Women's Sports Foundation in New York, a nonprofit corporation founded by Billie Jean King that is dedicated to advancing the lives of girls and women through sports and physical activity. Lee is Chair of the Foundation's Diversity Committee, as well as the Chair (on behalf of the Women's Sports Foundation) of the National Coalition to Address Racial Diversity in Sports.

Lee is a former AAU swimmer and water polo player, and played basketball at Pepperdine University.

CULLEN MAXEY

VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Cullen Maxey was named Vice President, Corporate Partnerships on Nov. 20, 2006 and will oversee the development and fulfillment of corporate partnerships for the organization. In his new role, Maxey will lead the organization's corporate partnerships initiatives to further strengthen relationships with team sponsors as well as develop innovative ideas to bring additional business to the team.

Maxey joined the D-backs after spending two years as the General Manager of Sun Devil Sports Marketing for CBS Collegiate Sports Properties, the multi-media rights holder of Arizona State University Athletics. At ASU, Maxey managed all business operations, multi-media rights and sales while ASU Athletics saw unprecedented sponsorship revenue growth during his tenure.

Prior to joining ASU Athletics, Maxey served as Vice President, Corporate Sales with the Phoenix Coyotes from 2001-05. During his time with the Coyotes, he was responsible for corporate sponsorship sales and service and was involved in the opening of Glendale Arena as well as its corporate inventory. The Coyotes enjoyed double-digit growth in corporate sales each year under his management. Maxey began his sports career in 1997 with the Phoenix Suns, where he handled advertising sales for the team publication prior to moving on to corporate sales and suite sales.

Maxey and his wife, Brenda, have two children, William and Elizabeth.

SHAUN RACHAU

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Shaun Rachau was promoted to Vice President, Communications on Jan. 25, 2007, and has overall responsibility for the D-backs' internal and external communications strategies by overseeing the player and media relations, corporate communications and publications departments as well as enhancing the fan experience by directing the special events and entertainment, game operations and baseball outreach and development departments.

Rachau, who spent 10 years in Southern California in various sports and business public relations roles, returned to the Phoenix area when he joined the D-backs in February 2006 as Senior Director, Special Programs and Events. He was promoted to Senior Director, Corporate Communications in October 2006 and directed the organization's business communications during the off-season, including the D-backs new uniform launch in November 2006.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Rachau was the Director, Corporate Communications for KB Home, a Fortune 500 company based in Los Angeles. At KB Home, Rachau helped increase the brand awareness of the nation's fifth-largest homebuilder by overseeing public relations representatives throughout the nation as well as coordinating publicity for the company's collaboration announcement with Martha Stewart Living Omnimedia to have Martha Stewart design homes.

Overall, Rachau has 10 years of experience in Major League Baseball, including eight seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers as the Assistant Director, Publicity (1997-99) and Director, Team Travel (2000-04). With the Dodgers, he coordinated the organization's spring training camp in Vero Beach, Fla. as well as handle all transportation matters in getting the team around the country throughout the season. Rachau was also a Media Assistant with the San Diego Padres in 1996 and has served as a media relations consultant with the Fiesta Bowl for the past 12 years, including four national championship games.

Rachau received a bachelor's degree in journalism from Arizona State University in 1995. As an ASU student, he covered local prep sports around the Valley for the Phoenix Gazette and Arizona Republic. A 1991 graduate of Paradise Valley High School, Rachau was a co-captain on the school's region championship football and baseball teams.

Rachau, who currently serves on the Board of Directors for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Arizona, resides in Phoenix with his wife, Joely.

PETER WOODFORK

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Peter Woodfork is in his second season as the Assistant General Manager of the Diamondbacks. He assists Josh Byrnes in all phases of baseball operations including scouting, contract negotiations and Minor League player development.

Woodfork came to Arizona by way of the Boston Red Sox, where he served for three seasons as Director of Baseball Operations and Assistant Director of Player Development. In that capacity, Woodfork played a key role in signing players, salary arbitration and monitoring league rules. Before joining the Red Sox, Woodfork spent three years in the Office of the Commissioner, working in Major League Baseball's Labor Relations Department. While there, he worked with the baseball operations departments of all teams, assisting them with the interpretation of the Collective Bargaining Agreement and advising them of upcoming deadlines. Woodfork also took part in the creation of the 2004-2006 Basic Agreement between the Players Union and Major League Baseball.

Woodfork is a 1999 graduate of Harvard University, where he earned a degree in psychology and started in the infield for the Crimson baseball team, which won three Ivy League championships in his four seasons. Woodfork and his fiancé Becca, reside in Phoenix.

TOM ALLISON

DIRECTOR, SCOUTING

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Tom Allison enters his first season as the Director, Scouting after joining the Arizona Diamondbacks on September 1, 2006. As director, Tom supervises all amateur scouting.

Allison came to the Diamondbacks after spending the previous six years as a scouting cross-checker for the Milwaukee Brewers. He was a member of the New York Mets organizations for 10 years in capacities such as Area Scouting Supervisor (1996-1999), Assistant Scouting Director (1995-1996), and player/coach in the minor league system (1990-1994).

Allison is a graduate of Chapman University in Orange, Calif. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Legal Studies and was a member of 1986 Loyola Marymount University College World Series team.

JERRY DIPOTO

DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Jerry Dipoto was named to his post of Director, Player Personnel on Nov. 1, 2005 and oversees all aspects of pro scouting, including the evaluation of major and minor league talent. Dipoto came to Arizona after serving a full year in the same capacity for the Colorado Rockies following his two years in the scouting department for the Boston Red Sox.

During his eight-year Major League career, Jerry pitched in 390 games, all in relief, posting a 27-25 record with 49 saves and a 4.05 ERA in his 495.1 innings. The righthander began his big-league career with Cleveland in 1993 and spent two seasons with the Indians before a two-year stint with the New York Mets. His final four years came as a member of the Rockies before he was forced to retire due to a bulging disc in his neck in the spring of 2001.

Dipoto, his wife, Tamie, their daughters, Taylor and Jordan, and son, Jonah, reside in Fountain Hills.

A.J. HINCH

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

A.J. Hinch enters his second season as the D-backs Director, Player Development overseeing all aspects of the organization's minor league system, including coordination of instruction, signing of free agents, staffing, budgets, player movement, affiliate relationships and Latin America field operations. Not only does Hinch have an office at Chase Field, but he also travels to the D-backs six minor league affiliates throughout the season as well as to the organization's academy in the Dominican Republic to ensure the players are receiving the instruction needed to develop at every level.

Hinch's direction proved positive during the 2006 season, as D-backs minor league teams finished with a combined record of 373-338 (.525). Three affiliates earned playoff berths, including two teams (Tucson and Missoula) winning league championships. Tucson also won the Triple-A Championship.

Hinch was drafted by the Oakland Athletics in June 1996 following four successful years at Stanford. He made his Major League debut with the Athletics in 1998 and also played parts of eight Major League seasons as a catcher with Kansas City, Detroit and Philadelphia. Hinch appeared in a total of 350 big league games, compiling a batting average of .219 with 32 home runs, 112 RBI and a fielding percentage of .987 as a catcher.

Hinch and his wife, Erin, reside in Scottsdale with their daughters, Haley and Kaitlin.

CHAD MACDONALD
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, SCOUTING

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Chad MacDonald begins his 10th year in scouting and second year with the Diamondbacks as the Assistant Director, Scouting.

MacDonald came to Arizona after spending the previous three seasons as a scout for the Los Angeles Angels. Prior to his stint with the Angels, he worked for three years in the Cleveland Indians organization, where he worked alongside Senior Vice President and General Manager Josh Byrnes. MacDonald left his mark on both organizations after being named the 'Topps' Scout of the Month during the 2001 and 2005 seasons.

MacDonald got an early start working at the Major League level. He worked as a batboy for the Texas Rangers while in high school and during his collegiate years pitched batting practice and charted pitchers for Bobby Valentine's Rangers clubs.

MacDonald played Division I college baseball for Hardin-Simmons and Winthrop University. A three-sport athlete in high school, MacDonald also played football and basketball at Arlington-Lamar High School (TX).

Away from the ballpark, MacDonald speaks at youth baseball camps and clinics, teaching kids the fundamentals of baseball. He and his wife, Julie, have two children, Caden and Cort, and make their home in Chandler.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

MANAGING/COACHING CAREER—A member of two World Series championship teams, Kirk Gibson joins the Diamondbacks coaching staff as bench coach in 2007...he also served in the same capacity with the Detroit Tigers for three seasons (2003-2005)... Gibson served for five seasons (1998-2002) as an analyst on Tigers telecasts before joining Manager Alan Trammell's staff for the 2003 campaign...Gibson is no stranger to his new boss, as D-backs manager Bob Melvin was Gibson's teammate with Detroit in 1985.

PLAYING CAREER—Gibson put together a well-chronicled 17-year Major League playing career, playing for Detroit, Los Angeles Dodgers, Kansas City and Pittsburgh...Gibson was the emotional leader of the Tigers' 1984 World Championship squad, earning MVP honors as Detroit swept Kansas City in the ALCS, then belted two home runs in the World Series-clinching victory over San Diego...four years later, he authored one of baseball's most memorable moments, hitting a game-winning home run in Game 1 of the 1988 World Series while a member of the Dodgers...the blast triggered an improbable five-game series win over the Oakland Athletics, and capped a season in which Gibson was named National League Most Valuable Player...over his big league career, Gibson hit .268 with 255 home runs and 870 RBI.

PERSONAL—Gibson and his wife, Joanne, have four children, Kirk, Kevin, Colleen and Cameron.

FORMER POSITION: Infielder

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

MANAGING CAREER—Chip Hale served as skipper for the Tucson Sidewinders from 2004-2006, leading the club to the PCL & Triple-A Championships before being named the Arizona Diamondbacks Third Base Coach for 2007...Hale guided the Sidewinders to a franchise best 91-53 record during the 2006 regular season before rolling through the playoffs with a postseason 7-1 mark...in three seasons with Tucson, he totaled 220 wins and a .542 winning percentage to pace all Sidewinders managers...the Tucson resident's new role with the organization will be a familiar one, after Hale spent the first month of the 2006 season filling in as Third Base Coach for Arizona while Carlos Tosca was sidelined by a broken bone in his foot...some of Arizona's best young prospects have been under Hale's tutelage, including OF Carlos Quentin, 1B Conor Jackson, SS Stephen Drew and many other talented young players, establishing the D-backs' farm system as one of the best in baseball.

Hale owns a .562 winning percentage (392-305) in 6 seasons as a minor league manager...his managing career began with the Rookie-Level Missoula Osprey in 2000 and 2001, with his 2000 squad boasting the league's best overall record (44-32)...in 2001, he led his team to the Northern Division's second-half championship before losing in the playoffs to Billings...Hale was honored as the 2001 Pioneer League and Baseball America's Rookie-Level Manager-of-the-Year. In 2002, Chip managed the Double-A El Paso Diablos to a league best 76-62 record and became the first El Paso manager to lead the N.L. team at the Double-A All-Star Game...led Tucson to the best record in Sidewinders history with a 74-70 mark in his first season with the team in 2004.

COACHING CAREER—Hale served as an auxiliary coach with USA Baseball in Tucson, AZ in 1999 and worked with both the U.S. National Team and the U.S. Intercontinental Cup team.

PLAYING CAREER—Hale arrived in the Old Pueblo in 1984 to play for Jerry Kindall's Arizona Wildcats...Hale started every game of his collegiate career, setting a record that would not be broken until 2001...also set the Wildcats career marks for most hits and walks while producing a combined batting average of .345 and helped lead the Wildcats to the 1986 NCAA Championship at the College World Series...was drafted by the Minnesota Twins in 17th round of the 1987 amateur draft...made his major league debut in 1989 and went on to spend portions of seven seasons in the majors with the Twins and Dodgers...his best season came in 1993 when he hit .333 with a .408 on-base percentage in 186 at bats...the versatile Hale played six different defensive positions and also was the designated hitter during his big league career.

PERSONAL—Walter William (Chip) Hale III...resides in Tucson, AZ with wife, Judith, and three children, Edward (11), Sabrina (9) and Jack (5)...he is a 1983 graduate of Campolindo High School in Maraga, CA...attended the University of Arizona from 1984 to 1987.

2007 D-BACKS

KEN CRENSHAW
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Ken Crenshaw is in his second season with the Diamondbacks after a 10-year stint with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, the last three of which were as the Major League head athletic trainer. The 2005 Rays medical staff was voted Major League Training Staff of the Year by their peers, the Professional Athletic Trainers Association (PBATS). The previous year in 2004, Crenshaw's staff earned the distinction of Medical Staff-of-the-Year by Baseball Prospectus.

Prior to his promotion as the head athletic trainer for the Rays, Ken spent five seasons as the assistant Major League trainer. Before the Devil Rays fielded a big league club in 1998, Crenshaw worked for two years as the organization's minor league medical / strength & conditioning coordinator.

Crenshaw's professional baseball training experience also featured a four-year stint as the strength and conditioning coordinator with the Atlanta Braves, and three seasons as an athletic trainer in the Pittsburgh Pirates' chain.

Crenshaw's arrival in Arizona is somewhat of a homecoming for the native of Carrizozo, NM, graduating from nearby New Mexico State University with a degree in sports medicine. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

He and his wife, Robyn, have three sons, Wacy (9), Wyatt (7) and Dustin (5).

DAVE EDWARDS
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Dave Edwards is in his 10th season as the assistant athletic trainer with the Major League club, though he's one of the organization originals, working a pair of minor league seasons. The 42-year old's baseball training career started in the Arizona chain in 1996 for the Rookie League entry, then it was on to High Desert, working for the California League champs in 1997. Edwards' bilingual skills are a terrific asset in the training room, eliminating any potential medical communication difficulties with Spanish speaking players, as well as serving part-time as an interpreter.

A native of Deming, NM, Edwards received a degree in athletic training from New Mexico State University in 1988. During his final days at New Mexico State, Edwards began plying his trade in pro baseball with Pocatello and Everett in the Giants' chain from 1987-90. He earned his Master's in athletic training from the University of Nevada in 1991, then returned to the Valley as the head athletic trainer at Grand Canyon University from 1991-96. He was also the assistant trainer for three seasons for the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League.

Edwards is single and makes his home in Scottsdale.

NATE SHAW
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

This year will be Nate Shaw's second as the Major League strength and conditioning coordinator. He joined the Diamondbacks before last season, after a three-year stint in the Tampa Bay Devil Rays organization, the last two as the minor league strength and conditioning coordinator. He spent his first season in the Rays' chain as their New York Penn League athletic trainer and strength coach. While with the Devil Rays, Shaw was responsible for implementing data based research to further develop programs and procedures in accordance with injury prevention and performance enhancement.

Shaw started his work in professional sports by spending two years (2001-2002) with the Toronto Blue Jays during their spring training session in Dunedin, FL. He also co-founded the GHFC Sports Performance Program, implementing all key facets of the operation including marketing, sales and program design.

Shaw, 32, graduated from the University of Florida in 2001 with a Bachelors Degree in Exercise and Sport Sciences, from the College of Human Health and Performance.

He is single and makes his home in the Valley.

DR. MICHAEL LEE

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Dr. Lee is in his seventh full season as the Head Team Physician after assisting the organization with its orthopedic needs for five years. In his current role, Dr. Lee oversees a support team of orthopedists and primary care physicians to provide whole-spectrum medical care to the entire Diamondbacks organization. Though vital in-season when injuries and orthopedic needs arise, Dr. Lee and his fellow physicians are also busy in the winter months providing follow-up exams with players, as well as giving thorough physical examinations to new acquisitions. An active member of the Major League Baseball Team Physicians Association, Dr. Lee is board certified in orthopedic surgery and sports medicine.

He had previously taken care of other major league clubs, as well as serving as orthopedic consultant to the Arizona State University sports teams. Dr. Lee grew up in Phoenix, then graduated from the University of California-San Diego and attended the University of Arizona, where he completed Master's coursework in Exercise Physiology, graduating from the College of Medicine with honors in 1988. He completed his orthopedic residency at the University of Kansas, then was awarded a Sports Medicine fellowship with the University of Illinois School of Medicine.

Dr. Lee returned to Phoenix over a decade ago with his wife, Martha, and three children, Conor, Allison and Brendan.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Roger L. McCoy, M.D., has been part of the Diamondbacks' family since the organization's start-up, working with the minor leaguers prior to the opening of the 1998 Major League season. He is a Board Certified Family Physician with special training in sports medicine. After graduating from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, he received his master's degree in anatomy as well as his medical degree from Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. While completing his family practice residency in Toledo, he served as a team physician for the University of Toledo and a couple of local high schools for three years.

Dr. McCoy was honored as the Sports Medicine Fellow at Michigan State University where he served as team physician and a faculty member teaching and developing course work at the medical school. He was most recently honored by being voted one of Phoenix's "Top Docs" of 2006 by Phoenix Magazine."

Aside from his responsibilities with the Diamondbacks, he is also team physician for Arizona State University, a published author in sports medicine literature and a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine.

PETER MAINVILLE, JR.

MINOR LEAGUE MEDICAL COORDINATOR

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Peter (P.J.) Mainville, Jr. enters his first season as the club's minor league medical coordinator. Mainville joined the Diamondbacks this past offseason after spending the previous nine seasons as a member of the Baltimore Orioles minor league athletic staff. He spent the last two seasons with the Orioles Triple-A affiliate in Ottawa, serving as the athletic trainer.

Mainville is a 1997 graduate of East Carolina University and received a Masters of Science Degree from California University (PA) in performance enhancement in 2002. He is a member the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. Mainville and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter Kylie (3) and a son Caden (1), and make their home in Tucson.

ROGER RILEY
SENIOR DIRECTOR, TEAM TRAVEL

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Roger Riley is in his 10th season with the Diamondbacks, beginning as the Director of Team Travel in the winter of 1997, then adding the duties of Clubhouse Manager prior to the World Series season of 2001. As if being a member of a World Championship wasn't enough, he capped that year by earning the 2001 Traveling Secretary of the Year award, as voted by his peers in Major League baseball. Aside from his regular duties on the road, he assists baseball operations when the needs arise regarding player transactions and computer work.

Riley doesn't have much of an "off-season" as evidenced by his departure for the MLB clubhouse manager meetings just 72 hours after the Diamondbacks won the World Series title in 2001. He spends the majority of the winter signing hotel and charter aircraft contracts for the upcoming year. As the season commences he arranges for ground transportation in each city and makes sure the hotel is prepared for the team's arrival with room keys in hand, regardless of the hour. Riley also handles player ticket requests both at home and on the road.

His role with the Diamondbacks includes work on the schedule, and making sure that game times both at home and on the road are within the guidelines of Major League Baseball. Riley also works on the exhibition schedule with other Cactus League clubs and coordinates the travel plans for all players and staff members as they prepare for the six-week stay in Tucson.

Baseball was far from uncharted territory for Riley, who played college ball at the University of Kansas. It was there he began working as a statistician, and spent 19 years with a variety of network television assignments, including the Bowl Championship Series title game in the Sugar Bowl in 2000. Upon joining the Padres in 1990, Riley was the Assistant Director of Media Relations, then for two seasons worked as both the Director of Media Relations and the Travel Director. He departed from the media chair after the '96 season and combined his travel responsibilities with Baseball Administration, working with the General Manager.

He and his wife, Donna, have three daughters, Taylor, Shannon and Ashley, and two grandsons, and make their home in Chandler. Riley is an advisory member of the Sheriff's Youth Assistance Foundation.

BOB DOTY
VISITING CLUBHOUSE/EQUIPMENT MANAGER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Raised in San Diego, Bob Doty made a tough decision but made the move to Arizona in the winter prior to the 1998 season, assuming the same role he held in the Padres' organization for a dozen seasons. Adept in all phases of the equipment operation, Doty is also in charge of ordering and stocking equipment for the major league and minor league clubs. He joined the Diamondbacks after a 20-year stay in his hometown with the Padres.

The role of the visiting clubhouse attendant is an all-encompassing position including unpacking each team when their equipment arrives at Chase Field, regardless of the time of day, while also cleaning all of the uniforms and making sure the clubhouse is properly catered for the visiting players.

A graduate of University High School in San Diego, Doty and his wife Angie, have a pair of daughters, Lauren and Sarah, and make their home in Phoenix.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Allen Campbell and Jim Currigan provide the players and coaches with the video material necessary to hone their games or scout upcoming opponents. They are responsible for taping every game the Diamondbacks play as well as the games available on satellite of the opposition to help in game preparation.

Campbell is in his third year in the Diamondback video room after spending the 2004 season as the hitting coach for Arizona's minor league affiliate in Missoula. Campbell, who will spend the majority of the season traveling, started his career with the organization as a staff assistant in the front office.

Curigan has been with the D-backs since their inception, but in 2001 assumed his new role as video coordinator. A member of the organization's in-house television production crew since 1997, Curigan was a 1997 Broadcast Journalism graduate of Arizona State University. He and his wife Mary, and son, Riley James (5) make their home in Phoenix.

JEFF MOTUZAS

BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER/ BULLPEN CATCHER

MATT SMITH

BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER/ PITCHING CHART

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

An original member of the field staff, Jeff Motuzas has been with the Diamondbacks since their inception in 1998. He throws batting practice every day, then puts the gear on and heads to the bullpen where he warms up pitchers during the contest. He became one of the more publicized BP pitchers in 2001 when he was the pitcher in the All-Star Home Run Derby won by Diamondback Luis Gonzalez. Formerly a catcher in the Yankees' chain, Motuzas was a 13th round pick of New York in 1990 after earning All-American status at Nashua (NH) High School. Motuzas and his wife, Crystal, have a daughter, Elyse, and make their home in Phoenix.

Matt Smith is in his third season of charting pitches and throwing batting practice for the Diamondbacks. He joined the organization in 2004, spending 2 years in the outreach and development department, while joining the big league support staff in 2005.

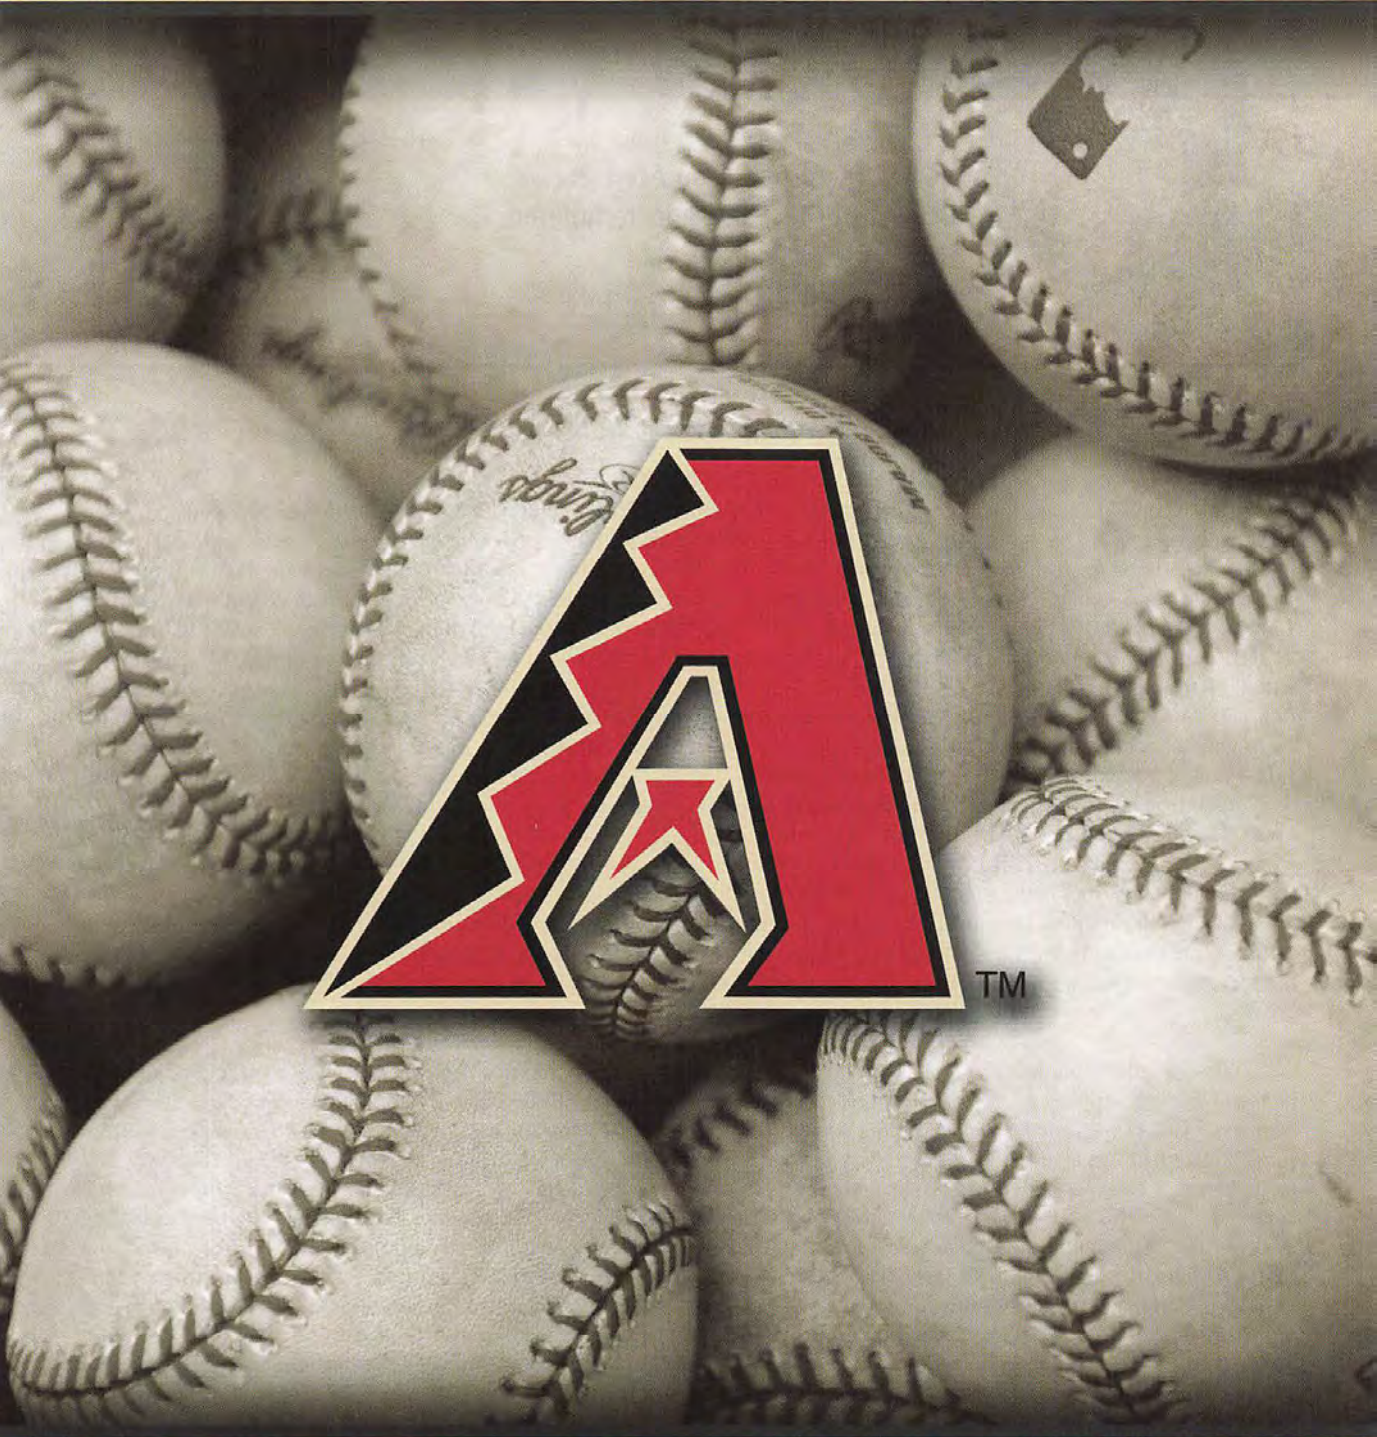

He was a 4-year baseball letterman at the University of California San Diego, captaining the squad in each of his last 3 seasons there. He was voted the UCSD "Athlete-of-the-Year in 2003 by the Athletic Department. Smith and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Braelyn, and make their home in Surprise.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a free agent, January 24, 2005.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

Tony Clark played in 53 games, making 23 starts at first...drew a bases loaded walk as a pinch hitter in the seventh on April 9 at Milwaukee...he remained in the game and smacked a 2-run homer in the ninth...recorded his 4,000th career at bat when he pinch hit against the Dodgers on May 2...snapped an 0-for-26 slide with a game-tying solo homer in the eighth off the Padres' Scott Linebrink on May 15...went 4-for-5 with a pair of home runs on June 4 at Turner Field...it was his 21st multi-homer game of his career and second in Atlanta (also on August 12, 2005)...the 4 hits equaled his career high, the eighth of his career and first time since July 3, 2004...placed on the disabled on July 18 with right shoulder inflammation...activated on August 25 and played in 14 games, going 6-for-23 with a pinch homer on September 10 vs. St. Louis...had season ending right shoulder surgery on September 20...was 7-for-34 with a pair of homers and 9 RBI as a pinch hitter this season...commit only 2 errors in 53 games for a .993 fielding percentage...was the club's 2006 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award...the award is given annually to the Major League player who combines skills on the field with devoted work in the community.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005— Was Tony's first year as a Diamondback, he was named the club's Player-of-the-Year and won the Good Guy Award as voted by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA...finished second on the team in batting (.304), home runs (30) and RBI (87)...homered once every 11.63 AB's, second only to Atlanta's Andruw Jones (1 HR/11.49 AB's) among players with at least 15 home runs...Clark's 30 roundtrippers were the ninth-highest single-season total in team history, one behind Luis Gonzalez's 31 in 2000, and the most ever by a switch-hitter...was the fourth 30-homer year of his career and highest personal mark since 1999...led all big-league pinch hitters with 15 RBI, one shy of David Dellucci's club record in 2001...tied teammate Alex Cintron and Cincy's Jacob Cruz for the top spot in the majors with 3 pinch home runs while tying for third with 27 total bases...his pinch blasts came on May 12 at Colorado (off David Cortes), May 27 vs. the Dodgers' (off Kelly Wunsch) and June 7 vs. Minnesota (off Juan Rincon)...among pinch hitters with at least 25 at bats, he ranked third with a .614 slugging percentage, fifth with a .318 average (14-for-44) and 11th with a .375 on-base percentage...among all Major League hitters, Clark's .636 slugging percentage (min. 200 plate appearances) ranked second behind Chicago's Derrek Lee... Clark's .397 average (31-for-78) in late & close situations was fourth in the majors behind San Diego's Ramon Hernandez, Lee and the Angels' Vladimir Guerrero...had a season-best 11-game hitting streak from May 25-June 7, hitting .563 (18-for-32)...included was a club-record 5 straight pinch hits from May 27-June 7, with the final hit of that stretch a pinch home run...had a trio of 2-homer games in September, going deep twice on September 8 in Pittsburgh, and in back-to-back games on September 16 and 17 vs. Colorado...in the September 17 contest, Tony became the second player in team history (Alex Cintron in 2004) to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game, taking Aaron Cook deep in the fifth inning and lefty Randy Williams in the seventh...it was the ninth time Clark has accomplished the feat in his career...matched his career best with 5 RBI vs. the Pirates on September 8 at PNC Park...hit safely in 58 of his 77 starts at a .300 clip (89-for-297), including at least one hit in 20 of 21 starts from June 14-August 4...spent the early part of the season as a pinch hitter and in a first-base platoon but started 39 of the club's final 58 games...a switch-hitter, Tony batted .313 (36-for-115) with 6 homers and 27 RBI vs. southpaws, while hitting .299 (79-for-234) with 24 homers and 60 RBI against righties...ranks fifth among active switch-hitters with 221 career home runs and 15th all-time...signed a 2-year contract extension on August 5, 2004—Appeared in 106 games for the Yankees, including 64 starts at first base...clubbed a 2-run homer, his first as a Yankee, in a 12-1 win over the Devil Rays on March 31 at the Tokyo Dome...got the starting nod at first base in 19 consecutive affairs from May 16-June 6, hitting .224 (15-for-67) with 2 homers and 13 RBI...his mammoth 2-run homer on June 29 against Boston was the 23rd blast all-time to land in the "Black" section of remodeled Yankee Stadium, making him the first player to do it as a Yankee and as a visitor (also on June 30, 1999, with Detroit) and the third player to accomplish the feat at least twice (Danny Tartabull and Bernie Williams have each done it 3 times)...he victimized the Blue Jays on August 28 with his first career 3-homer game while matching a career-best with 5 RBI...the affair included roundtrippers from both sides of the plate for the eighth time in his career...became the 18th Yankee with 3 roundtrippers in a regular season game (23 times) and first since Tino Martinez on April 2, 1997, at Seattle.

2004 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: His only appearance in the Division Series was in the Game 4 win over the Twins, entering as a defensive replacement at first base in the eighth inning...did not play in the first 2 games of the LCS but took over defensively at first base in Game 3...started the final 4 games at first base, going 3-for-19 (.158). 2003—Proved a steady bench player, clobbering 16 home runs and driving in 43 in 125 games for the Mets, including 2 home runs and 9 RBI as a pinch hitter...saw action at first base in 80 contests (50 starts)...his season began with St. Lucie (A) in the Florida State League where he went 1-for-4 in his lone outing...the Mets purchased his contract on April 6...he clubbed his first career pinch homer on April 18, a go-ahead, 3-run blast off of Florida's Vladimir Nunez in a 6-3 Mets' win...posted his 13th career multi-homer affair and matched his career best with 5 RBI on August 3 against St. Louis, hitting home runs from both sides of the plate...it was the 13th time in Mets' history that a player accomplished the feat and first time since Todd Hundley on June 30, 1997, vs. Cincinnati...got his first career action in the outfield as a defensive replacement in leftfield on August 27 at Atlanta. 2002—Played first base for a little more than half (85) of the Red Sox games, including 70 starts...made his Red Sox debut as the starting first baseman on Opening Day on April 1 and hit his first career Opening Day clout off of Toronto's Chris Carpenter. 2001—Earned his first career All-Star appearance, going 0-for-1 for the American League...had a career-high tying 4 hits (sixth time) on April 5 against Minnesota...hit his second career grand slam on April 6 off of the White Sox Antonio Osuna...homered in four straight games from June 13-16...hit his 150th career homer on July 16 off of Troy Brohawn at Arizona...his season ended on September 23 when he was placed on the 15-day disabled list due to an inflamed right wrist. 2000—Battled injuries throughout the season...went on the shelf on May 13 with a strained left rib cage and made a trio of rehabilitation outings with Toledo (AAA) prior to being activated on June 12...recorded his 12th career multi-homer game on June 20 at Toronto...earned A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors for June 19-25...was disabled from July 15-September 1 with a lumbar spine strain...the injury forced him back on the shelf on September 19 (retroactive to September 17) and on September 22, he was transferred to the 60-day disabled list. 1999—Was one of the top Tigers' offensive threats and became only the fifth player in franchise history to hit 30-plus home runs in 3 straight years...led Detroit with 150 hits and finished second with 31 homers...belted his 100th career roundtripper on May 15 off of Cleveland's Jaret Wright...homered from both sides of the plate on July 18 at Cincinnati and July 25 against Boston, the fifth and sixth times he had accomplished the feat...had a career-best 19-game hitting streak from July 10-August 1. 1998—Established a franchise record for switch-hitters with 34 home runs and became the first Tiger since Rudy York in 1938 to hit at least 30 homers and 100 RBI in his first 2 full big league campaigns...established an American League single-season record with home runs from both sides of the plate in 3 contests (June 17 vs. Minnesota, July 26 at Cleveland and August 1 at Tampa Bay), one game shy of the Major League mark. 1997—Exploded in his first full Major League season with a team-high 32 homers and 117 RBI...among American League leaders, he finished tied for sixth in RBI, seventh with 93 walks and tied for tenth with 105 runs...became the 13th switch-hitter in big league history to hit at least 30 home runs in a season...was the fifth-fastest player in Major League history to amass 50 career roundtrippers, collecting it in his 202nd game on June 28 at Boston, trailing only Mark McGwire (151 games), Rudy York (153 games), Chuck Klein (195 games) and Bob Horner (196 games)...was named the A.L. Player-of-the-Week for April 14-20...set a career-best with 5 RBI on June 21 against the Red Sox...established a career-high with 4 hits on April 5 at Chicago (AL)...laced a pair of doubles in one inning on August 22 at Milwaukee, joining Pop Dillon (April 25, 1901, at Baltimore) as the only players in franchise history to accomplish the feat. 1996—Despite not getting a full season under his belt, Tony finished third in the American League Rookie-of-the-Year voting (behind the Yankees' Derek Jeter and the White Sox' James Baldwin) and garnered TOPPS Rookie All-Star honors after leading all rookies and his team with 27 homers...opened the season at Toledo (AAA), then was recalled to Detroit on June 7...blasted his first career grand slam on August 1 off of California's Greg Gohr...had a pair of multi-homer outings (September 15 vs. Baltimore and September 29 vs. Milwaukee)...snagged A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors for September 23-29. 1995—Rewarded with a September call-up, Clark had 3 homers and 11 RBI in 27 games with Detroit and was named the Tigers' best prospect by Baseball America...recalled on September 2, he appeared in his first Major League game the next day and collected a pair of hits off of Cleveland's Jose Mesa...belted his first big league homer on September 8 off of Toronto's Jeff Ware at SkyDome. 1994—Amassed an organization-high 99 RBI in 152 combined games with Trenton (AA) and Toledo...was selected to the Eastern League (AA) All-Star squad. 1993—Hampered by a partially torn right wrist ligament, Clark appeared in only 36 games for Lakeland (A). 1992—Batted .306 (26-for-85) with 5 roundtrippers and 17 RBI for Niagara Falls (A). 1991—Was sidelined for the entire season after undergoing surgery to repair a back injury he suffered while playing college basketball. 1990—Struggled in his first professional season, batting .164 (12-for-73) in 25 games with Bristol (A).

PERSONAL

Anthony (Tony) Christopher Clark...he and his wife, Frances, and children, Kiara, Jazzin and Aeneas, make their home in Glendale, AZ...Clark was a 1990 graduate of Christian High School in El Cajon, CA, where he earned All-American and Academic All-American honors in baseball and basketball...he amassed a San Diego-area high school basketball record with 2,549 career points while averaging 43.7 points per game his senior year en route to a state scoring title...he went on to play basketball at the University of Arizona and San Diego State University, where he was the Aztecs' top scorer with 11.5 points per game in 1991-92...Clark had his No. 33 retired by Trenton (AA) of the Eastern League on May 19, 1997...prior to the 2000 season while still playing for the Tigers, he switched from uniform No. 17 to No. 44 in honor of Hank Aaron...Clark and his wife established the MVP (Maximize Valuable Potential) Foundation which helps children achieve their goals through education and athletics...he is the club spokesperson for the Baseball Tomorrow Fund's equipment drive, assisting with the collection of much needed baseball equipment for little league baseball in Arizona...last October he was recognized for his work with Arizona's youth by receiving the Circle of Champions award presented by the Arizona Children's Association...he spent his "off-season" coaching the boys basketball team at Northwest Christian High School...T.C. also hosted a group of 1,000 from nearby Luke Air Force Base last season and is doing so again in 2006...he participated with other area celebrities in the Special Olympics putting contest in conjunction with the FBR Open.

Casey Daigle spent the majority of the season with Tucson (AAA), going 3-5 with 4 saves and a 4.69 ERA in 42 games... had three stints with the Diamondbacks, totaling 10 games...contract was purchased from Tucson on April 12... made his Diamondbacks' season debut on April 15 vs. Houston, his first big-league action since a May 31, 2004 start vs. San Francisco... was optioned back to the minors after making 3 appearances for Arizona...returned to the majors on May 2...two days later, Casey and his wife, Jennie, welcomed the couple's first child, son Ace, into the world...pitched 7 times for Arizona from May 2-26 before returning to the minors...was recalled on June 21 but did not appear in a game before being sent back to Tucson the following day...finished the year with Tucson, possessing a 4.40 ERA over his final 29 games...pitched twice during the Sidewinders run to the PCL title, working 3.1 scoreless frames of 1-hit ball...minor league opponents batted .302 against him while big leaguers hit at a .311 clip...retired the first batter faced in 8 of his 10 outings and stranded all 3 inherited runners.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005—Daigle's career took a different direction as the former starter spent the season with Tennessee (AA), leading the club with 19 saves, third best in the Southern League...made 2 relief appearances before making starts on April 12 and 18, both no decisions...those assignments were his last as a starter in '05, working out of the pen from that point on and taking over the role of closer on May 13...picked up his first win of the season on May 21, pitching 1.1 scoreless innings, then recorded his first rescue on May 27 at Huntington...was 2-0 with a save and a 0.00 ERA over 11.2 innings during May...posted saves in 5 straight games from June 10-17, and he finished June with 8 saves, a 2-0 record and a 0.77 ERA...was 5-0 with 7 saves and a 1.59 ERA while working at home in Tennessee...appeared in the Southern League All-Star game...once the season ended he played for the Arizona Fall League champion Phoenix Desert Dogs, going 2-0 with 5 saves and 3.46 ERA. 2004—Earned a spot on the Opening Day roster, bypassing any AAA experience at the time...his first big league start came against the Cardinals on April 9, less than a week after his 23rd birthday, but he lasted only 2.2 innings allowing 10 hits and 8 runs in a 13-6 setback, with a club record 5 home runs...after a trio of no decisions, Casey evened his record with his first Major League win, allowing 4 hits over 5.1 scoreless innings of a 2-0 victory over the Cubs in Wrigley Field...recorded his second big league triumph 5 days later in Shea Stadium, defeating the Mets 10-8...was 0-2 with a 6.75 ERA over his next 4 starts and was optioned to Tucson (AAA) on June 1...in his first exposure to AAA, Casey was 4-9 with a 6.88 ERA in 18 outings (15 starts)...was only 1-9 over his first 14 showings for Tucson, then went 3-0 over his last 4 starts, posting a 5.47 ERA in those efforts. 2003—Led the Texas League with 176.1 innings in his first full season with El Paso (AA)...posted a 5.50 ERA in his first 14 games, but rebounded with a 3.71 ERA over his final 15 outings...took the offensive on April 9 at Round Rock, going 2-for-2 with his first career home run...earned the league's Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for June 16-22 and July 14-20. 2002—Made 28 starts, tied for most in the farm system...earned a promotion to El Paso in July and did not allow more than 2 runs in any of his first 4 starts with the Diablos. 2001—Led the Midwest League (A) in innings pitched (164.0) and tied for fourth in starts (27). 2000—Tied for second in Pioneer League (R) with 15 starts...he recorded his first pro win on July 3 at Medicine Hat.

PERSONAL

Sean Casey (Casey) Daigle...he and his wife, the former Jennie Finch, have a son, Ace and make their home in Tucson... she was an All-American softball pitcher from the University of Arizona and was a member of the 2004 Olympic Gold Medal winning team in Athens...Jennie has also covered Major League Baseball for This Week in Baseball, and pitched last summer for the Chicago entry of the new professional softball league...he was a 1999 graduate of Sulphur (LA) High School, the same high school of Atlanta pitcher John Thomson.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a free agent, February 7, 2006.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

Jeff DaVanon had his season cut short when he was placed on the disabled list on August 11 (retro to August 6) with a sprained left ankle...hit his first home run of the season April 19, a solo shot of the Giants' Matt Cain in the fourth, finishing a double shy of his second career cycle...had back-to-back 3-hit games April 18 & 19 vs. San Francisco and again on June 3 & 4 in Atlanta...posted a season-high 3 hits on 9 occasions this season...recorded a season-high 9-game hitting streak from April 13-24, hitting .400 (14-for-35)...put together a 7-game hit streak (.423, 11-for-26) from July 16-25...smacked his first leadoff homer of his career on June 4 at Atlanta...it was the 16th leadoff homer in club history...tied his career high with 4 triples (also 2004)...hit .308 (56-for-182) against righthanders with all 5 of his home runs and 32 RBI...hit .319 (36-for-113) at Chase Field...batted .377 (20-for-53) with runners in scoring position...collected 13 RBI during April, batting .311 (19-for-61)...hit .328 (19-for-58) during July, with a pair of home runs and 8 RBI...was 4-for-26 with 2 RBI as a pinch hitter this season...patrolled the outfield for 58 games, committing only 2 errors in 407.2 innings for a .979 fielding percentage.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005— Appeared in 108 games for the second consecutive season, seeing playing time at all 3 outfield positions and designated hitter...blistered lefthanded pitchers for a .393 average (11-for-28) while hitting .208 (41-for-197) vs. righties...owned a season-best 6-game hitting streak from April 22-28...suffered a fractured nose attempting to catch a fly ball (the ball caromed off the wall) on June 8 at Atlanta, but did not go on the disabled list...homed off Seattle's Jamie Moyer, only the fifth career home run DaVanon has hit right-handed...6 of his 14 RBI on the year gave the Angels the lead, including 5 game-winning RBI...made 44 starts prior to the All-Star break, batting .250, then made only 15 starts after the break, hitting at a .180 clip...was limited to 10 starts from August 1 through the remainder of the schedule. 2005 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: DaVanon's lone appearance during the Division Series came in Game 2, scoring as a pinch runner in a 5-3 victory over the Yankees...he went 0-for-1 in three games during the ALCS vs. Chicago. 2004—Hit safely in 51 of his 71 starts, including a career-best 10-game hit streak from May 23-June 5...swiped a career-high 18 bases...became the fourth player in Angels' history (fifth time) to hit for the cycle, August 25 vs. Kansas City...was 1 of 6 players to accomplish the feat in 2004 and 15th switch-hitter in Major League history to do so...also matched his career best with 4 RBI in the contest...was disabled from July 24-August 10 with lower back spasms...all 7 of his homers came against righthanded pitchers...joined with Vladimir Guerrero and Jose Guillen for 3 consecutive homers in the third inning of the May 24 contest at Toronto. 2004 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: He started all 3 games of the ALDS vs. Boston as left fielder...he went 2-for-4 in Game 2. 2003—Had career-best numbers in nearly every offensive category...was the Angels' top pinch-hitter, batting .375 (6-for-16) with 6 RBI...began the year at Salt Lake (AAA) before an April 22 recall for remainder of season...posted 3 consecutive multi-homer games (June 1 at Tampa Bay and June 3-4 against Montreal in San Juan, PR), becoming only the fourth player in Major League history to accomplish feat, joining Lee May (Cincinnati, May 24, 25 & 28, 1969), Frank Thomas (New York Mets, August 1-3, 1962) and Gus Zernial (Philadelphia A's, May 13, 15 & 16, 1951)...Jeff's 3-game multi-homer streak included roundtrippers from both sides of plate in consecutive games (June 3-4) joining Ken Caminiti (San Diego, 1995) and Eddie Murray (Baltimore, 1987) as only Major League players to do so...DaVanon's 6 home runs in 3 games tied the AL record (1 shy of the big league record), joining Tony Lazzeri (1936 New York Yankees), Gus Zernial (1951 Philadelphia Athletics), Manny Ramirez (1998 Indians) and Alex Rodriguez (2002 Rangers). 2002—Earned a spot on Anaheim's Opening Day roster for the first time...appeared in 16 games with the Angels...collected his first career pinch-hit home run on April 30 at Cleveland, taking the Indians Chad Poronto deep as part of a 4-RBI game...was optioned to Salt Lake the next day...was on the disabled list from May 25-August 29, due to stiffness in his lower back. 2001—Had 3 stints with the Angels, appearing in 40 games, including 25 starts...originally had his contract selected by Anaheim on June 1 (optioned June 26)...was also on the big-league club from July 1-21 and August 14 through the remainder of the season. 2000—Missed the entire season after suffering a torn left labrum in spring training...underwent shoulder surgery performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum on March 17 at UCI Medical Center. 1999—Began the season in the Oakland organization, posting a .342 average for Midland (AA) in 100 games...was acquired by Anaheim, with Elvin Nino and Nathan Haynes, from Oakland on July 29 in exchange for Randy Velarde and Omar Olivares...was assigned to Edmonton (AAA)...had contract purchased by the Angels on September 7 and made his Major League debut that night vs. Chicago, walking and scoring in only plate appearance...his first start came 4 days later at Minnesota...registered both his first big-league hit (single off Esteban Loaiza) and first home run (off Mike Morgan, 9th inning) on October 1 vs. Texas...the home run proved to be the game-winner, 7-6. 1998—Hit .336 with 33 steals in 84 games for Modesto (A)...hit for the cycle on June 25 vs. Lancaster...was named to the California League's Post-Season All-Star team. 1997—Opened his pro career at Southern Oregon (A).

PERSONAL

Jeffrey Graham (Jeff) DaVanon...he and his wife, Kerrie, and son Luke make their home in Chandler, AZ...is a 1992 graduate of Bellaire, TX, High School, then played at San Diego State University from 1993-95...is the son of former major league infielder Jerry DaVanon, who played for San Diego, St. Louis, Baltimore, California and Houston from 1969-1977...while with the Angels, DaVanon was heavily involved in community work, supporting the "Stop Red Light Running Campaign" in 2003, instructing at Angels Youth Baseball Clinics and Angels Gene Autry RBI League, and also speaking at Angels School Assemblies and to participants of 24-Hour Cancer Relay for Cal State Fullerton.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a non-drafted free agent, April 18, 2000.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

Edgar Gonzalez split the year between Tucson (AAA) and Arizona, seeing action at both levels for the fourth consecutive season...displayed control issuing only 9 walks in 42.2 innings for the Diamondbacks and 27 bases on balls over 138.1 frames with the Sidewinders...made 24 starts for Tucson, including 3 complete games which was one off the PCL lead...went the distance in a 7-1 win over Colorado Springs on April 24, scattering 5 hits with no walks and 6 strikeouts...fanned a season-high 10 batters in the win at Albuquerque on May 25...recalled on June 22 and started that afternoon at Tampa Bay, his first starting assignment in the majors since September 9, 2004...matched his career high with 6 strikeouts...dropped his first 2 starts for Arizona before sliding into a relief role...picked up the win on July 9 at Colorado despite giving up a run in 1.0 inning out of the pen...it was his first big-league victory since on September 7, 2003 in San Francisco and snapping an 11-game losing streak...optioned back to the minors on July 20...lost 4 consecutive starts from August 2-18...closed his minor league portion of the year by going 1-0 with a 1.80 ERA (3 ER in 15.0 IP) from August 24-September 3...in first outing back, gave up 2 solo homers over 6.0 innings in Florida but came out on the losing end of the Anibal Sanchez' no-hitter...had nearly identical outings in victories on September 20 at San Diego and September 25 at San Francisco...in both outings, gave up a run (on a solo homer) over 7.0 innings...wins were his first as a starting pitcher since his Major League debut on June 1, 2003 at San Diego...Gonzalez had gone 14 consecutive big league starts between victories...final outing of the year was a 3.0-inning relief stint in the season finale...matched his career best with 7.0-inning outings on June 28 vs. Seattle and September 20-25.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005—Gonzalez went 11-6 with a 4.37 ERA in 24 starts (28 games) for Tucson (AAA)...among Pacific Coast League leaders, he tied for second in wins and ranked second with 167.0 innings...went 6-1 with a 2.64 ERA over 9 starts from April 23-June 4, thus earning a promotion to the majors on June 9...his stay was brief, as Gonzalez pitched only once for the Diamondbacks, yielding 4 runs on 2 hits and 2 walks in 0.1 inning against Kansas City on June 10...was optioned back to the minors the next day, where he remained for the rest of '05...struggled upon returning to Tucson, posting a 7.79 ERA over his next 10 outings (8 starts) from June 16-August 4...finished the year strong, owning a 2.75 ERA over his final 6 outings from August 10-September 5. 2004—Began the season Tucson (AAA), but had a pair of stints on the Diamondbacks' roster, scuffling through an 0-9 year with a 9.32 ERA in 10 starts, the fourth pitcher since 1946 to go winless for an entire season with 9-or-more setbacks, joining Terry Felton (0-13 for Twins in 1982), Rod Beck (0-9 for Giants in 1996) and Heathcliff Slocumb (0-9 for Red Sox and Mariners in 1997)...opened the year 1-5 in 7 starts with the Sidewinders, then earned his first of 2 recalls to the majors...was recalled on June 5 and made a spot start against Los Angeles, falling 10-3, then was optioned back to the minors the following day...was recalled again on July 22 but lost each of his next 6 starts. 2003—Only 14 months after making his professional debut on a mound for South Bend (A), the then 20-year old righthander made his big league debut...born on February 23, 1983, he was the youngest player in the majors when he debuted on June 1, nearly 4 full months younger than Detroit's Jeremy Bonderman (October 28, 1982)...after spending his first pro season in Class-A, Edgar made only 6 starts for El Paso (AA) before continuing his fast track with an early May promotion to Tucson (AAA)...had his contract purchased on June 1 and started that afternoon in San Diego, winning a 10-4 decision over the Padres, allowing 3 earned runs in 5.2 innings...became the youngest hurler (20 years, 93 days) to win in the majors since Dennys Reyes recorded a win for the Dodgers over San Francisco on July 13, 1997, at 20 years, 85 days...also quickly joined the club's all-time hit list by collecting a single off the Padres' Jake Peavy...was the first Mexican-born player to make his debut as a starter, win and get a hit, all in the same game since Esteban Loaiza with the Pirates on April 19, 1995...was optioned back to Tucson on June 8...was selected to participate in the All-Star Futures Game on July 13 in Chicago, working a scoreless inning for the World Team...returned to the big league club in September, and worked 7 times in relief. 2002—His first pro season, Gonzalez led the farm system with an overall ERA of 2.63, 131 K's and 4 complete games...ranked seventh in the Midwest League with a 2.91 ERA for South Bend (A) and was selected by SportsTicker as one of the top prospects in the league...was voted the farm system's Pitcher-of-the-Month for August after going a combined 5-0 with a 1.18 ERA in 5 starts for South Bend and Lancaster...in only his second pro outing, he spun the organization's second 9-inning complete game no-hitter on April 14 vs. West Michigan, a game played in 32-degree weather...did not issue a walk and struck out 11, including a 2002 minor league-best 8 straight batters from the second through the fourth innings...needed 108 pitches in his historic gem, facing the minimum 27 batters and picking off the only baserunner of the game who had reached on an error...following the season, Edgar returned to his homeland and played winter ball for the Hermosillo Naranjeros of the Mexican Pacific League...his success from the summer continued as he was named the league's Rookie-of-the-Year after going 8-1 with a league leading 1.89 ERA in 12 starts, while tying for first in wins.

PERSONAL

Edgar Gerardo Gonzalez Elizondo...he is single and makes his home in San Nicolas, MX...when he did not report, he was placed on the suspended list for 2000-2001...Gonzalez is the seventh major leaguer from Monterrey, Nuevo Leon Mexico, joining Villarreal, Felipe Montemayor (1953 Pirates), Bobby Trevino (1968 Angels), Hector Torres (1968 Astros) and Alex Trevino (1978 Mets)...Edgar was the 94th native of Mexico to appear in the majors and the 53rd pitcher from Mexico to work a big league game when he debuted with the D-backs in 2003...he played this past winter for Hermosillo in the Mexican Pacific League, going 3-1 with a 2.65 ERA in 7 starts...he pitched for Mexico in the first-ever World Baseball Classic last spring.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a non-drafted free agent, October 30, 1998.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

Enrique Gonzalez's climb up the organization chart continued as he opened the year at Triple-A for the first time and then saw action at the big-league level...began the season by going 4-3 with a 2.24 ERA in 10 starts for Tucson (AAA)...tied for 10th among NL rookies with 18 starts...held righties to a .265 average while lefthanders batted .288 against him...was 2-3 and owned a 3.88 ERA in 13 outings at Chase Field (25 ER in 58.0 IP)...pitched 9 times on the road, going 1-4 with a 7.82 ERA (42 ER in 48.1 IP)...summoned to the majors for the first time on May 26 and made his debut two days later at Cincinnati...gave up a leadoff home run to Ryan Freel then retired 18 of the last 21 Reds he faced, allowing a total of 3 hits over 6.0 innings...picked up the 4-2 victory over John Smoltz in the opener of a split-doubleheader on June 3 at Atlanta, permitting 2 runs on 4 hits and a walk with a season-best 8 strikeouts over 6.0 innings...optioned to AAA between games, but wasn't there long, returning to the D-backs on June 7 when Juan Cruz went on the disabled list...delivered a 2-1 win over San Francisco on June 13, allowing just 1 hit over 7.0 shutout innings, retiring 18 in a row at one point...it was the only victory recorded by Arizona over a 13-game stretch from June 5-18...after opening the season 2-0 with a 1.64 ERA over his first 4 outings with Arizona, went 1-7 over the remainder of the year with a 6.72 ERA (63 ER in 84.1 IP)...last win came on July 17 vs. the Dodgers, pitching 6.2 innings and allowing 3 runs on 8 hits also had 3 hits in the game, the first D-back hurler to record a 3-hit game since Curt Schilling in 2001...volunteered to take the ball on 3 days rest on August 7 after a rainout in Chicago and a missed start by Brandon Webb (elbow) put the D-backs short on starting pitching...held San Francisco to 2 runs on 4 hits over 5.0 innings, leaving the game with a 3-2 lead but ending up with a no decision...with the bat, owned a .281 average (9-for-32), tops among big-league pitchers (min. 20 AB).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005—Spent the season with Tennessee (AA), finishing second in the Southern League in games started, third in strikeouts, fourth in innings pitched and recorded the seventh best ERA...began the season with 3 straight no-decisions, then won 4 of his next 5 starts, including 4 straight from May 6-23 in which he posted a 0.65 ERA (2 earned runs in 30.2 innings)...named the organizational Pitcher of the Month for May, going 4-1 with a 2.06 ERA and 33 K's...won 8 of his first 10 decisions (14 starts)...dropped his next 5 starts, before getting back into the win column on July 24...fanned a season-high 9 on August 17 at Montgomery...was named to the Southern League All-Star team. 2004—Was named the farm system's Pitcher-of-the-Year while pitching for Lancaster (A), going 13-6 with a 3.22 ERA in 42 outings (17 starts)...his 13 victories tied for the Cal League lead while his ERA was second...opened the year going 3-4 with a 5.45 ERA in 25 relief outings...was inserted into the starting rotation on June 4 and turned his season around, going 10-2 with a 2.46 ERA...won 7 consecutive starts from June 25-August 1, earning honors as the farm system's Pitcher-of-the-Month for July (5-0, 2.45 ERA)...following the regular season, Gonzalez went 1-0 with a 3.55 ERA in 3 games (2 starts) during the Cal League playoffs, helping Lancaster advance to the championship series. 2003—Took on a new role with South Bend (A) working solely out of the bullpen, registering 55 appearances tying for second in the Midwest League...limited righties to a .194 average...stymied opposing teams over the final 3 months for a 1.66 ERA and .190 batting average in 37 games, giving up 9 runs (8 earned) in 43.1 innings while going 2-1 with 2 saves. 2002—Opened the season with 5 starts for Lancaster, interrupted by a stay on the disabled list from April 24-May 2 with a sprained left ankle...transferred to Yakima (A) where his 2.45 ERA ranked fifth in the Northwest League...spent three days on the roster for Tucson (AAA) but did not appear in a game before returning to Yakima on May 31...was promoted to South Bend on August 13 and closed the year with 4 starts for the Silver Hawks. 2001—Tied for third in the Midwest League with 12 losses...despite dropping his first 6 decisions spanning 8 starts, Gonzalez owned a 4.05 ERA during those outings. 2000—Was youngest pitcher (18 years, 27 days) in the Pacific Coast League when he made his lone AAA appearance on September 2, pitching 4.0 scoreless innings vs. Fresno for the victory. 1999—Led his Dominican Summer League team in victories (7), ERA (1.64) and strikeouts (82).

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the Washington Nationals with cash considerations in exchange for pitchers Matt Chico and Garrett Mock, August 7, 2006.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

Livan Hernandez is one of only 3 pitchers in MLB to make 30-or-more starts in each of the last nine seasons (also Tom Glavine and Greg Maddux)...has made 137 starts since 2003, one behind Maddux and Barry Zito for most in the majors...surpassed the 200-inning plateau for the eighth time...leads the major leagues with 950.2 innings pitched since 2003...Mark Buehrle (916.1) is the only other hurler with at least 900 innings over that span...allowed 246 hits on the year, second in the National League...surrendered 29 home runs, tied for fifth in the league...of his 34 outings, 19 were "quality starts"...recorded a season-best 7 strikeouts on April 19 at Philadelphia, August 21 at San Francisco and September 2 (gm 2) at Washington...was 9-8 with a 5.34 ERA over 24 starts for Washington before going 4-5 with a 3.76 ERA in 10 starts for Arizona...made his seventh career Opening Day start on April 3 at New York, taking the loss after allowing 3 runs on 8 hits over 6.0 innings...he is now 3-3 with a 4.98 ERA (24 ER in 43.1 IP) in season openers...doubled twice and hit his eighth career home run on April 19 at Philadelphia, becoming the first pitcher to record 3 extra-base hits in a single game since Pittsburgh's Rick Rhoden in the nightcap of a September 1, 1980 doubleheader vs. Houston...after beginning the season 1-5 with a 6.04 ERA over his first 9 starts, won 4 consecutive games from May 21-June 5 with a 3.33 ERA (10 ER in 27.0 IP)...concluded time with the Nationals by going 4-0 over 7 starts from June 25-August 1...made his 300th career start on June 25 at Baltimore, becoming the fifth Cuban-born pitcher to reach the 300-start plateau...joined Luis Tiant (484), Camilo Pascual (404), Mike Cuellar (379) and Dolf Luque (366) on that list...won his final 3 starts for Washington from July 22-August 1, possessing a 3.15 ERA (7 ER in 20.0 IP)...made his Diamondback debut on August 11 vs. Florida, taking a 4-1 loss after giving up 4 runs on 10 hits over 8.0 innings with a walk and 4 K's...got into the win column in his next start on August 16 at Colorado, a 9-5 triumph...finished the season by going 3-1 with a 2.65 ERA (10 ER in 34.0 IP) over 5 starts from September 8-29...went 6-8 with a 5.94 ERA in 19 starts before the All-Star break and 7-5 with a 3.61 ERA in 15 starts after...with the bat, went 14-for-68 (.204) on the year with 5 doubles, a home run, 6 RBI and 13 sacrifice bunts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005—Again served well as staff ace, going 15-10 with a 3.98 ERA in 35 starts despite battling inflammation in right knee for bulk of season...nevertheless, for second consecutive season, paced MLB in innings with 246.1 (eclipsed the 200-inning plateau for the 7th time in 8 seasons)...has led the NL in innings 3 consecutive seasons, the first pitcher to lead the NL in innings 3 straight seasons since Greg Maddux from 1991-94...is also the first pitcher to pace MLB in innings 2 years in a row since Maddux (1992-94)...led the Nationals in wins, starts and innings (246.1)...ranked among NL pitching leaders in wins (tied for 9th), starts (tied for first), innings (first)...also led MLB allowing 268 hits...won a career-high 8 road games...received the honor of the starting nod in the Washington Nationals's first game, April 4 at Philadelphia...lasted just 4.2 innings and took the loss in an eventual 8-4 setback...his next start, April 9 at Florida, was the 250th of his career...homed and fired 8.0 strong innings to nab the win in Washington's 5-1 victory on April 29 vs. the Mets...the home run was the sixth of his career and the first by a Washington-based pitcher since Pete Broberg went deep off Boston's Roger Moret on September 19, 1971 at RFK...worked 7.0 strong innings, allowing 3 runs on 8 hits, to earn 100th career win, May 9 at Arizona (Washington won, 4-3)...went the distance for the first time in '05 in the Nationals' 5-2 win at Dodger Stadium on May 4...left May 14 start vs. the Chicago Cubs due to an inflamed right knee...had MRI the next day which confirmed inflammation in the right knee, which was subsequently drained...won career-high 11 consecutive decisions, April 24-July 1, including 6 in as many assignments, April 24-May 19 (had not won 6 straight starts since June 28-August 4, 1997 with FLA)...became the franchise's second pitcher to win 11 straight decisions in a single season...Dennis Martinez also won 11 in a row from May 9-July 29, 1989...went 5-0 with a 2.76 ERA in May...the 5 May wins established a new career high for a single month...also became the first National/Expo to win 5 games in one month since Javier Vazquez went 5-1 in August of 2001...needed 150 pitches (81 strikes) to go 9.0 innings on June 3 vs. Florida...while the 150 pitches were not a career high (152 on June 25, 1998 vs. Tampa Bay, while pitching for Florida), they were the most thrown by a big league pitcher since Cincinnati's Ron Villone threw 150 on Sept. 29, 2000 at St. Louis...despite the heavy pitch count, earned the win in next start, allowed just 2 runs in 8.0 innings, June 9 vs. Oakland...had 7 straight starts decided by one run, May 9-June 9...became the first pitcher to start 7 consecutive one-run games since Brad Penny turned the trick in '03...matched a modern-day record by hitting 4 batters, July 20 vs. Colorado...93-pitch no-decision on August 5 vs. San Diego ended string of tossing at least 100 pitches in 19 MLB season-high straight starts...posted 3 hits, including 7th career home run, and 2 RBI, but took the loss, August 10 at Houston...tossed 4-hit complete game, but suffered the loss,

September 20 vs. San Francisco...posted 22 quality starts to rank 2nd on Nationals (Esteban Loaiza, 24)...posted 20 hits (4th in NL among pitchers) with 2 home runs and 7 RBI...one of 3 pitchers to homer more than once in '05 (Brad Hennessey, Eric Milton also hit 2)...went 12-3 with a 3.48 ERA in the first half to earn 2nd trip to All-Star Game...the last Expo All-Star in '04, became the first National to appear in the Mid-Summer Classic...pitching in first All-Star Game ('04 NL All-Star, but did not play), allowed 2 runs on 2 hits and a walk, but picked Ichiro Suzuki off first base to end 7th inning...did not win consecutive starts after July 1...when getting the starting nod, Washington went 20-15...had successful surgery on right knee performed on October 5 by Dr. John Uribe in Miami...the procedure repaired the lateral meniscus. 2004—The Expos' Opening Day starter led the staff in almost every category...led MLB with 255.0 innings pitched (Arizona's Randy Johnson was second with 245.2) and complete games (9)...255.0 innings ranked 9th on Expos' single-season list...won the NL Silver Slugger Award for pitchers...hit .247 with 7 doubles, one homer and 10 RBI to earn the citation...ranked among MLB leaders in innings (first), starts (tied for first) and shutouts (tied for 3rd with 2)...ranked among NL leaders in innings (first), complete games, starts (tied for first), strikeouts (9th with 186) and GIDPs induced (tied for 8th with 22)...also ranked among NL leaders in hits allowed (2nd with 234), losses (tied 2nd with 15), earned runs allowed (tied for 9th with 102) and walks (7th with 83)...set career highs in starts and innings while matching his career high in complete games...exited the game in line for the win 6 times, only to have the bullpen squander leads...fanned Jeff Conine, April 6 at Florida, to record 1,000th career K...Steve Rodgers, Dennis Martinez and Javier Vazquez are the only others to record 1,000th as an Expo...made his 5th Opening Day start, April 6 at Florida, against his initial club...went 6.0 innings and allowed 2 runs but didn't get a decision in game won by Florida, 4-3...recorded 7th career shutout in blanking Florida, 9-0, July 30 at Pro Player Stadium...chipped in with game-high 3 hits and 2 RBI...hit first home run as an Expo, August 26 vs. LA off Jeff Weaver...the long ball was the 5th of his career. 2003—Went 15-10 with a 3.20 ERA in 33 starts...15 wins represented the 2nd highest total of his career (17 games in 2000 with SF)...won at least 10 games for the fourth straight season...acquired on March 24 from the Giants in a 4-player deal...struck out a then career-high 178 or 6.9 batters per 9 innings pitched...led the Expos in wins (15), innings (233.1), complete games (8) and ERA among starting pitchers making at least 20 starts (3.20)...led the NL with 8 complete games...pocketed 6 complete games during a 10-start span from July 7-August 25...only Bartolo Colon, Roy Halladay and Mark Mulder (9 apiece) went the distance more in the AL...the 8 complete games were the 2nd highest total of his career (9 with Florida in '98)...8 complete games trumped the total of 20 big league teams, including San Francisco (7) and Florida (7), his 2 former employers...led the NL and ranked 4th in baseball by tossing 233.1 innings...also led the NL with 8 complete games...his 3.20 ERA ranked 9th in the NL...tied for 9th in MLB—4th in the NL—with 22 quality starts...also ranked among NL leaders in strikeouts (7th with 178), home ERA (10th at 3.04) and ERA at night (6th at 2.98)...became the first Expos pitcher to post 15 wins in a season since Javier Vazquez turned the trick with 16 wins in 2001...was 9-4 with a 2.42 ERA (35 ER/130.1 IP) during the season's final 3 months...worked closely with pitching coach Randy St. Claire to tweak his arm angle after getting a tip from then-Toronto manager Carlos Tosca, who twice managed Livan in the Marlins' minor league system (1996 with Double-A Portland and 1997 with Triple-A Charlotte), following his June 27 start at Skydome...was named National League Pitcher of the Month for July (4-1 with a 1.80 ERA)...was named National League Co-Player of the Week for the period of July 7-13 (2-0 with a 1.00 ERA in 2 complete-game efforts), sharing the award with Colorado's Preston Wilson...recorded his 30th career complete game on August 25 vs. Philadelphia. 2002—San Francisco's Opening Day starter, ranked among NL leaders in complete games (tied for 3rd with 5), shutouts (3rd with 3) and innings (10th with 216.0)...tied with San Diego's Brian Lawrence for NL lead by inducing 29 double plays...became the first Giant to lead the club in innings pitched 3 straight seasons since Gaylord Perry ('69-71)...was also the first Giant pitcher to post 3 straight 200-inning seasons since Vida Blue and Bob Knepper (1978-80). 2002 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Went 1-2 with 6.20 ERA in 4 post-season starts...facing elimination, earned 6th career playoff win in Game 4 of the NLDS, outpitching Atlanta's Tom Glavine...8.1-inning effort was the longest post-season start by a Giant pitcher since Mike Krukow's 9-inning complete-game in Game 4 of 1987 NLCS against St. Louis...took the loss in Games 4 and 7 of World Series against Anaheim. 2001—Hernandez made his second consecutive Opening Day start with Giants, third career, April 2 vs. San Diego...his 15 defeats were most by a Giant pitcher since Bud Black lost 16 in '91...11 of 15 losses came prior to the All-Star break...ranked 7th in the NL with 226.2 innings pitched...broke 200-inning barrier for 3rd time in career...reached 30-start plateau for fourth straight year...earned his 50th career win with his 17th career complete game, June 22 at St. Louis...allowed only 2 hits in complete game effort on August 17 vs. Atlanta, but took the loss in 2-1 setback...the 2-hitter was the first turned in by a Giant since Kirk Rueter turned the trick on July 28, 1998 at Montreal...hit .300 with one homer and 8 RBI at the plate...led NL pitchers with career-high 24 hits (one more than Colorado's Mike Hampton)...24 hits were 2nd-highest season total by Giant pitcher...only Juan Marichal (28 in '66) posted more...posted 8 consecutive hits from July 26-August 11, finishing just 2 hits shy of NL record for most consecutive safeties. 2000—Established career high with 17 wins, which ranked sixth in NL...also ranked among NL leaders in innings (5th with 240.0), complete games (tied for 5th with 5) and shutouts (tied for 3rd with 2)...yielded most hits in NL (254)...went 10-4 with 3.19 ERA in 15 post- All-Star Game starts...opponents hit .238 in 2nd half as opposed to .302 prior to All-Star Break...worked at least 6.0 innings 30 times in 33 efforts (90.9%)...went 12-3 with 2.98 ERA in 16 starts at Pac Bell Park...posted first 2 career shutouts in back-to-back starts, August 18 vs. Atlanta and 23 vs. Florida...both were 4-hit efforts...at the plate, led NL pitchers with 21 hits...drilled third career home run on June 28 at Colorado, 2-run blast off Julian Tavarez. 2000 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Ran his post-season career record to 5-0 by defeating the Mets in Game 1 of NLDS...allowed one run in 7.2 innings to gain the win. 1999—Was acquired by San Francisco from Florida in mid-season trade...was 5-9 with 4.76 ERA in 20 starts for FLA at the time of the trade...reached 30-start plateau for 2nd time...went 3-3 with 4.38 ERA in 10 starts for SF after the trade...tossed 2 complete games, April 23 vs. Atlanta and May 21 vs. Pittsburgh...hit .270 (17-for-63) with 2 doubles, 2 homers and 8 RBI for the 2 clubs...homered on April 23 vs. Atlanta off Tom Glavine and July 9 off Tampa Bay's Ryan Rupe. 1998—Established Florida club record with 9 complete games, matching Greg Maddux for 2nd in the NL...only Philadelphia's Curt Schilling (15) had more...ranked 5th in NL with 234.1 innings (2nd highest total in Marlins' history)...led club with 162 strikeouts and 33 starts...made first Opening

Day start March 31 vs. the Cubs, pocketed the win in Florida's 11-6 triumph...tossed first career regular-season complete game, May 11 at Houston...posted back-to-back complete game victories, June 20 at the Mets and June 25 vs. Tampa Bay...fired club record-setting 7th complete game, August 10 at San Diego...trumped Kevin Brown's previous club mark (6 CG)...at the plate, established FLA record with 16 hits. 1997—Owned a 9-3 record with 3.18 ERA in 17 starts for the Fish...finished second to Philadelphia's Scott Rolen in National League Rookie of the Year voting...named to Baseball Digest's Rookie All-Star Team...established Marlins' record by beginning the season with 9 consecutive victories (June 28 - August 31)...the 9-game run was the third-longest in the NL and tops among big league rookies...became only the second NL pitcher and fourth in MLB history to begin a career with 9 consecutive wins as starter...Kirk Rueter also did it with Montreal in 1993-94 (10-0), as did "Hooks" Wiltse (12-0, 1904) and Whitey Ford (9-0, 1950)...started the season at Triple-A Charlotte, posting a 5-3 record with a 3.98 ERA in 14 starts...made his first big league start of '97 in the second game of June 15 doubleheader vs. the Yankees but had a no decision...earned his first big league victory, June 28 vs. Montreal. 1997 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Was named MVP of both NLCS and World Series...worked in one game of the Division Series vs. San Francisco, tossing 4.0 innings in relief of Al Leiter in Game 2...went 2-0 in NLCS vs. Atlanta...tossed complete game in Game 5 and posted NLCS-record 15 strikeouts...was not scheduled to start in series, but became emergency starter after season-ending injury to Alex Fernandez and Kevin Brown's illness...was 2-0 in World Series vs. Cleveland...won Games 1 and 5, opposing former Giant Orel Hershisier in both contests...at age 22, became youngest player ever to win World Series opener. 1996—Started the season at Charlotte...was transferred to Portland (AA) and following the Eastern League playoffs was recalled by the Marlins on September 12...made his big league debut, Sept. 24 vs. Atlanta, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings in relief...had never pitched in relief.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the New York Yankees with cash considerations in exchange for pitchers Luis Vizcaino, Steven Jackson and Ross Ohlendorf and infielder Alberto Gonzalez, January 9, 2007.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

Randy Johnson posted his second consecutive 17-win season with the Yankees...the Yankees were 21-12 in games he started...was tied for fourth in the American League with 17 wins, tied for sixth with 33 games started, ranked seventh with a .250 opponents batting average and was tied for eighth with 172 strikeouts...his 176 wins, 2,835 strikeouts and 2,277.2 innings pitched over the last 10 seasons (1997-2006) are the most in the Majors during that span...over the same span, ranks second with a 3.00 ERA and third with a .700 winning percentage (176-83)...has 280 career victories for sole possession of 30th place on baseball's all-time list (Jim Kaat is 29th with 283)...ranks third on baseball's all-time strikeout list with 4,544 behind only Nolan Ryan, 5,714; and Roger Clemens, 4,604...at 280-147, is one of only five active pitchers whose career records are 100 or more games over .500 according to the Elias Sports Bureau...is joined by Mike Mussina (239-134), Roger Clemens (348-178), Greg Maddux (333-203) and Pedro Martinez (206-92)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is only the third pitcher in Major-League history to be credited with 16 or more wins in each of three consecutive seasons after the age of 40 (Cy Young did it from 1907-1909, and Warren Spahn followed suit from 1961-1963)...allowed only one home run to a left-handed batter (Oakland's Mark Kotsay on May 14 at Yankee Stadium) and allowed only one in his last 61 starts (dating back to 2005)...did not allow an extra-base hit and surrendered just 1 RBI to left-handed batters in 17 straight starts from May 19-August 14...made the 14th Opening-Day start of his career on April 3 at Oakland, equaling Cy Young, Walter Johnson, Steve Carlton and Jack Morris for second on the all-time list (behind only Tom Seaver, 16)...his seven career Opening-Day victories and 107 strikeouts rank first among active pitchers...became the first Yankee pitcher to start and win consecutive Opening-Day games since LHP Jimmy Key won three straight season openers (1993-95)...did not walk a batter in any of his first 4 starts this season for the first time in his career (before issuing 2 on April 18 at Toronto)...on April 18 at Toronto, recorded the loss in a 10-5 Blue Jays' come-from-behind win...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time in 160 career starts that he has lost a game in which he had a lead of at least four runs (fell to 145-1 with 14 no decisions in such games)...recorded his third straight win on May 4 at Tampa Bay...with his fourth-inning strikeout of Nick Green, he became only the third pitcher in Major League history to reach the 4,400 plateau (joining Nolan Ryan and Roger Clemens)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 12 consecutive wins at home were the most by a Yankees starting pitcher since RHP Scott Kamieniecki won 12 straight decisions at Yankee Stadium over the 1992 and 1993 seasons...Mark Kotsay's two-run home run in the first inning of May 14 loss vs. Oakland was the first homer he had allowed to a LH batter in 38 starts (since Eric Hinske on April 29, 2005)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Johnson has won a game in 40 different ballparks—the highest total in Major-League history (Kevin Brown is second with 36)...earned the victory but was ejected from June 14 win vs. Cleveland by home plate umpire Paul Schreiber for "throwing at" Eduardo Perez after both benches were warned...was suspended by Major League Baseball—and fined an undisclosed amount—on June 15...served his 5-game suspension from June 20-25...with 11 strikeouts in July 19 loss vs. Seattle, established his single-game season high and ended a career-long 32-game streak without a 10-strikeout game...it was the 208th game of his career with 10 or more strikeouts...in Major-League history, only Nolan Ryan has more double-digit strikeout games (215)...struck out his first batter faced (Ozuna) on August 9 at the Chicago White Sox, snapping a streak of 52 consecutive batters faced without a strikeout, the longest such streak of his career (according to the Elias Sports Bureau)...with a fourth-inning strikeout of the Angels' Tim Salmon on August 14 at Yankee Stadium, became only the third pitcher in Major League history to record 4,500 career strikeouts...missed his final scheduled start of the regular season on September 28 with a herniated disk in his lower back...received an epidural on September 29 to reduce the inflammation...started Game 3 of the Division Series at Detroit.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005—In first season with the Yankees, was 17-8 with a 3.79 ERA in 34 starts...his 34 starts were the most by a Yankee since Mike Mussina started 34 games in 2001...the Yankees were 22-12 in games he started...ranked second in the American League with 211 strikeouts, tied for second with 4 complete games, tied for third with 8.4 strikeouts per 9.0 innings and 34 games started, fourth with 17 wins...was 11-2 at Yankee Stadium in 2005...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 11 wins equaled the second highest victory total at Yankee Stadium by a pitcher in his first season with the Yankees (Tommy John was 12-5 in 1979; RHP Mike Mussina was 11-5 in 2001; RHP Jon Lieber was 11-3 in 2004)...made his Yankee debut on April 3—in the season opener vs. the Red Sox at Yankee Stadium—and recorded the victory in a 9-2 Yankees' win...at 41 years old, became the third oldest pitcher to start a season opener for the Yankees (behind only Phil Niekro, who was 46 in 1985; and Tommy John, who was 45 in 1989)...on April 29 vs. Toronto, recorded the complete-game loss in a 2-0 Blue Jays' win (9.0IP, 7H, 2ER, 3BB, 9K, 1HR)...was the 93rd complete game of his career and the first by a Yankee in 2005...recorded his fourth victory of the season—and the 250th of his career—in a 6-4 Yankees' win on May 14 at Oakland...became the 42nd pitcher in Major-League history to win 250 games...on June 1 at Kansas City—in the 500th appearance of his career (490th start)—recorded the complete-game loss in a 3-1 Royals' win...on June 16 vs. Pittsburgh, recorded the complete-game victory in a 6-1 Yankees' win (9.0IP, 5H, 1ER, 0BB, 11K, 1HR)...was his 253rd career victory, tying Carl Hubbell for 40th place on the all-time list...was his third complete game of the season (first complete-game win) and the 95th of his career...on July 5 vs. Baltimore, recorded the victory in a 12-3 Yankees' win...was his seventh career regular-season start on three-days rest and the first since October 2, 1995 (w/ Seattle) vs. Anaheim in their one-game playoff [threw a complete-game three-hitter (1ER, 1BB, 12K) to help the Seattle Mariners win the A.L. West and earn their first trip to postseason play]...in his career on three days rest during the regular season, is 5-1 with a 3.15 ERA (54.1IP, 19ER)...on September 16 at Toronto, was ejected from the game with two outs in the bottom of the second by HP Umpire Fieldin Culbreth (arguing balls and strikes)...on September 26 at Baltimore recorded his fifth straight victory in an 11-3 Yankees' win...with the victory, improved to 36-4 in 54 September appearances since 1993...earned the win to clinch the A.L. East crown in his final start of the season on October 1 at Boston...went 5-0 in five starts vs. Boston in 2005...the last Yankee pitcher to go undefeated against the Red Sox in a season in which he beat them at least four times was Mel Stottlemyre in 1965 (5-0 in six starts)...also improved to 5-1 in six regular season October starts since 1993...in his final 13 starts of the season (from July 26), left-handed batters hit .074 (4-for-54) with one extra-base hit (double) and no RBI...was 6-0 with a 1.92 ERA in his final 8 starts of the season (from August 26)...made 2 appearances (1 start) versus the L.A. Angels of Anaheim in the Division Series...pitched 4.1 shutout innings of relief—on two days rest—in the Angels' series-clinching Game Five win. 2004—Rebounded from an injury-shortened 2003 campaign with another impressive season that garnered him consideration for a sixth Cy Young Award...finished second in the 2004 National-League Cy Young Award voting after posting a 16-14 record with a 2.60 earned run average and a Major-League leading 290 strikeouts in 35 starts for the Diamondbacks...was the ninth time in his career that he led the Majors in strikeouts (also 1993-95, 1998-2002) and his ratio of 10.6 K's per 9-innings was second in the big leagues behind Pittsburgh's Oliver Perez (11.0)...his 2.60 ERA was second best among all Major-League pitchers, behind only San Diego's Jake Peavy (2.27) and he held opposing hitters to a .197 batting average, second only to Minnesota's Johan Santana (.192) among all Major League starters...limited left-handed batters to a .163 average (24-for-147) while righties managed a .204 mark (153-for-751)...his 2.77 road ERA was second in the National League while his 2.47 ERA at Bank One Ballpark was fifth-best among all starters in their home stadium...his victory total was tied for eighth-highest for a pitcher on a team with 100+ losses and he also had the highest win total for a player on a club that lost 110+ contests...his 16 wins accounted for 31% of the Diamondbacks' 51 victories in 2004, the highest percentage of a team's triumphs by a single pitcher since 1980 and the fifth-highest since divisional play began in 1969...charged with 14 losses on the year, he was given 2 runs or less of offensive support in 12 of those defeats...was one of six hurlers to make 35 starts, most in the Majors...tossed 4 complete games, tied for fourth in the National League and tied for seventh in the majors...added 13 more double-digit strikeout games to his career total...now has 204 career games with 10 or more strikeouts, second only to Nolan Ryan's Major-League record 215 and is 134-36 with 34 no decisions in those games...made his sixth consecutive Opening Day start for the Diamondbacks in an April 6 loss vs. Colorado, his 12th career season-opener...tossed his fifth career two-hitter on April 16 at San Diego, retiring the last 16 Padre hitters he faced in a 5-0 triumph...also delivered the biggest blow of the game at the plate, hitting a 2-run double in the sixth inning...on May 18 at Atlanta, recorded the 15th perfect game in modern day regular season history—16th including Don Larsen's work in the 1956 World Series—striking out 13 batters in a 2-0 Arizona victory...it was the first no-hitter in Arizona's 7-year history and first perfect game in the Majors since David Cone did so on July 18, 1999 at Yankee Stadium vs. Montreal...was the first in the National League since Montreal's Dennis Martinez did so at Dodger Stadium on July 28, 1991...became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game at 40 years, 251 days, beating Cy Young, who was perfect on May 5, 1904, at 37 years and 37 days...also tossed a no-hitter for Seattle in 1990, becoming one of five pitchers to throw a no-hitter in each league, joining Young, Nolan Ryan, Jim Bunning and Hideo Nomo...now has 11 games of 2 hits or less (two no-hitters, four one-hitters and five two-hitters)...following his perfect game, retired the first six Marlins he faced in a May 23 win at Florida, but Abraham Nunez led off the third with a double to snap streak of 39 consecutive batters retired, two shy of the Major League record set in 1972 by the Giants' Jim Barr...was the third-longest such streak in history, falling an out shy of Tom Browning's 40 in a row in 1988...won six consecutive starts from May 18-June 13, his longest winning streak since opening the 2002 campaign with six straight triumphs in six April starts...streak ended in June 18 loss vs. Tampa Bay, beginning a season-ending stretch during which he received three runs or less of support in 18 of his final 21 starts...on June 29 vs. San Diego, became the fourth member of the 4,000-K Club, fanning the Padres' Jeff Cirillo on his final pitch of the evening for the milestone strikeout...was the quickest pitcher to record 4,000 strikeouts, needing 607.1 fewer innings than the previous fastest, who was Ryan when he notched his 4,000th on July 11, 1985...to reach 4,000 strikeouts, Johnson totaled over 900 fewer frames than Roger Clemens and an astonishing 1,750 less than Steve Carlton...was 1-5 with a 2.81 ERA over 9 starts from June 18-July 30...was named to his 10th career All-Star Game and allowed 3 hits with 1 strikeout on July 13 at Minute Maid Park in Houston...after opening the month with a victory, he was 0-3 in his last 5 starts during July, tossing a combined 15.0 shutout frames in a pair of no decisions on July 15 and 25...was 2-3 with a 2.45 ERA during August, including double-digit strikeout totals in 4 straight starts from 8/15-31...recorded a season-high 15 strikeouts on August 31 vs. Los Angeles, his 29th career game with at least 15 strikeouts...celebrated his 41st birthday by recording a 2-1 win vs. San Francisco on September 10, his 100th career win as a member of the Diamondbacks and most in franchise history...became the most prolific left-handed strikeout pitcher in Major League history on September 15 vs. Colorado, passing Steve Carlton and moving into third-place on the all-time strikeout list (4,136)...tied Carlton with his fifth-inning strikeout of Brad Hawpe, then passed him when Vinny Castilla fanned in the seventh...was Johnson's 31st career game with 10+ strikeouts and no walks...closed the season by going 4-1 with a 1.46 ERA over his final 5 starts...was chosen by the Arizona Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America as the Diamondbacks' Most Valuable Player and Most Valuable Pitcher, the first player to win both awards...completed his tenure in Arizona with a 103-49 record (.678)...with Arizona, totaled 1,832 strikeouts in 1,389.2 innings for a 11.9 strikeout per nine-innings ratio. 2003—Randy was limited to 18 starts due to an injured right knee that sent him to the disabled list twice, including a stint after it was surgically repaired...finished the year 6-8, only his third career season with a winning percentage below .500 (1989 with Montreal and 1992 with Seattle)...

the injury snapped his streak of 6 straight seasons of at least 200.0 innings pitched and broke a major league record string of 5 consecutive years with 300 strikeouts...had 5 starts with at least 10 strikeouts, raising his career total to 191 career double-digit K games, now 24 shy of Nolan Ryan's major league record 215... Johnson's year began with his first career Opening Day setback in 11 starts, dropping an 8-0 decision at home to the Dodgers, allowing 5 runs (3 earned) in 6.2 innings... absorbed another defeat on April 11 vs. Milwaukee giving up 10 earned runs, his highest run allowed total since April 10, 1994, with Seattle, when Toronto scored 11 runs (10 earned) in a 12-6 contest... Randy was 0-2 with an 8.31 ERA through his first 3 starts, allowing 16 earned runs in 17.1 innings before going on the shelf for the first time on April 12 due to swelling in his knee, his first disablement since 1996 with Seattle...was sidelined until the second game of an April 27 doubleheader at Shea Stadium, as the Big Unit fanned 12 over 6.0 innings of a 7-3 win...his efforts helped the Arizona staff record 27 K's on the day, a major league record for strikeouts during a doubleheader...unfortunately, swelling in the knee returned and it was determined that he should undergo arthroscopic surgery, which was performed on May 1 by team orthopedist Dr. Michael Lee, who removed floating bits of cartilage debris in the knee, repairing a small meniscus tear and smoothing down the rough edges behind Johnson's kneecap...made a trio of minor league rehab starts, one each for Tucson (AAA), El Paso (AA) and Lancaster (A), going a combined 0-1 with a 2.57 ERA, striking out 15 and walking only 1 over 14.0 innings...after missing 12 weeks of major league action, Johnson ran into tough luck in his first 3 starts back, going 0-2 despite posting a miniscule 0.90 ERA...in his return, he dropped a tough 3-2 decision in San Diego on July 20, allowing 2 runs (1 earned) over 6.0 innings...on July 25 vs. Los Angeles he allowed only a second inning homer to Jeromy Burnitz, but the contest went 15 innings, with Arizona prevailing 2-1...had another hard luck performance on July 30 in Florida, allowing a pair of unearned runs in 6.0 innings of a 3-1 loss to Dontrelle Willis...R.J. recorded back-to-back wins on August 5 & 10, knocking off Montreal and the Mets, respectively...was again plagued by limited run support in a 2-1 loss at home to the Giants on August 30, yielding solo home runs to Rich Aurilia and Barry Bonds...matched up against a pitcher nearly half his age in his next start, the night before his 40th birthday, losing a 4-1 contest to the Dodgers who sent Edwin Jackson to the mound on his 20th birthday...finished the season by going 2-0 with a 1.71 ERA over his final 3 starts...his first start as a 40-year old was a memorable occasion on September 14, tossing his fourth career one-hitter, first as a D'Back, in blanking the Rockies, 5-0, in Bank One Ballpark...walked 1 and fanned 12 for his 88th career complete game and 35th shutout with the lone hit a one-out single in the fifth by Rene Reyes, who was promptly picked off as Johnson faced just one man over the minimum, issuing a fourth-inning walk to Garrett Atkins, who was left stranded...it was his first one-hitter since July 16, 1998 in the Kingdome as a member of the Mariners against Minnesota...it was the sixth one-hitter in Arizona's 6-year history...also had a pair of hits in the win over the Rockies, the second time during the 2002 season that a pitcher had more hits in a game than he surrendered, as the Mets' Steve Trachsel had 2 knocks in a one-hitter on August 18, also vs. the Rox...followed with another memorable outing in his next start on September 19 in Milwaukee, as the newly-turned 40-year old lined a Doug Davis delivery into the Brewer bullpen in leftfield for his first home run in 437 career at bats...blast, which came off of a borrowed bat from Raul Mondesi, made him the oldest player in major league history to hit his first home run, eclipsing Bill McGhee of the Philadelphia A's, who went deep on September 3, 1944, at the age of 38 years, 364 days...was not involved in the decision, a 3-2 Arizona triumph after allowing 2 runs over 6.0 innings with 10 K's...closed the year with a victory at Coors Field on September 24, his eighth straight winning decision against the Rockies, giving up a 2-run homer to Juan Uribe over 6.0 innings as the D'Backs won 6-3...recorded his 1,500th strikeout as a Diamondback on August 30, joining Ryan as the only pitchers with at least 1,500 K's with 2 different clubs...fanned 2,162 as a member of the Mariners, then after an abbreviated stint with Houston, has since recorded 1,542 with Arizona...Ryan fanned 2,416 with the Angels, then posted 1,866 strikeouts with Astros on the way to 5,714 lifetime K's. 2002—Johnson's 2002 campaign was proof that age is only a number as the record-setting southpaw delivered his first career "Triple Crown" of pitching to unanimously win a fourth consecutive Cy Young Award, the second hurler ever to win 4 in a row matching Greg Maddux (1992-95), while his five career Cy's are only one shy of Roger Clemens' record...it was the 11th unanimous selection in history, first since Maddux in 1995, the same year of his first Cy Young while with Seattle...the Big Unit, who earned team Pitcher-of-the-Year honors from the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA, was also tabbed the top National League lefthander on The Sporting News All-Star team...won a club record and personal best 24 games while posting a 2.32 ERA and 334 strikeouts, the ninth time he's led the majors in K's...is only the second National League pitcher since 1973 to lead in all 3 categories, joining the Mets' Doc Gooden in 1985 (24-4 with a 1.53 ERA and 268 K's)...as for the Big Unit, he broke his own club ERA record for a starting pitcher, eclipsing the 2.48 mark he had in 1999, and recorded his lowest single-season ERA since a 2.28 mark in 1997 with Seattle...jumped from ninth to fourth on the all-time strikeout list, passing Walter Johnson, Gaylord Perry, Don Sutton, Tom Seaver and Bert Blyleven...became the first pitcher in big league history to fan at least 300 men in 5 straight seasons and tied Ryan as the only hurlers in the game's storied history to record 6 career 300-strikeout seasons...the Big Unit was joined in the 300-K club for 2002 by Curt Schilling, the first teammates in major league history to each record 300 strikeouts in the same season...and Schilling each won 45 games over the 2001-2002 seasons, equaling Jim Palmer's 2-year total from 1975-76 and the most by N.L. hurlers since Steve Carlton won 47 with Philly (1971-72)...to further illustrate Randy's dominance during the 2002 season, 4 of his 35 starts totaled 26 earned runs in just 23.0 innings, allowing 5, 6, 7 and 8, losing 3 of those outings...in his other 31 starting assignments, the Big Unit was 24-2 with a remarkable 1.56 ERA, allowing only 41 earned runs in 237.0 innings...the Big Unit's regular season began and ended nearly flawlessly, winning the National League Pitcher-of-the-Month award for April by going 6-0 with a 1.37 ERA, becoming the first pitcher to win 6 games prior to May 1 twice in his career (2000) while the only other 2 hurlers ever to accomplish the feat once were Vida Blue (1971) and Dave Stewart (1988)...set the tone for 2002 with a complete game, 2-0 victory in the season opener on April 1 over San Diego, tossing a 6-hitter, his first of a league leading 8 complete games...his second route-going effort of the year was on April 21 at home against Colorado, giving up an unearned run on 2 hits in a 7-1 win, establishing a season-high with 17 strikeouts...later added another 17-strikeout game on September 14 vs. Milwaukee, while also fanning 15 once and 16 once...though dominant for the majority of the campaign, the turning point to Randy's season came after a rough afternoon in San Diego on July 21 when he was tagged for 8 earned runs in just 5.0 innings, losing an 11-9 decision...his season ERA rose from 2.61 to 2.99 after that outing, but it also served as a wake-up call and he rose to the occasion...closed the season by posting an 11-1 record and 1.31 ERA in 12 starts after the aberration in Qualcomm Stadium, allowing just 15 earned runs in 103.1 innings while recording

142 strikeouts...amazingly 6 of those runs scored in a 5.1-inning stint at home against San Francisco on August 30, his only loss in that stretch, meaning he gave up only 9 earned runs in the 98.0 innings of his other 11 starts for a 0.83 ERA...finished out the season with a 5-0 September, giving up only 3 earned runs in 41.0 innings for a 0.66 ERA, earning the N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honor again... Randy posted a 13-1 mark with 5 no decisions when taking the ball after an Arizona loss...as if his mound work weren't enough, Randy finished the year with 12 hits, while tying his own club record for RBI by a pitcher with 8, a half-dozen of which came during a 4-game hitting streak from August 25-Sept. 9...was named to his ninth All-Star team, but chose not to attend due a sore back, the result of a collision with San Francisco's David Bell on July 6. 2002

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Randy had his 5-game post-season winning streak snapped with a 12-2 loss in the series opener against the Cards in Bank One Ballpark...worked 6.0 innings allowing 10 hits and 6 runs (5 earned) with 2 walks and 4 K's. 2001—The Big Unit was voted to his third consecutive Cy Young Award, posting 21 wins while leading the majors in strikeouts with 372 over 249.2 innings...his strikeouts per 9-inning ratio of 13.4 was the best single-season mark in major league history, eclipsing Pedro Martinez's previous record of 13.2 with the Red Sox in 1999...the Big Unit's final ERA of 2.49 was good for his second ERA title in the last 3 seasons...his 372 K's also established a career best, the third best single-season total in major league history, just 11 K's behind Nolan Ryan's all-time mark of 383...also had his third consecutive year with 23 double-digit strikeout games, tying a major league record he already shared with Ryan...Johnson's strikeout total combined with Curt Schilling's 293 made them the top single-season tandem in big league history, fanning 41 more than Ryan and Bill Singer when they K'd 624 with the Angels in 1973...concluded his remarkable year by going 16-2 with a 2.21 ERA in his last 24 appearances, allowing 42 earned runs over 171.0 innings...his 21st and final win was also the 200th of his career as RJ defeated the Rockies on October 2...was 12-1 in his last 13 decisions dating back to June 29...fanned 20 on May 8 at home against Cincinnati joining Roger Clemens (twice) and Kerry Wood as the only hurlers to strikeout 20 in a 9-inning span...unfortunately, Randy left the game in a 1-1 deadlock with the Diamondbacks eventually posting a 4-3 win in 11 innings...struck out 16 in a rare relief appearance when he took the ball the day after the July 18 contest in San Diego was suspended due to an electrical box explosion in the light ring that darkened Qualcomm Stadium in the third inning...in relief of Schilling, Randy worked the final 7.0 innings, allowing an eighth inning single for San Diego's only hit in the game while fanning 16 of the 23 men he faced to establish a major league record for K's in a relief appearance (Walter Johnson had 15 in 11.1 innings in 1913)...also set a National League mark for relievers with 7 straight strikeouts, his second of 3 outings that featured 7 straight K's...the Big Unit's third 16-K game also found its way into the record book on August 23 in Pittsburgh, working 7.0 innings in a 5-1 loss, his only setback in his last 18 trips to the hill...his first inning strikeout of Jack Wilson was RJ's 1,000th in less than 3 full seasons as a D-back...fanned Wilson again in the sixth to become his 300th victim of the 2001 season, the first time in history that a pitcher recorded at least 300 K's in 4 straight seasons...the sixth inning was also when Randy tied a big league record with 3 K's on 9 pitches...appeared in 17 games after an Arizona defeat, going 10-2 featuring an 8-0 mark and 1.21 ERA in his last 13 post-loss outings, giving up just 13 earned runs in 96.2 innings...was the All-Star starter in Seattle, his eighth overall trip to the Midsummer Classic, second straight start...the Big Unit's 372 strikeouts came while walking only 71 hitters, a differential of 301 which is the second best in major league history...when Sandy Koufax set the N.L. strikeout record with 382 in 1965 he walked only 71 men, a difference of 311. 2001

POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Randy silenced the critics with his work in the 2001 fall season, culminated by being named the Co-MVP of the World Series with mound-mate Curt Schilling...the duo combined to go 9-1 with a 1.30 ERA in a dozen post-season outings...was the starter in the 15-2 triumph in Game 6, then returned to the hill the next night in relief to record the last 4 outs prior to the come-from-behind effort to win Game 7 and the World Series title...was the first pitcher in 55 years to win as a starter in Game 6 and reliever in Game 7 since St. Louis' Harry Brecheen (1946)...the Big Unit became the first 5-game winner in post-season history and the 13th pitcher to win 3 times in the same World Series, first since Detroit's Mickey Lolich (1968)...first-ever World Series experience began with an efficient 4-0 win in Game 2, going the distance on a 3-hitter with a walk and 11 K's, the 47th double-digit strikeout game in Series history...it was the first Fall Classic complete game since Greg Maddux vs. Cleveland in Game 1 of the '95 Series, and first complete game shutout since Schilling's Game 5 triumph over Toronto in 1993...the 3-hitter also marked the fewest hits allowed in a World Series complete game shutout since Orel Hershiser 3-hit the A's in Game 2 in 1988...the blanking of the Yankees was the first time the Bronx Bombers had been victimized by a complete game shutout in World Series play since the Dodgers' Don Drysdale fired a 3-hitter in Game 3 of 1963...returned to the hill in Game 6, a 15-2 triumph allowing 6 hits over 7.0 innings...his first inning strikeout of Derek Jeter was RJ's 412th overall strikeout of the year (372 regular season/40 post-season) surpassing Koufax for the highest combined single-season total in big league history (Koufax had 382 regular season/29 World Series in 1965)...Randy also delivered a run scoring single during Arizona's 8-run explosion in the third inning, while scoring twice, the first pitcher to do so in a World Series since Bob Gibson (Game 4, 1968)...followed the next night with his 1.1-inning relief stint, his first post-season bullpen work since going 3.0 frames against the Yankees in Game 5 of the '95 Division Series while with Seattle...his Games 6 and 7 performances made him the first hurler to start a World Series game and pitch in relief in the next game since Dave McNally in 1971 vs. Pittsburgh, when he started Game 5 and relieved in Games 6 & 7 for the Orioles...Randy's 5-game post-season winning streak began in the NLCS against Atlanta, winning Game 1 in a complete game 3-hitter, fanning 11 in a 1-0 win...allowed a first inning single to Chipper Jones then fired 7.0 straight hitless innings to set an NLCS record, an inning more of no-hit ball than Jack Billingham had with Cincinnati in Game 1 of the '73 series vs. the Mets...followed with a win in the N.L. pennant clincher in Game 5 at Turner Field, working 7.0 frames allowing 2 runs on 7 hits, a 3-2 decision...one of the biggest moments of the post-season, yet lost in the World Series hype was the last pitch that Johnson threw in the NLCS, fanning Brian Jordan with the bases loaded and 2-out in the seventh inning to maintain the 3-2 lead...Randy's 19 K's in his 2 starts against the Braves set an NLCS record, 2 more than the Tom Seaver ('73 Mets)...lone Division Series appearance extended his post-season losing streak to 7 games (8 starts) with a 4-1 loss in Game 2 against the Cards...Randy's 5-game winning streak after the loss to the Redbirds featured a 1.08 ERA allowing 4 earned runs over 33.1 innings with 6 walks and 38 K's. 2000—RJ led the majors in strikeouts with 347, while topping the N.L. in winning pct. (.731) and tying for the top spot in complete games (8), shutouts (3) and starts (35)...was the third N.L. pitcher to win the Cy Young Award consecutively, first lefthander to do so since Sandy Koufax (1965-66)...also earned his second straight team Pitcher-of-the-Year honor from the area BBWAA...became the 12th hurler in history to reach 3,000 career K's when he fanned

Florida's Mike Lowell on September 10 in Pro Player Stadium...also recorded his 300th strikeout of the year in that game to join Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers in history to achieve that mark in 3 consecutive seasons...started the season by winning co-N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors and was 6-0 with a 0.91 ERA in April to earn league Pitcher-of-the-Month honors...was 11-1 with a 1.40 ERA through 14 starts and 15-2 with a 2.01 mark at the All-Star break, earning the starting nod for the N.L.

1999—Randy's first year with Arizona translated into his second career Cy Young Award, joining Gaylord Perry and Pedro Martínez as the only pitchers to win the honor in each league...led the majors in K's (364), complete games (12) and innings (271.2)...won the division clincher in San Francisco on Sept. 24, an 11-3 win...fanned 15 on April 10 in a win at Atlanta, the first of 23 double-digit strikeout games, tying Nolan Ryan's major league record for most in a season, 2 more than the previous N.L. mark set in 1965 by Sandy Koufax...the Big Unit reached the 300-K mark faster than any hurler in history, fanning the Marlins' Kevin Millar on August 26 in his 29th start, 2 starts quicker than any other pitcher...blanked Seattle on July 20 for the first-ever shutout in Safeco Field while starting a stretch in which the D'Backs finished the year 51-17 to run away with the N.L. West...Randy came up on the short end of 4 consecutive shutouts from June 25-July 10 to tie a big league record...the oddity of the streak was that Arizona was no-hit by the Cards' Jose Jimenez in the first loss, followed by a 1-hitter, 2-hitter and 3-hitter in succession...it was the 10th time in MLB history that a starter was blanked in 4 consecutive games, joining Willie Hernandez (1980 Cubs), Jim McAndrew (1968 Mets), Ray Sadecki (1968 Giants), Chuck Estrada (1962 Orioles), George O'Donnell (1954 Pirates), Paul Derringer (1933 Reds), Hub Prueitt (1932 Boston Braves), Jesse Petty (1927 Brooklyn Dodgers) and Irv Young (1907 Boston Braves)...during the inexplicable drought, R.J. posted a 1.41 ERA, allowing 5 earned runs in 32.0 innings...fanned 17 on June 30 in a 2-0 loss at Cincinnati starting a streak of 3 games in which he totaled 43 strikeouts, tying Doc Gooden's 3-game N.L. record set in 1984...also earned a spot on his sixth career All-Star team, first as a National Leaguer...was league Pitcher-of-the-Month for July, despite a 2-3 record and 1.13 ERA (6 ER in 48.0 IP) while fanning 64...also garnered another N.L. Player-of-the-Week award for August 16-22.

1999 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Randy appeared once vs. the Mets, absorbing an 8-4 loss in the series opener at home...left the game with the bases loaded and the score tied at 4-4 in the ninth, but Edgardo Alfonzo hit a grand slam after RJ's departure.

1998—A 10-year career with the Seattle Mariners came to an end at the trade deadline, joining a pennant race in Houston...Randy was 9-10 with a 4.33 ERA in 23 starts for the Mariners, but reversed his luck after joining the Astros, going 10-1 with a 1.28 ERA in 11 starts...totaled a then career-high 329 strikeouts, accruing 213 in Seattle and 116 with the Astros...Johnson was acquired on July 31 with Houston clinging to a 3 1/2-game lead in the Central...after the deal, the Astros enjoyed the best overall month in franchise history, going 22-7 in August, upping the division lead to 11 games...closed the regular season with wins in his final 7 starts, posting a 1.16 ERA (7 earned runs in 54.1 innings)...earned N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for August, going 5-1 with a 1.17 ERA in 6 starts, leading the league in shutouts (3) and K's (61)...after a win in Atlanta over Greg Maddux on Sept. 2, Randy fired his fourth straight shutout in the Dome, 1-0 over Cincinnati on Sept. 7...posted his eighth win in an Astro uniform on Sept. 12 vs. St. Louis, a 3-2 triumph that ended his consecutive scoreless inning streak in the Astrodome at 36.0, allowing both runs in the first inning...all told, in 5 starts in the Dome during the regular season, Johnson held the opposition scoreless in 42 of the 43 innings he pitched, allowing 2 earned runs (0.42 ERA)...wrapped up September the same way he ended August, winning the N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award, going 5-0 with a 1.41 ERA (6 ER in 38.1 IP).

1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Randy gave up 3 earned runs in 2 post-season starts and ended up with a pair of losses...went up against Kevin Brown in the opener in Houston, losing 2-1, allowing 2 runs over 8.0 innings, while fanning 9...then allowed a run on 3 hits over 6.0 innings in what wound up the series finale, losing 6-1.

1997—Randy rebounded from injury in 1996 to set a Seattle franchise record with 20 wins, leading the A.L. in opponents' batting average (.193), winning pct. (.833) and K's per 9-innings (12.3), finishing second to Roger Clemens in the Cy Young balloting...had a streak within a streak from May 13-June 19, a stretch that witnessed a 7-game win streak (8 starts), but included was a 5-game period in which he allowed only 1 earned run over 40.0 innings (0.23 ERA)...had a streak of 31.0 straight scoreless innings halted by an Eric Young homer on June 13 in the Kingdome...the winning streak was stopped by Oakland on June 24, a 4-1 loss featuring 19 K's by Johnson in a complete game that included a 538-foot home run by his former college teammate Mark McGwire...Randy's effort matched the major league record and set an A.L. mark for K's in a game by a lefthanded pitcher, while also tying the big league mark for K's in a loss...earned A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for June (4-1 and 0.92 ERA)...made his second career All-Star Game start with 2.0 shutout innings in Cleveland...fired a shutout on August 8 vs. Chicago, a 5-hitter, fanning 19, tying his own A.L. record for K's by a southpaw...it was the eighth 19-strikeout (9-inning) game in history, the first time it was done by the same hurler twice in a season...worked 2.0 innings of relief on Sept. 27 vs. Oakland to pick up his 20th victory, his first career relief win, featuring his 2,000th career strikeout (Ben Grieve).

1996—Randy was 5-0 but worked only 14 times due to a lower back injury that eventually required season-ending surgery...he made his final start of the year on May 12, then went on the D.L. the next day with an irritated nerve in his lower back...was on the 60-day disabled list, making 1 rehab appearance for Everett (A), and was activated from the D.L. on August 6, working 2.0 scoreless frames of relief that day vs. Cleveland...fanned 8 in 4.0 innings on August 13 vs. Kansas City, his second career save...Johnson was placed on the D.L. on August 27 and underwent surgery (a micro endoscopic discectomy) to correct an extruded disc herniation in his lower back on Sept. 12, a procedure performed in L.A. by Dr. Robert Watkins.

1995—Randy went 18-2 with a 2.48 ERA to win his first Cy Young Award, garnering 26 of 28 first place votes...was named to The Associated Press and The Sporting News All-Star Teams, and was the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Year by The Sporting News...finished sixth in the MVP balloting...the first Mariner to ever win the ERA title, he led the league in strikeouts and average against (.201), while ranking second in wins...won his fourth consecutive league strikeout crown and established an A.L. record for best winning pct. in a season (minimum 20 decisions), breaking Ron Guidry's .893 mark (25-3) for the '78 Yankees...Seattle was 27-3 in his 30 starts...equaled a career-high with a 160-pitch complete game at Cleveland on July 7, the first time he did not walk a man in a complete game...suffered his second (and final) loss of the year on August 1 at California...finished strong, earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for Sept. 18-24, going 2-0 with a 0.59 ERA, fanning 25 in 15.1 innings...was 7-0 with a 1.45 ERA for his final 10 starts, including a 3-hit, complete game in the 1-game playoff on October 2 vs. California for the A.L. West crown.

1995 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: He was the winner in Game 3 of the Division Series vs. the Yankees, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...came back on a day's rest to work in relief in Game 5, fanning 6 in 3.0 innings as Mariners advanced to the LCS...had a no decision in Game 3 of the LCS vs. Cleveland, allowing a run over 8.0 innings, a game that Seattle won, 5-2 in 11 innings...was the losing pitcher in Game 6, giving up 3 runs in 7.1 frames... R.J. had off-season surgery on his right knee performed by Dr. Larry Pedegana. 1994—Finished third in the Cy Young balloting, leading the majors in K's, while topping the A.L. in K's per 9-innings (10.7), complete games and shutouts...was Seattle's opening day starter in Cleveland on April 4, and with President Bill Clinton in attendance, he no-hit the Tribe until Sandy Alomar Jr. singled in the 8th, winding up with a no decision, an eventual 4-3 Seattle loss in 11...had a 7-game winning streak, featuring 3 consecutive shutouts from May 25-June 4, winning at Oakland (1-0, 4-hitter on May 25), at Minnesota (12-0, 2-hitter on May 30) and vs. Toronto (2-0, 6-hitter on June 4), earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors...ran the scoreless streak to 29.0 innings before strange circumstances brought it to an end...in the third inning of a June 10 start at the Kingdome, a power outage forced a 20-minute delay, then after play resumed, the A's scored a run on back-to-back doubles. 1993—Led the majors for the second straight year with a club record 308 K's, the first pitcher to top the 300-K plateau since Nolan Ryan in 1989 (301) and the first lefthander since Steve Carlton in 1972 (310)...won the A.L. strikeout crown by 112 K's, then the fifth largest margin in history...ended year with an 8-game winning streak, spanning his last 11 games, with a 2.11 ERA and a save...had second career 1-hitter on May 16 at Oakland, a 7-0 win, fanning 14 and taking a perfect game through 7.1 frames, then had the no-no broken up by Lance Blankenship with 1 out in the ninth...tossed 2.0 perfect innings in the All-Star Game at Camden Yards, including a memorable strikeout of Philly's John Kruk...Johnson volunteered to work in relief following Norm Charlton's season-ending injury and earned his first big league save vs. Baltimore on August 16, snapping a streak of 146 straight starts...recorded the 1000th strikeout of his career fanning Chuck Knoblauch on July 28 (the same night that Ken Griffey Jr. homered for an eighth straight game)...R.J. finished second to Chicago's Jack McDowell in Cy Young balloting, receiving 6 first place votes...also appeared in a game as an outfielder, though he did not have any chances. 1992—Led the league in strikeouts, batting avg. against (.206) and hit batsmen (18)...was hit by a line drive off the bat of Mike Greenwell on May 31, bruising his left elbow...after 10 days of rest, he attempted a return to action on June 10 at Texas, but pain persisted and he was placed on the D.L. until June 27...tied Ron Guidry's then-A.L. record for K's by a lefthanded pitcher with 18 strikeouts on Sept. 27 at Texas...despite the record-tying performance, he left after 8.0 innings and 160 pitches with the score tied 2-2. 1991—Despite early-season back problems that led to a 3-6 start, Randy finished second in the A.L. in K's...best outing of the year was August 14 vs. Oakland, a 4-0 win featuring 12 K's, taking a no-hitter into the 9th before Mike Gallego singled for the A's only hit...had arthroscopic surgery after the season to repair a lateral release and a patellar shaving to remove a rough area on the back of his kneecap. 1990—He fired the first no-hitter in Mariner history, a 2-0 victory on June 2 vs. Detroit, walking 6 and fanning 8, earning A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...was 5-0 with a 2.40 ERA in June, winning the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award. 1989—He began the year with Montreal going 0-4 with a 6.67 ERA in 7 games (6 starts), with the Expos scoring 7 runs in the 4 losses...was optioned to Indy (AAA) on May 9, then was included in trade with Seattle on May 25, joining the Mariners with pitchers Brian Holman and Gene Harris in exchange for pitcher Mark Langston and a player to be named (Mike Campbell)...made his Mariner debut on May 30 at Yankee Stadium, a 3-2 win. 1988—Spent the majority of the year with Indy...was out of action from June 14-July 31 with a hairline fracture of the 5th metacarpal on his right hand...was named the #3 Major League prospect in the American Association by Baseball America...was recalled by the Expos after the minor league playoffs, and won his big league debut on Sept. 15 vs. Pirates...fanned 11 in first career complete game vs. Cubs on Sept. 20. 1987—Spent the season with Jacksonville, leading the Southern League in strikeouts...was 6-0 with 65 K's and only 17 hits allowed in his first 8 starts, totaling 46.0 inningshe was the S.L. Player-of-the-Month in May and closed the year ranked by Baseball America as the #2 prospect in the league. 1986—At West Palm Beach, Randy caught the eye of Baseball America for the first of 3 straight years, earning #3 prospect status. 1985—Signed with the Expos as their second choice in the June draft and reported to Jamestown.

Acquired from the Boston Red Sox with pitchers Casey Fossum and Jorge de la Rosa and a player-to-be-named (outfielder Michael Goss) in exchange for pitcher Curt Schilling, November 28, 2003.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

Brandon Lyon made a career-high 68 appearances, working a career-best 69.1 innings...both figures are the eighth-highest single-season total in franchise history...his 3.89 ERA was the lowest of his career...notched 23 "holds" on the year, which is tied for fifth among National League relievers and tied for 10th in the majors...opponents batted .258 against him, including a .244 average by left-handers (30-for-123) and a .270 mark by righties (38-for-141)...held opponents to a .226 average (30-for-133) with runners on base...retired the first batter faced in 44 of 68 games (65%)...stranded 14 of 21 inherited baserunners, including 11 of 12 from April 3-August 20...opened the year 1-0 with a 1.69 ERA during April, permitting 2 runs over 10.2 innings spanning 11 appearances...opponents batted only .118 against him for the month (4-for-34)...recorded the win on April 18 vs. San Francisco, his first victory since July 9, 2003 at Toronto as a member of the Red Sox...went a combined 0-2 with a 6.41 ERA (19 ER in 26.2 IP) over his 25 outings during May and June...struck out 8 of 10 batters faced over 3 games from May 31-June 3...owned a 0.77 ERA during July and a 2.57 ERA in August...recorded a 1.25 ERA spanning 21 games from June 29-August 20, allowing 4 runs (3 earned) over 21.2 innings...second win of the year came on August 25, pitching 2.0 scoreless frames in a 15-inning victory over the Dodgers...pitched a season-best 2.0 innings on five occasions, most recently on September 16 vs. Colorado...final appearance of the season, September 30 vs. San Diego, was his 100th with Arizona.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005—Opened the year as the closer and was off to a fantastic start before being derailed by a strained right elbow...earned 14 saves on the year, ranking 18th in N.L. and second on team (Jose Valverde, 15) despite not recording a rescue between May 11 and September 29...made his D-backs debut on April 5 vs. the Cubs, more than 16 months after being acquired from Boston, and closed out a 5-4 triumph with 1.2 scoreless innings...it was his first big-league appearance since September 8, 2003, having missed the '04 campaign following nerve transposition surgery...recorded saves in 9 consecutive appearances from April 10-26 and wound up with 10 saves during April, matching Matt Mantei's (August 2003) club record for a single month...soreness in his right elbow sidelined him from May 13-August 12, including a brief rehab stint with Tucson (AAA)...at the time of his injury, his 13 saves were tied with Pittsburgh's Jose Mesa and Texas' Francisco Cordero for most in the majors...owned a 1.96 ERA in 18 games before being sidelined and a 13.91 ERA in 14 outings after returning from the D.L....picked up his 14th save of the year in his final outing on September 29 in L.A., his first rescue since May 11 vs. Washington...converted his last 13 save chances, tied with Jose Valverde for the third-longest streak in club history, behind only Mantei (14, July 4-Aug. 29, 2003) and Gregg Olson (22, July 13-Sept. 22, 1998)...stranded his first 10 inherited runners on the year...his save percentage (93%) would have ranked third in National League if he had accumulated enough opportunities...was sharp in 18 games at Chase Field (3.78 ERA), but his numbers took a hit on the road (9.95 ERA). 2004—Had a tough first year on the health front as a member of the Diamondbacks...underwent an MRI and an electromyogram in spring training, then a further examination by Dr. Lewis Yocum led to the decision to have ulnar nerve transposition surgery on March 24...two weeks later the cast came off, but Lyon did not return to the mound until July 14 when he tossed about 25 pitches...began a rehab assignment with Tucson (AAA) on July 26 and was touched for 5 runs on 6 hits in an inning of work against Fresno...overall he pitched 6 times for Tucson, going 2-3 with a 15.12 ERA...during his August 11 rehab outing. Brandon reported tightness in the elbow...an MRI revealed no structural damage, but the setback once again slowed his return...another attempt to activate him before year's end was aborted during the season's final week. 2003—Pitched exclusively out of the pen for the first time in his big league career...served as one of Boston's top closer options prior to the late-May arrival of Byung-Hyun Kim, with Lyon recording 6 saves through the end of May (spanning 22 appearances), and 9 saves overall...he did not pitch in the majors from July 21-September 2 due to right elbow soreness...experienced a strange final week of July, going to the Pirates in a 4-player swap on July 22 that sent Scott Sauerbeck to the Red Sox...upon his arrival in Pittsburgh, the Pirates claimed an MRI showed fraying tendons in Lyon's pitching elbow and placed him on the 15-day disabled list on July 25...Red Sox doctors, reading the same MRI, disagreed with the diagnosis, then he was re-acquired by the Red Sox with Jeff Suppan in a deal just prior to the July 31 non-waiver trading deadline...made 5 rehab outings with Pawtucket (AAA), then returned to Boston's active roster on September 2...Made a memorable Red Sox debut at Tampa Bay on April 2, pitching 3.0 innings of scoreless, extra-inning relief to earn a 9-8 win in 16 innings, Boston's first victory of the season...earned his first Major League save on April 16 vs. the Devil Rays...struck out Robin Ventura, Alfonso Soriano and Derek Jeter in the ninth inning to preserve a 10-7 win on May 20 vs. New York...did not incur a blown save until June 28 vs. Florida. 2002—Began the year with Toronto, the first time he broke camp on a Major League roster...made his first career relief appearance on May 28 at Boston...was optioned to Syracuse (AAA) on June 11 and remained in the minors for the rest of the year. 2001—In only his second professional season, Brandon reached the majors, going 5-4 with a 4.29 ERA in 11 starts for the Blue Jays after combining to go 10-3 with a 3.76 in 20 AA and AAA starts...was named Southern League Pitcher-of-the-Week for April 13-19...jumped to Syracuse (AAA) on June 1, going 5-3 with a 3.69 ERA in 11 starts...was named International League Pitcher-of-the-Week twice (June 11-17 and July 9-15)...had his contract purchased by Toronto on August 3 and won his Major League debut the next day at SkyDome, allowing one earned run on 4 hits in 7.1 innings in a 2-1 victory over the Orioles...was the seventh youngest pitcher to start a game for the Blue Jays and the second youngest to win (Phil Huffman, who was 20 in 1979)...won 4 consecutive starts from August 21-September 7, posting a 2.73 ERA. 2000—Spent his first pro season appearing in 15 games (13 starts) for Queens (A).

PERSONAL

Brandon James Lyon...he and his wife, Sara, have a son, Isaac, and reside in St. George, UT...graduated from Taylorsville (UT) High School, where he was named the Utah Player-of-the-Year...he then attended Dixie Junior College in Utah, where he was a Junior College All-American, an All-Region selection in 1999 and 2000 and an All-Region MVP...he was also the JUCO Player-of-the-Year in 2000, posting a 17-0 record and 0.52 ERA.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as Arizona's 15th-round selection in the 2002 First-Year Player Draft.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

Dustin Nippert spent the majority of the year anchoring the rotation for the Tucson Sidewinders (AAA)...he did make 2 starts for the Diamondbacks...tied for the Pacific Coast League lead with 13 victories...tied for fourth with 130 strikeouts...went 7-1 with a 3.24 ERA at Tucson Electric Park and 6-7 with a 6.04 ERA in 14 road starts...began the year 7-0 through his first 9 outings...that included a 5-0, 2.75 ERA month of May...one relief appearance of the year came on May 16 vs. Memphis and included 6.0 shutout innings in relief of Russ Ortiz, who was beginning a rehab assignment...recalled for the first time this season on June 7 and started that afternoon vs. Philadelphia, allowing 6 runs on 7 hits-including 2 home runs-over 5.0 innings while absorbing a 7-3 defeat...optioned back to the minors the next day...went 1-3 over his next 5 starts from June 12-July 2...got back on track by going 4-1 spanning 5 outings from July 8-30...recorded a season-best 11 strikeouts on July 24 at Salt Lake, pitching 7.0 innings of 1-run ball in the win...made his second start for the Diamondbacks on August 5, giving up 7 runs on 8 hits-including 3 home runs-over 5.0 innings versus Houston...returned to the minors the next day...closed out the regular season by going 1-3 with a 4.18 ERA in 5 starts...went 2-0 with a 0.63 ERA (1 ER in 14.1 IP) during the post season as the Sidewinders were crowned PCL champs...first playoff start came on September 7 vs. Salt Lake, working 7.1 innings and giving up 2 unearned runs on 3 hits with 3 walks and 7 strikeouts...worked 7.0 innings of 1-run ball vs. Round Rock on September 13.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005—Was named the organization's minor league Pitcher-of-the-Year after going 8-3 with a Southern League-leading 2.38 ERA for Tennessee (AA)...tied for the top spot in complete games (3) and shutouts (2) despite not getting started until May 29 due to his recovery from "Tommy John" surgery...worked at least 5.0 innings in each of his 18 minor league starts and gave up 3 earned runs or less in 17 of those assignments...held Southern League hitters to a .226 average (95-for-420), and was particularly effective against lefthanded batters, holding them to a .186 mark (33-for-177)...fanned 11 (tying his minor-league career best) at Jacksonville on July 26...was named the Southern League's Pitcher-of-the-Month in addition to earning the organization's monthly honor for August, going 3-0 with a 1.12 ERA in 6 starts (5 earned runs in 40.1 innings) with 30 K's...was also the Southern League Pitcher-of-the-Week for August 1-7...jumped from AA to the big leagues, making a trio of September starts for Arizona...made his Major League debut for the Diamondbacks on September 8 at Pittsburgh, exactly 14 months to the day after undergoing "Tommy John" surgery on July 8, 2004...had the good fortune of making his big league debut against Pittsburgh in PNC Park, giving his family and friends an opportunity to make the 2-hour trek from his native Beallsville, Ohio...with nearly 400 familiar faces in attendance, Nippert went 5.0 innings allowing 3 runs on 5 hits, leaving the contest with a 4-3 lead, but the game eventually went into overtime with the Pirates prevailing, 8-7 in 12 innings...was hampered by a broken finger nail on the index finger of his throwing hand...waited 8 days before pitching again, and had a no decision in 4.2-inning outing vs. Colorado, permitting 5 runs on 4 hits...picked up his first big league hit with a single...recorded his first Major League win on September 29 in Los Angeles, tossing 5.0 innings of 1-hit, 1-run ball, a 3-2 triumph...limited big league hitters to a .185 average (10-for-54)...was rated by Baseball America as the 14th best prospect in the Diamondbacks' organization. 2004—Was having a productive season that was once again interrupted by injury...opened the year with El Paso (AA), allowing 3 earned runs or less in 12 of 14 starts...season came to a halt on June 27 when he was placed on the D.L. for the remainder of the year...at the time of the injury, Nippert ranked ninth in the Texas League with a 3.64 ERA and fourth with 73 strikeouts...had "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery performed by Dr. James Andrews. 2003—Was having a solid year with South Bend (A) when he received a scare, that at the time, could have threatened more than just his season of work...during his June 3 start at Burlington, he felt a sharp pain in his back and was forced from the outing...it was discovered that he had a golf-ball sized tumor in the back of his right shoulder...the tumor was found to be benign and removed by South Bend surgeon Dr. Stephen Mitros...Dustin then began the necessary rehabilitation that returned him to action less than two months later...limited opponents to a .191 average and posted a 2.82 ERA on the year, good for fourth in the farm system...opened the year by winning the system's Pitcher-of-the-Month for April honor...owned a 2.91 ERA when his season was interrupted...was selected as a Midwest League All-Star but did not participate in the contest due to a stint on the disabled list that ran from June 14-July 23...finished the regular season with 3 straight wins, posting an 0.82 ERA...was the Midwest League Pitcher-of-the-Week for August 25-September 1...participated in the Arizona Fall League, going 1-2 with a 3.60 ERA in 8 starts, working 30.0 innings and recording 30 K's, third most in the league...it was also during the Fall League that he worked on his changeup with Dave Duncan, the pitching coach for the St. Louis Cardinals...the extra work paid off as Nippert was rated by Baseball America as the top righthanded pitching prospect in the Fall League and the sixth-best prospect in the league overall...was also tabbed as having the best breaking ball and second best fastball in the Arizona Fall League. 2002—Led the Pioneer League (R) and was third among all minor league starters with a 12.68 strikeouts per 9.0-innings ratio...finished 11th among all short-season pitchers with a 1.65 ERA...as a starter, he went 3-2 with a 1.50 ERA (8 earned runs in 48.0 innings), 69 strikeouts and a .209 opponents average...earned Player-of-the-Week honors for August 19-25.

PERSONAL

Dustin David Nippert...Dustin and his wife, Carrie, make their home in Beallsville, OH, where he graduated from Beallsville High School in 1999...Dustin then attended Ohio Valley College for two years before transferring to the University of West Virginia, spending his junior year as the ace of the Mountaineer staff...his twin brother Derik signed with the Diamondbacks as their 36th round selection in the 2003 draft out of Ohio Valley College.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a non-drafted free agent, June 13, 2002.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

Tony Peña's season began with Tennessee (AA), included a successful stint with Tucson (AAA) before concluding the year as a member of the Diamondbacks' bullpen...while with Arizona, limited righthanded batters to a team-low .179 average (10-for-56) while lefties batted .382 off him (26-for-68)...retired the first batter faced in 19 of 25 games...went 2-0 with 6 saves and owned a microscopic 0.89 ERA with Tennessee, allowing 2 runs in 20.1 innings over 17 games from April 7-May 21...promoted to Tucson on May 23 and was 3-1 with 7 saves and 1.71 ERA over 24 outings...combined minor league totals were 5-1 with 13 saves and a 1.35 ERA (7 ER in 46.2 IP) over 41 appearances while limiting foes to a .205 average (35-for-171) with 38 strikeouts, 7 walks and 1 home run...summoned to the majors on July 18 and made his big-league debut that evening vs. the Dodgers, allowing a run on 2 hits over 1.2 innings...strung together 9.0 consecutive scoreless frames from July 23-August 3...earned victories in 3 straight outings from July 25-30, joining Brandon Webb (4 wins in 4 starts from June 28-July 13, 2003) as the only rookie pitchers in team history to win as many as 3 consecutive appearances...first two of those wins were 2.0 innings in length and came in extra innings, 6-5 in 11 innings at Philadelphia on July 25 and 8-7 in 11 innings at Houston on July 28...owned a 0.84 ERA over his first 7 major-league games (1 R in 10.2 IP), but went 0-4 with an 8.10 ERA over his final 18 outings from August 4-October 1...struck out a season-high 4 batters over 2.0 innings on August 15 at Colorado...recorded his first big-league save on August 19 in San Diego, striking out Mark Bellhorn to end the game...pitched a career-high 3.0 innings of hitless ball vs. Colorado on September 16 with a walk and a strikeout.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005—Spent his second consecutive season in AA, appearing in 25 games (all starts) with Tennessee...dropped his first 6 decisions (9 starts) before picking up his first win on June 10 at Montgomery, yielding only 3 hits in 7.0 shutout innings...collected his second straight win, tossing 7.2 innings, allowing 2 earned runs on June 15 at Birmingham...was stellar in July, going 4-1 with a 3.27 ERA, including 4 straight wins from July 8-27...included was a complete game shutout on July 21 at West Tenn., allowing only 2 hits while fanning 5...dropped 5 of his last 6 decisions, with the lone win coming on August 8...recorded a season-high 7 strikeouts on May 16 and again on July 16...hit a solo home run on July 27 at Jacksonville. 2004—Tony got his first taste of AA action, beginning the year as a member of the El Paso Diablos rotation...worked 8.0 innings in a 15-2 triumph at Arkansas on May 12, which would be his final start of the year as an investigation of birth records revealed that Peña was playing under the identity of his nephew, Adriano Rosario...according to the documents, Peña was more than 3 years older than previously assumed...during the investigation, Peña returned to his homeland where he worked out at the organization's facility in Boca Chica and appeared in 3 games, going 1-0 with a 0.64 ERA with 17 strikeouts and no walks in 14.0 frames. 2003—Enjoyed a solid season in South Bend (A) as his 2.86 ERA ranked 14th in the Midwest League...was selected but did not pitch in the Midwest League All-Star Game on June 17...pitched at least 6.0 innings in all but one of those starts. 2002—Held opposing hitters to an overall .229 batting average (67-for-293), fanned 71 while walking only 10 batters and did not allow a homer in 14 starts with Boca Chica (DSL) and Missoula (R)...with Boca Chica, he ranked second in starts (10), innings pitched (57.0), strikeouts (57), and complete games (1) while posting a 2.05 ERA, good for third among pitchers with at least 10 appearances...finished fifth on the team with a .193 opponents average (41-for-212) and fanned 57 batters while walking only 7...was transferred to Missoula on August 15, going 1-2 in 4 starts.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as Arizona's second-round selection in the 2002 First-Year Player Draft.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

Chris Snyder broke camp on the major league roster for the second straight year...set career highs in average (.277) and RBI (32) as well as tying his career high with 6 home runs this season...has a career high tying 5-game hit streak from July 9-29, batting .471 (8-for-17) with 2 doubles and a home run over that stretch...his first start of the season came on April 6 and tied his career high with 5 RBI, including a 2-run homer in the fifth and 2-run double in the sixth...drew a career-best 3 walks on May 2 vs. the Dodgers...had a pair of hits with 3 RBI on June 19 at Pittsburgh, his fourth 2-hit game in his last 6 starts...had 3 hits in the first game of a split doubleheader on June 3 in Atlanta including a homer and double...had a .995 fielding percentage in 55 games behind the plate this season and caught 17 of 48 steal attempts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005—Made the Opening Day roster for first time in his career, though the opportunity was in jeopardy only a week before the season started...had suffered a dislocation of the tip of his left thumb in an exhibition game against San Diego on March 26 but the dislocation was immediately popped back into place and he was cleared to return to action...had a .997 fielding percentage in 113 games (105 starts), committing only 2 errors in 725 total chances...threw out 11-of-57 attempted basestealers (19%)...Snyder's 40 walks tied for fourth among N.L. rookies...finished with 12 multi-hit games and 7 multi-RBI games...collected a career-high 4 hits on April 9 vs. Los Angeles, including his first career triple, a solo homer and 2 RBI...his ninth-inning double on May 1 at San Diego halted an 0-for-22 slide...had a season-best 5-game hitting streak from June 23-29, batting .313 (5-for-16)...had a huge day on July 31 at Wrigley Field with a career-best 5 RBI and his second career 2-homer game, highlighted by his first grand slam, a fifth inning blast off of Mike Remlinger, followed later by a seventh inning solo homer off of Sergio Mitre...clubbed first career pinch-hit homer on August 14 at Atlanta, a 2-run clout off of Horacio Ramirez in the ninth inning, Snyder's career-high sixth home run. 2004—Snyder's rise through the organization culminated in a season-ending stint with the big league club...started the year at El Paso (AA)...had a .388 average in June after hitting safely in 15 of 20 games with 9 multi-hit outings, earning the organization's Player-of-the-Month award...earned a spot on the West Squad at the Texas League All-Star Game on June 21...was honored as the Texas League Player of the Week for July 12-18 after batting .500 (10-for-20)...a disabling injury to newly-acquired catcher Koyie Hill led to the purchase of Snyder from El Paso on August 18...went 2-for-3 in his Major League debut on August 21 vs. Cincinnati, lacing a single in his first at-bat off of Aaron Harang, then adding a double in his next at bat...clubbed a 2-run homer, his first big league blast, off of the Pirates' John Van Benschoten on August 23 in Pittsburgh...behind the plate, he nabbed 6-of the last-12 attempted basestealers and 6-of-19 runners overall (32%)...while in AA, Snyder paced the Diablos and ranked among Texas Leaguers with a .520 slugging percentage (2nd), a .389 on-base percentage (5th), 31 doubles (T-6th), a .301 batting average (7th), 15 homers, 57 RBI and 46 walks...capped a stellar season in El Paso by being selected as the catcher on the Texas League Post-Season All-Star Team. 2003—Split his year between Lancaster (A) and El Paso (AA), appearing in a combined 122 games, including 105 behind the plate...a .331 hitter (41-for-124) with 50 RBI with runners on base, he also batted .338 (27-for-80) with 40 RBI with runners in scoring position...was promoted to El Paso on June 25...played 16 games for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League. 2002—hit safely in 11 of his first 15 pro games at a .340 clip (18-for-53)...was the Cal League's sixth-toughest catcher to run against, nabbing 22 of 56 (39%) would-be basestealers.

PERSONAL

Christopher Ryan (Chris) Snyder, he and his wife, Carla, and son, Chase Andrew, make their home in Phoenix...graduated from Spring Woods High School in 1999 in his native Houston, TX...then attended the University of Houston, batting .343 with a school record 71 RBI during his junior season in 2002, and received third-team All-America honors from the NCBWA, All Conference-USA First team honors and Baseball America second team All-America honors...in addition, he was selected as one of three finalists for the 2002 Johnny Bench Award, bestowed upon the nation's top collegiate backstop...was the starting catcher on Team USA during 2001.

stretch was capped with his first career 2-homer game on July 17 at PETCO Park, hitting a solo homer off Tim Stauffer then adding a 2-run blast off southpaw Chris Hammond...was part of back-to-back home runs twice during the season (August 29 at San Diego and September 17 vs. Colorado)...propelled Arizona to victory in 3 consecutive games from September 24-27...on September 24 against San Diego, he hit go-ahead, 3-run double in the eighth inning of 8-5 triumph...the next day, he laced game-winning RBI single in the tenth for a 4-3 win over the Padres...on September 27 in Los Angeles, he launched 2-run homer in the eighth inning of 2-0 victory...closed the season with a .378 batting average (37-for-98), 7 doubles, 2 triples, 7 home runs and 21 RBI in his final 25 games, reaching base safely via a hit or walk in 23 of those outings. 2004—Earned the Diamondbacks Rookie-of-the-Year award as voted by the local chapter of the BBWAA...for a second straight year he began at Tucson (AAA), but received his first and only call to the majors on April 21, replacing a disabled Roberto Alomar, making his big league debut that night in Milwaukee, fanning as a pinch hitter...started at third base the following day and had 4 hits, with a double in an 11-9, 15-inning Arizona win...his first Major League hit was a second inning single off the Brewers' Wes Obermueller...hit his first Major League home run on April 27, a 2-run blast off of the Cubs' Sergio Mitre...reached base safely via a hit or walk in 21 of his first 24 games, compiling a .348 average (32-for-92) with 9 multi-hit games...Chad's game-tying RBI single in the ninth inning on July 5 in L.A. halted Dodger reliever Eric Gagne's Major League record streak of 84 consecutive saves...hit his first career pinch homer on September 11 off of Giants' lefty Noah Lowry...launched a leadoff homer in a 3-1 win over Milwaukee on September 27, the first leadoff home run of his career...among all Major League rookies, he ranked second with 137 hits, third with 45 walks, fourth with 196 total bases and tied for fourth with 34 multi-hit games...defensively, he was charged with 26 errors as the everyday third baseman. 2003—Continued his rapid climb through the farm system, enjoying an All-Star season in his first taste of AAA action...entered the year ranked by Baseball America as the No. 8 prospect in the organization and hit over .320 for a third straight season while securing honors as the Diamondbacks' Minor League Player-of-the-Year...his .324 batting average was second in the chain and fourth in the Pacific Coast League, while leading all minor league third basemen...paced the PCL in hits (169) and ranked second in runs scored (91)...became the first minor leaguer since July 2000 to score 6 runs in a game when Tucson triumphed over Edmonton, 25-11, on April 5...for the second straight season, Chad was the starting third baseman in the Futures Game at Chicago's U.S. Cellular Field...he then participated in the AAA All-Star game at Memphis...at the end of the year Tracy was selected by league managers and media as the third baseman on the All-PCL Team...following the season Chad played winter ball for Azucareros in the Dominican Winter League. 2002—Received numerous accolades as he led the Texas League in batting (.344), hits (177) and doubles (39) while playing for El Paso (AA)...was chosen by Baseball America as the best batting prospect in the TL, and was selected league's Player-of-the-Year by Topps and the managers and media...was named the third baseman on Topps' Class AA All-Star team and was selected by SportsTicker as one of the top prospects in the Texas League...Chad played in the 2002 Futures Game in Milwaukee on July 7...was chosen as both a mid-season and post-season All-Star...played in the Texas League All-Star Game and the AA All-Star Game in Norwich, CT...was the organization's minor league Player-of-the-Month for April and shared honors for May...twice received Texas League Player-of-the-Week honors (April 4-14 and April 22-28)...was the league's toughest batter to strikeout, fanning once every 11.06 plate appearances... among league leaders he also ranked second in total bases (250) and fifth in slugging (.486), while tying for fifth in extra-base hits (52)...in his first full season, Chad was successful vs. both lefthanders (.341, 31-for-91) and righties (.345, 146-for-423)...following the season, Tracy was chosen to play for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League...appeared in only 5 games before tendinitis in his right shoulder brought his year to an end. 2001—He missed the season's first 3 games with a broken nose due to a bad hop grounder.

Brandon Webb won the 2006 National League Cy Young Award as voted by the Baseball Writers Association of America...he received 15 of a possible 32 first place votes, totaling 103 points based on a 5-3-1 point system, with San Diego's Trevor Hoffman finishing second with 77 points, including 12 first place votes...St. Louis starter Chris Carpenter was third in the voting with 63 points, including two first place votes...it marks the fifth Cy Young Award winner in the nine-year history of the Diamondbacks, with Randy Johnson becoming just the second pitcher in Major League history to win four in a row from 1999-2002 (Greg Maddux 1992-1995)...tied for the National League lead with a career-best 16 victories, finished second in innings pitched (235.0), was third with a 3.10 ERA and tied for 10th with 178 strikeouts...once again led the majors in ground ball to air ratio at 4.06...he had a big-league leading mark of 4.34 in 2005...tied for fifth in the majors with 23 "quality starts"...was the youngest Opening Day starter in franchise history...made his first career Opening Day start on April 3 at Colorado tossing 7.0 innings of 1-run ball...was the youngest Opening Day starting pitcher at 26 years, 329 days, a couple of years younger than the previous year's starter, Javier Vazquez (28 years, 283 days)...opened the season 8-0, the best season-opening stretch in franchise history, a win more than Randy Johnson's 2000 start...the 8-game win streak was tied for the second-longest in team annals...won 6 consecutive starts from April 14-May 10...became only the second pitcher in team history (the other was Schilling in 2003) to toss back-to-back shutouts, turning the trick on May 20 vs. Atlanta and May 26 at Cincinnati...possessed a franchise-best streak of 30.0 consecutive scoreless innings from May 20-June 5, breaking the old mark set by Andy Benes in 1998 (27.1 innings)...tossed 7.0 scoreless innings during May 31 contest against the Mets' Pedro Martinez...owned a 2.01 ERA through the end of May...went 0-3 with a 5.08 ERA during June but returned to form in July, owning a 4-1 mark and a 2.45 ERA...went the distance and outpitched Barry Zito, for a 3-1 victory over the A's on July 2...allowed only one run on 4 hits with a walk and 7 strikeouts...was Arizona's only representative in the 2006 All-Star Game, his first trip to the mid-summer classic...was named by virtue of the player/coach/manager vote, garnering a league-best 325 votes among pitchers...made the most of his appearance, recording a 1-2-3 fourth inning...fanned the Yankees' Derek Jeter, coaxed a foulout to third by Boston's David Ortiz, then induced a grounder to short by New York's Alex Rodriguez in a 16-pitch inning...best Major League performance came on September 9 vs. St. Louis, a 3-0, 1-hit complete game win...needed only 95 pitches and 1-hour, 54 minutes in firing his fourth complete game (third shutout) of the season...faced only 3 over the minimum, with the lone hit a 2-out double in the fourth inning by Scott Rolen...it was the seventh 1-hitter in team history, third complete game, first since Randy Johnson on September 14, 2003, vs. Colorado...had 10-strikeout games on July 15 vs. Milwaukee and September 15 vs. Colorado...collected 9 RBI on the year, establishing a club record for RBI by a pitcher...Webb and Carlos Zambrano became the only big league pitchers to have worked at least 180.0 innings and had a sub-4.00 ERA in each of the last four seasons...continued his climb up the franchise's all-time leaderboard...ranks second with 852.2 innings pitched, behind only Randy Johnson (1389.2)...tied with Brian Anderson for second with 129 starts, trailing Johnson (192)...third with 47 victories, bested only by Johnson (103) and Schilling (58)...also third with 686 strikeouts, behind Johnson (1,832) and Schilling (875).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2005—Was Arizona's most dependable starter throughout the season and was named the Diamondbacks' 2005 Pitcher-of-the-Year by the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA after leading the staff in wins (14), innings (229.0) and ERA (3.54)...had a career-high workload (229.0 IP) which ranked sixth in the National League and eighth in the majors...also ranked among leading N.L. starters with 3.54 ERA (15th), 172 strikeouts (T-15th), 11.40 baserunners per 9-innings (17th) and 2.92 K/BB ratio (20th)...had a team-best 22 "quality" starts, which tied for 14th in the big leagues and his 14 wins were 4 more than his previous best set in his rookie season of 2003...his biggest improvement came in his control, only one year after issuing an MLB-high 119 walks, he cut that total in half during the 2005 campaign with 59...had a Major League-leading ground ball to air ratio of 4.34, which was light years ahead of his nearest competition, the Indians' Jake Westbrook (3.13), Dodgers' Derek Lowe (2.92) and the Cards' Mark Mulder (2.74)...also led with 451 groundouts induced, 4 more than Lowe...was guilty of 14 wild pitches, leading the N.L. for the second consecutive season...opened the season 6-0 over his first 9 starts, one win shy of matching Randy Johnson's club record 7-0 start to the 2000 campaign...his first loss came on May 26, falling 10-0 to San Diego, permitting 6 runs (3 earned) over 6.2 innings...recorded his third career complete game on June 18 at Cleveland, but it came in a 3-1 setback to the Indians...it was his first route-going effort since June 25, 2004, when he incurred a 2-1 loss to the Tigers in Comerica Park...notched his eighth win of the year on June 23 in San Francisco, eclipsing his entire victory total (7-16) of 2004...was efficient in picking up the victory needing only 79 pitches to dispatch the Giants, allowing 2 runs in 7.0 innings...was 0-5 with a 6.57 ERA over a span of 6 starts from June 29-July 26...broke out of a personal 6-start victory drought with a well-pitched 13-6 win over the Cubs in Wrigley Field on July 31, putting his 25 career wins at the time against Greg Maddux's 313, with Webb working 7.0 innings allowing only 2 runs on 3 hits on a day when the infamous Wrigley winds were blowing out and his teammates hammered a club record-tying 5 homers...turned in 2 double-digit strikeout performances on the season, the first coming in a no decision against Colorado on August 5, holding the Rockies to 2 runs (only 1 earned) over 7.0 frames of 3-hit ball with 10 K's...the other was in a 3-2 win at home over the Dodgers on September 21, giving up 2 runs over 7.2 frames with a career-high tying 11 strikeouts...that outing included 6 consecutive K's in the fourth and fifth innings, one shy of Randy Johnson's club record...hurled 7.0 shutout frames in a 2-0 triumph over Philadelphia on August 27, scattering 5 hits with 6 strikeouts...it was his first win at Chase Field since May 4, spanning 9 starts between home victories...finished the year strong, going 3-1 with a 1.72 ERA in his last 5 starts, allowing 7 earned runs in 36.2 innings with 32 K's...went 6-for-62 with the bat and had a team-high 13 sacrifice bunts, tying for fifth in the National League...owned a 2.83 ERA in day games, seventh in the N.L. and ninth in the big leagues...his work in an Arizona uniform was rewarded with a wintertime contract extension that runs through the 2009 season with a club option for 2010. 2004—Despite going 7-16, 20 of his 35 starts were quality, allowing 3 earned runs or less over 6.0 innings...on 5 occasions he left a contest with the lead, only to watch the opposition rebound later...Brandon's 35 starts tied 5 others for the Major League lead...surrendered a team record 119 walks, topping the majors, while also leading the N.L. with a franchise-high 17 wild pitches...allowed 2 earned runs or less in 6 straight starting assignments from June 3-30, but was only 1-3...went the distance on June 25 in Detroit, but dropped a decision...it was his second career complete game with both occurring in the Motor City, the other nearly a year earlier on June 28, 2003...from June 3-Sept. 1, Webb made 18 starts and compiled a 3.02 ERA, but went just 4-9...had his shortest big league starting assignment on September 17 in St. Louis, when plate umpire Jerry Layne made the judgment that Webb threw at opposing hurler Woody Williams and ejected him with none out in the third inning...had just surrendered a home run to Mike Matheny, then hit his counterpart with the next pitch...it was the first ejection of Webb's big league career...his sinker proved effective as he led all starters with a 3.55 groundball-to-flyball ratio, easily outdistancing Boston's Derek Lowe (2.87), the only starting pitcher Webb trailed in that category during 2003. 2003—Brandon's year began in Tucson (AAA) but wound up with him being named by Baseball America as the Major League Rookie of the Year, going 10-9 with a 2.84 ERA...his ERA was fourth best in the National League and sixth in the majors, while his 172 strikeouts easily led all rookies...he limited opponents to a .212 average (140-for-659), good for third in the N.L.... made 28 starts and led all rookies with 21 "quality starts", including 16 in which he worked 6.0 innings and allowed 2 or fewer earned runs...proved he could pitch well in hostile environments as evidenced by a 2.27 road ERA, fourth in the majors and third in the N.L....his first recall was on April 22 and he debuted that night with a scoreless frame of relief in Montreal...made his first Major League start 5 days later with a 6-1 win in the first game of an April 27 doubleheader at Shea Stadium, tossing 7.0 shutout innings, allowing only 3 hits and a walk while recording 10 K's...his 10-K performance started an afternoon that saw the Diamondbacks set a Major League record for most K's in a doubleheader, as 27 Mets fanned during the day...within minutes of securing the win, Brandon was optioned back to AAA to make room on the roster for Randy Johnson who was coming off the disabled list to start the nightcap of the twinbill...following Johnson's 12-strikeout performance that resulted in a 7-3 win, he once again experienced swelling in his right knee and required arthroscopic surgery which necessitated Webb's second recall...Brandon's Big Apple outing started a streak of 13 consecutive quality starts to begin his career, the longest streak in the majors since Montreal's Steve Rogers had 16 in a row in 1973...became the first D-back rookie to toss a complete game shutout when he blanked Detroit, 7-0, at Comerica Park on June 28, allowing 7 hits...on the year, he recorded 542 major league outs, only 55 of which were caught by an outfielder (10%). 2002—Got off to a fast start at El Paso (AA) and ranked fourth in the Texas League in ERA (3.14) and K's (122)...was one of 8 Diablos named to the Texas League All-Star Game on June 17, pitching 2.0 shutout innings...made his AAA debut on July 4 at New Orleans as the replacement starter for Erik Sabel, who was summoned to the big league club...arriving an hour and a half before game time because of travel delays, he absorbed the loss after working 7.0 innings, allowing 3 runs on 5 hits...returned to El Paso and closed out his season...was 2-0 with a 0.55 ERA (1 ER in 16.1 IP) and 17 strikeouts, in 8 games (1 start) for Scottsdale of the Arizona Fall League. 2001—Owned the California League's 10th best ERA (3.99) and finished fourth in innings (162.1) and strikeouts (158)...he plunked a league-high 27 batters. 2000—Held Midwest League opponents to a .172 batting average...was disabled the final month of the season with right arm soreness.

A PERFECT NIGHT IN ATLANTA

Adept at setting records throughout his Major League career, Randy Johnson added something new to his impressive resume when he retired all 27 Atlanta Braves he faced on May 18, 2004, in Turner Field. At 40 years, 251 days, he became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game, bettering Cy Young, who was 37 years, 37 days on May 5, 1904. Johnson's gem was the 15th in modern day regular season history, the 16th including Don Larsen's perfect effort for the Yankees in the 1956 World Series.

Johnson fanned 13 in the 117-pitch performance which concluded with a 98-mph pitch to Eddie Perez to end the game. It was the first no-no in franchise history and first perfect game in the majors since David Cone on July 18, 1999, in Yankee Stadium against Montreal. It was also the first perfect in the National League since Montreal's Dennis Martinez retired all 27 Dodgers he faced on July 28, 1991, in Chavez Ravine. The box score:

THE ORIGINAL 35

The Diamondbacks and Tampa Bay Devil Rays were named the 29th and 30th teams in Major League Baseball history during the baseball owners meetings on March 9, 1995. Both clubs began play in 1998, but before a pitch could be thrown each team was given the opportunity to draft 35 players from the existing 28 clubs.

The 1997 MLB Expansion Draft took place across at the Phoenix Civic Plaza, across the street from the nearly constructed Chase Field. The Diamondbacks selected lefthanded pitcher Brian Anderson from the Cleveland Indians with their first choice. Arizona's 35 selections:

1999 DIVISION SERIES VS. NEW YORK METS

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

NEW YORK METS (3) VS. ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS (1)

October 5-9, 1999

The Diamondbacks not only had their first taste of post-season play in 1999, they also had the fastest taste in major league expansion history, winning the Western Division by 14 games to qualify for the second season in their second season, a year faster than the previous best. Colorado held the previous quickest qualification at three years, though they did so in 1995 as a Wild Card entry and in a 144-game season. Arizona's division title came six years faster than any other expansion club, beating the New York Mets and Kansas City Royals who each won a title in their eighth campaign.

By virtue of their division title, the Diamondbacks had a home-field advantage, taking on the New York Mets, who qualified as the Wild Card club with a one-game playoff victory in Cincinnati the day before. The Mets seemed to still be riding the momentum from their visit to Cincinnati, immediately taking the home-field edge away from Arizona with an 8-4 win in the series opener. The D'Backs rallied to even the series at a game apiece behind the arm of Todd Stottlemire and bat of Steve Finley, cruising to a 7-1 win in game #2. Stottlemire, continuing his amazing return from a tear in his right labrum, worked 6.2 innings of 4-hit ball, allowing just a run, while Finley went 2-for-3 with a double and 5 RBI. Matt Williams also chipped in with 3 hits and 3 runs scored.

The Diamondbacks weren't as fortunate upon arriving in New York, losing both games before getting a shot at returning to Chase Field for a possible fifth game. The Mets dominated game #3, posting a 9-2 win in their return to Shea, scoring 3 times off of starter Omar Daal in a 4-inning stint, then putting the game away with a 6-run sixth inning.

Arizona's season came to an abrupt and heartbreaking end in a Saturday matinee at Shea, as Todd Pratt ended the affair and the Diamondbacks season with a 10th inning homer. The Diamondbacks had taken a 3-2 lead in the eighth, when Jay Bell doubled home a pair of runs, missing a 3-run homer by a matter of inches. Pratt, subbing for the injured Mike Piazza, had been hitless in 7 at bats in the series prior to sending the Mets to the next level with his shot just out of Finley's reach in centerfield.

2001 DIVISION SERIES VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS (3) VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS (2)

October 9-13, 2001

Pitching and clutch hitting were the themes in the 5-game Division Series against St. Louis, ultimately won by Arizona when Tony Womack singled in the tie-breaking run in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game #5 to sent the Diamondbacks into their first League Championship Series. Curt Schilling and Matt Morris set the tone for the tightly-contested series in the opening game at Chase Field, with Schilling prevailing by a 1-0 count, tossing a 3-hit complete game. The Redbirds rebounded to even the series at a game apiece with a 4-1 win over Randy Johnson, the last loss experienced by the Big Unit in the 2001 post-season.

With the series squared at 1-1, the scene shifted to Busch Stadium, where Craig Counsell struck a huge blow in Game #3 with a seventh inning, 3-run homer off of southpaw Mike Matthews to stake Arizona to a 5-3 victory and 2-1 lead in the series. The Cards sent the set back to Phoenix for a deciding game when they recorded a 4-1 win in St. Louis after a 3-hour, 36-minute rain delay prior to Game #4.

Pitching was once again the focal point in the series finale, as Schilling and Morris continued their stingy ways, each surrendering solo homers to account for all of the scoring entering the ninth inning. The Diamondbacks prevailed in the bottom of the ninth, but not before some tense moments. With the potential winning run at third base and one-out in the inning, Womack was unable to make contact on a suicide squeeze attempt, leaving Midre Cummings as a sitting-duck between third and home. On the play, pinch runner Danny Bautista moved up to second base, then scored the series-winning run when Womack poked a Steve Kline pitch to left-center to set off the first of three post-season celebrations for the Diamondbacks.

2001 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES VS. ATLANTA BRAVES

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS (4) VS. ATLANTA BRAVES (1) October 16-21, 2001

Coming off the nerve-racking series against St. Louis, Arizona made relatively quick work of the ??-time division champion Braves, taking 4 of the 5 games in the N.L.C.S. to advance to its first-ever World Series appearance. Randy Johnson, who had dominated the regular season throughout his career, was in the crosshairs of critics for incurring a post-season losing streak that had been extended to 7 games with a Division Series setback to St. Louis. The Big Unit quickly silenced the critics with his performance in the League Championship Series and his eventual World Series work, finishing the 2001 post-season with 5 consecutive wins.

The winning streak began in Game #1 against the Braves, as Johnson outdueled Greg Maddux by tossing a complete game 3-hitter for a 2-0 win in Chase Field, fanning 11 in the process. Atlanta rebounded the following day for an 8-1 win to send the series to Turner Field tied at a game apiece. The Diamondbacks, who swept a 3-game visit to Atlanta during the regular season, continued their mastery in the south by taking all 3 games of the N.L.C.S. in Atlanta to earn a trip to the Fall Classic and eventual meeting with the vaunted New York Yankees.

Curt Schilling made his only start in the N.L.C.S. in Game #3, going the distance on a 4-hitter with 12 strikeouts while posting a 5-1 victory. Steve Finley contributed 2 hits including a double and 3 RBI, and eventual Series MVP Craig Counsell added 3 hits and scored a run. The D'Backs took a commanding 3-1 lead in the series with an 11-4 triumph in Game #4, taking advantage of 4 Atlanta errors to score 6 unearned runs. Counsell was again the focal point for the offense, collecting 3 hits with 2 doubles and 4 RBI, while Luis Gonzalez hit a 3-run homer to ice the affair in the ninth. Arizona's ticket to the World Series was punched the following night when Johnson returned to the hill and recorded a 3-2 victory over Tom Glavine. The crushing blow was a pinch-hit 2-run homer by Erubiel Durazo off of Glavine in the fifth inning to stake the Diamondbacks to a lead. Johnson and reliever Byung-Hyun Kim combined to finish off the Braves, with Kim coaxing a

2001 WORLD SERIES VS. NEW YORK YANKEES

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS (4) VS. NEW YORK YANKEES (3)

October 27-November 4, 2001

The Diamondbacks and Yankees provided a still-healing country with one of the most exciting World Series on record, with Arizona prevailing with a furious ninth inning rally in Game #7 to capture the title in just its fourth year, the fastest ever by an expansion team.

The home team won all 7 games with the D'Backs making their first-ever trip to Yankee Stadium in possession of a 2-0 series lead. The Fall Classic began with Curt Schilling and Randy Johnson teaming up for back-to-back dominating performances, as Schilling gave up just 3 hits and a run over 7.0 innings for a 9-1 win, followed the next night with a complete game 3-hitter by the Big Unit as he fanned 11 in a 4-0 triumph over the 3-time defending world champs. As was the case in the NLCS against Atlanta, the Diamondbacks took advantage of the opponents miscues to score 5 unearned runs in the opener. World Series first-timers Luis Gonzalez and Mark Grace displayed their veteran status with Gonzalez hammering a 2-run homer to chase starter Mike Mussina, while Grace, the long-time Cub, delivered a key 2-run double. Johnson made a pair of clutch hits stand up in Game #2, with Danny Bautista establishing himself with a run scoring double off of Andy Pettitte in the second inning, then Matt Williams providing the crushing blow with a seventh inning 3-run homer off the Yankee southpaw.

The scene then shifted to New York, where emotions still ran high after the tragic events of September 11. Prior to working out for the first time in Yankee Stadium, the Diamondbacks paid homage to those who perished in the attack and met with hundreds of the rescue workers and police and fire officials when the team buses traveled to Ground Zero. The focus returned to the field the following night when the latest date for a World Series game on record, October 30, began with President George W. Bush throwing out the ceremonial first pitch. It was the first time a President participated in a World Series pre-game since Dwight Eisenhower made the ceremonial toss prior to Game #1 of the 1956 series in Ebbets Field.

The Diamondbacks entered Yankee Stadium only 2 wins shy of capturing the crown, but due to the strangest of circumstances, they would return to Phoenix later in the week still seeking 2 wins. The Yankees won a trio of 1-run decisions, posting a 2-1 victory in Game #3, then recording a pair of heart-wrenching decisions the following 2 nights.

Schilling, who had downplayed the "mystique" and "aura" of Yankee Stadium, gave up just a run on 3 hits in 7.0 innings while working on 3 days rest for the first time in his career. What happened after his departure in Game #4 and the following night in Game #5 actually lent credence to the hallowed ground in the Bronx. Leading 3-1 with 2 outs and a man aboard in the bottom of the ninth inning in Game #4, Byung-Hyun Kim was tagged for a game-tying home run by Tino Martinez to send the Halloween night crowd into a frenzy at Yankee Stadium. Derek Jeter then ended the contest in the 10th inning with an opposite field fly ball into the short porch in right field off of Kim, just minutes after the clock struck midnight to end the first-ever November World Series game.

With the series tied a 2-2, the historic home of the Yankees added to its "mystique" as the New Yorkers rallied from yet another 2-run deficit with 2 outs in the bottom of the ninth inning to complete a 3-game sweep in the Bronx. Trailing by a 2-0 count entering the bottom of the ninth inning, Scott Brosius hit a game-tying home run off of Kim to send the affair to extra innings. New York then survived a bases loaded situation in the 11th before Alfonso Soriano plated the tie breaking run in the bottom of the 12th to stake the Yanks to a 3-2 lead as the series returned to the Valley. It marked the first time in World Series history that a team won 2 games in the same Series when trailing by at least 2 runs entering the ninth inning. Lost in all of the excitement was a terrific pitching performance by Miguel Batista, who fired 7.2 shutout innings and left with a 2-0 lead over Yankee ace Mike Mussina.

The Diamondbacks proved worthy to the task ahead, and took away any doubt about their resiliency with a 15-2 thumping of the Yankees in Chase Field to send the series to a deciding seventh game. Danny Bautista had 3 hits and knocked in 5 runs to lead Arizona's 22-hit attack. The D'Backs jumped all over New York for a 15-0 lead after just 4 innings, highlighted by an 8-run outburst in the third. Randy Johnson tossed 7.0 strong innings to earn the win, yet still managed to keep something in the tank for a possible Game #7 appearance.

The latest World Series ever played culminated with one of the more thrilling final games in history, as Curt Schilling and Roger Clemens dueled, the first meeting of 20-game winners in a Game #7 since John Tudor and Bret Saberhagen squared off in 1985, when the Royals defeated the Cardinals. The D'Backs took a 1-0 lead on a Bautista double in the sixth, but the Yankees answered in the seventh on a Tino Martinez RBI single. New York's Alfonso Soriano broke the tie by hitting an ankle-high pitch from Schilling into the left field seats to open the eighth inning. Schilling was removed in favor of Miguel Batista, who recorded the second out of the inning, then the Big Unit was summoned from the bullpen, less than 24 hours after his 7-inning performance in Game #6. Johnson retired all 4 men he faced in 1.1 innings which set the stage for Arizona's bottom of the ninth rally.

With Mariano Rivera on the hill and the possessor of 23 consecutive post-season saves, Mark Grace opened the bottom of the ninth with a single to center. The inning unraveled in Arizona's favor when Rivera threw wildly into centerfield on a potential force out at second base. Following a fielder's choice on a failed sacrifice attempt, Tony Womack doubled down the line in right to tie the game and leave runners at second and third with 1 out. Craig Counsell was hit by a pitch to load the bases, then Luis Gonzalez capped the remarkable rally with a bloop single over the drawn-in infield to send Chase Field and the state of Arizona into a frenzy. Johnson was credited with the win, giving him a 3-0 mark in the series, as he and Schilling was named the World Series Co-MVP's. The duo combined to go 4-0 in 6 appearances, allowing only 6 earned runs in 38.2 innings.

2001 WORLD SERIES

NOTEBOOK

- The Diamondbacks entered the World Series with Craig Counsell as the only active player in possession of a World Championship ring while the Yankees were 3-time defending champs.
- Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling were the second co-MVP's in World Series history joining the Los Angeles Dodger trio of Ron Cey, Pedro Guerrero and Steve Yeager...it marked the 20th and 21st time a starting pitcher won the award, first since Florida's Livan Hernandez in 1997.
- It was the third time in World Series history that the home team won every game, joining the Twins against St. Louis in 1987, and Twins against Atlanta in 1991.
- The Diamondbacks outscored New York 31-5 in the 4 wins, and were outscored 9-6 in the trio of 1-run losses in Bronx.
- The Diamondbacks were the fastest expansion team to get to the Fall Classic a year quicker than Florida in '97...other expansion clubs to make the World Series and the year they qualified - Mets (eighth year), Royals (12th year), Seattle Pilots/Milwaukee Brewers (14th year), San Diego (16th year), Toronto (16th year)...remaining expansion clubs that have not appeared in the Series include the Angels, Senators/Rangers, Colt 45's/Astros, Expos, Mariners, Rockies and Devil Rays.
- Arizona pitching held the Yankees to .183 team average (42-for-229), the lowest average ever in a 7 or 8 game World Series...previous low was .185 by St. Louis vs. Kansas City in 1985.
- Arizona's overall staff ERA of 1.94 was lowest in World Series play since Cincinnati's 1.70 mark in a 4-game sweep of Oakland in 1990 and lowest in a 7-game set since Kansas City had a 1.89 mark in '85 vs. the Cardinals.
- The Diamondbacks were the first team in 80 years to win the first 2 games they ever played in the World Series, the fourth team overall joining the 1914 Boston Braves, 1919 Cincinnati Reds and 1921 New York Yankees.
- The walk-off finish to game #7 was the 11th overall "sudden death" ending to a World Series, the third in a row that involved a 7-game series...the last was the '97 finish when Craig Counsell scored the tie-breaking run in the 10th inning as Florida defeated Cleveland...the other was Minnesota's 10th inning win over the Braves in the Metrodome in 1991.
- The Diamondbacks are the 19th team to win the series after trailing 3 games to 2...it was also the 11th time a team won games 6 & 7 at home.
- It was the first time the Yankees were involved in a game #7 of any post-season series since the 1964 World Series went to the limit against St. Louis.
- The Diamondbacks snapped New York's post-season series streak at 11, handing the Bronx Bombers their first series loss since the 5-game Division Series with Cleveland in 1997.
- When Curt Schilling and Roger Clemens hooked up in the final game, it marked the sixth time 20-game winners squared off in the seventh game, first since John Tudor (St. Louis) and Bret Saberhagen (Kansas City) in 1985.
- The 15-2 win in game #6 alone was worth the following tidbits:
 - ...The Diamondbacks recorded a World Series record 22 hits.
 - ...The 15 runs tied with Toronto for third highest in a World Series game.
 - ...The 13-run margin of victory tied for second best ever matching the Yankees' 16-3 win over Pittsburgh in game #2 of '60 World Series, and was the second highest ever, just behind an 18-4 Yankee win in game #2 of the 1936 win over the Giants.
 - ...The 15-0 lead after 5 innings tied the biggest lead by any team at any time in World Series game...the Yankees had a 16-1 lead in game #2 of the '60 series against Pittsburgh.
 - ...Arizona's 8-run third inning marked the best inning since game #6 of 1968 series when Detroit scored 10 times in third inning of 13-1 win over St. Louis.

2002 DIVISION SERIES VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS (3) VS. ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS (0)

October 1-5, 2002

Destiny - a word heard often during the Diamondbacks run to the 2001 World Series Championship, was also a theme during the 2002 National League Division Series, a rematch with the St. Louis Cardinals. Only this time, destiny set up shop in the opposing dugout.

The Diamondbacks, sweeping a season-ending four game series against Colorado, clinched the NL West title, and homefield advantage against the Central Champion Cardinals, who had gone through an emotionally difficult season, losing broadcaster Jack Buck and pitcher Darryl Kile during the summer. The Cardinals also had momentum, having swept Arizona in a three-game set in St. Louis the week prior to the Division Series matchup.

In that same series in St. Louis, the Diamondbacks lost outfielder Luis Gonzalez to a separated left shoulder, adding to a list of Diamondbacks injuries that included fellow outfielder Danny Bautista, infielder Craig Counsell and pitcher Brian Anderson.

The Cardinals made an early and loud statement in Game #1 at Chase Field, posting a 12-2 win. St. Louis broke a 2-2 tie in the fourth by scoring 3 times, then later tied a Division Series record with 6 runs in the seventh.

Game #2 saw a return to form for Diamondbacks pitching, with Curt Schilling locked in a duel with the Cardinals' Chuck Finley. Arizona tied the game at 1-1 in the eighth inning on Quinton McCracken's RBI double, only to have the Cardinals score the game-winning run in the ninth for a 2-1 triumph, and a 2-0 series lead.

The series shifted to St. Louis for Game Three, but a change in venue did not bring a change in Arizona's fortunes. St. Louis completed the series sweep at Busch Stadium with a 6-3 victory. The Cardinals broke a 2-2 tie in the fourth by scoring twice.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS CHRONOLOGY

1990

June 28: A bill submitted by Rep. Chris Herstam, R-Phoenix, allowing Maricopa County to assess a quarter-cent sales tax for a baseball-only stadium, passes the Arizona Legislature. The tax can be levied only after a franchise is granted.

1993

July 25: Major League Baseball talks of adding new teams. Phoenix Suns owner Jerry Colangelo gets assurance from owners that Phoenix and Tampa are the top prospects. He begins a drive for investors and a stadium.

November 10: At a jam-packed news conference at America West Arena, Colangelo announces he will put together an ownership group that will apply for a Major League Baseball expansion franchise.

February 17: Maricopa County Supervisors vote 3-1 for the stadium tax, with one abstention. Baseball owners have until April 1, 1995, to award Phoenix a new franchise, or the stadium financing deal is off.

June 17: Ellerbe Becket beats out two other finalists working on the design of the new downtown stadium. A site just south of Jefferson Street and west of Seventh Street is selected for the retractable-roof, natural-grass showplace.

November 2: At a meeting in Chicago, the expansion committee hears presentations from Colangelo and other would-be ownership groups from Orlando and Tampa-St. Petersburg and two from northern Virginia.

March 9: At a meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., baseball's owners name the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays the 13th and 14th expansion teams in Major League Baseball history. The franchises are priced at a record $130 million apiece. Richard H. Dozer is named president and Joe Garagiola Jr. becomes vice president and general manager.

March 11: Season ticket deposits are first taken at a celebration party on the plaza in front of America West Arena. Despite a soaking rain, more than 2,000 people show up to take part in the team's first official fan celebration.

April 5: The Diamondbacks finalize a deal with Bank One that will result in the new downtown stadium carrying the name of Bank One Ballpark.

August 17: The Diamondbacks unveil their first farm team, the Lethbridge Mounies, soon to be renamed the Black Diamonds, of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada in the Pioneer League.

November 15: Still two seasons away from Opening Day, the Diamondbacks have a manager. Buck Showalter, who was the American League's Manager of the Year in 1994 with the New York Yankees, leading them to a wild-card playoff spot in 1995, signs a 7-year contract that will put him in the dugout when the expansion team takes the field in 1998.

November 16: Ceremonies, including a game between two Little League teams, celebrate the groundbreaking for the Bank One Ballpark.

May 17: America West Airlines rolls out a Boeing 757 painted in a Diamondbacks' theme, with a huge baseball logo on the tail. Immediately, fans, staff, sponsors and investors climb on board and head to Denver, where they see the Colorado Rockies defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-11.

May 31: The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox jointly announce that they will share a new spring-training facility in Tucson, beginning in 1998.

June 4: Left-handed pitcher Nick Bierbrodt of Long Beach, Calif., becomes the team's first-ever choice in the amateur draft.

June 24: More than 6,000 fans turn out at Scottsdale Stadium to see the Diamondbacks' Arizona League team make its debut. Outfielder Juan Garcia homers to lead off the first inning and then adds another, but Oakland's rookie-league team wins, 15-7.

October 11: The Diamondbacks announce the signing of Olympic first baseman Travis Lee, the second overall choice in the June draft. He and three other players had been declared free agents by Major League Baseball. Three weeks later, another of the four, righthanded pitcher John Patterson, signs with Arizona.

January 16: Meeting in Scottsdale, baseball's owners vote to place Arizona in the National League's West Division.

March 3: Pitchers and catchers report to Yuma, Ariz., for the Diamondbacks' first minor league spring training camp. Players will be assigned to High Desert in the California League or South Bend in the Midwest League.

September 12: Affirming that they are a statewide team, the Diamondbacks sign a player-development contract that makes Tucson the franchise's Class AAA affiliate in the Pacific Coast League.

November 17: Jay Bell becomes the Diamondbacks' first major leaguer when he leaves the Kansas City Royals to sign a five-year contract with Arizona.

November 18: Arizona and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays each select 35 players in the MLB Expansion Draft held at Phoenix Civic Plaza. The Diamondbacks' first choice is lefthanded pitcher Brian Anderson of the Cleveland Indians.

December 1: Third baseman Matt Williams comes to the Diamondbacks from Cleveland in a headline-making trade that sends third baseman Travis Fryman and lefthanded pitcher Tom Martin to the Indians. Williams signs a five-year contract extension which commits him to Arizona through 2003.

January 10: Single game tickets go on sale for Opening Day on March 31 against the Colorado Rockies. All tickets are gone before lunch.

February 13: Pitchers and catchers take the field at Kino Veterans Memorial Sportspark in Tucson to inaugurate the Diamondbacks' first major-league spring training.

February 27: In the Diamondbacks' first Cactus League exhibition game, Edwin Diaz hits a ninth inning sacrifice fly that scores Kelly Stinnett with the winning run in a 6-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox at Tucson Electric Park.

March 20: Jerry Colangelo and county officials break bottles of sparkling water over the rotunda railings to highlight the official dedication ceremony at Bank One Ballpark.

March 29: The final exhibition game of the season serves as a trial run for Bank One Ballpark as 49,198 fans see the White Sox defeat Arizona, 3-0.

March 31: With 50,179 fans overflowing Bank One Ballpark, the Diamondbacks celebrate the first regular season game in franchise history. Colorado wins, 9-2. Travis Lee collects Arizona's first hit (a first inning single), first homer, first run and first RBI.

April 5: Arizona celebrates its first victory, a 3-2 win over San Francisco that evens Andy Benes' record at 1-1.

July 30: Omar Daal pitches the franchise's first complete game shutout, scattering four hits in a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Bank One Ballpark.

September 4: A 3-1 win over Houston gives the Diamondbacks their seventh consecutive victory, equalling the longest winning streak by any expansion team in history.

September 13: Andy Benes comes within two outs of pitching a no-hitter in a 5-0 win at Cincinnati, highlighting a September in which he was 3-0 with an 0.47 ERA. Benes ends the season with a string of 27.1 scoreless innings.

December 1: Lefthanded pitcher Randy Johnson decides to pitch in his hometown and agrees to a 4-year contract.

February 25: President Clinton visits the Diamondbacks at their spring training facilities in Tucson, visiting with players and staff members before accepting a team uniform jersey with his name and the numeral 1 on the back.

April 11: Luis Gonzalez cracks a seventh-inning homer off Atlanta's Greg Maddux, beginning a hitting streak that will last through May 18. Gonzalez is the 37th player in major-league history to reach the 30-game plateau.

April 19: Jay Bell is named National League Player-of-the-Week, becoming the first Diamondback ever to win the award. Before the season ends, he will be joined by Matt Williams (twice), Randy Johnson (twice) and Steve Finley. Williams was also NL Player-of-the-Month for April and Johnson was Pitcher-of-the-Month for July.

May 12: Matt Williams 2-run, game-winning homer caps a 5-run ninth as Arizona comes from behind for an 8-6 win over Montreal. It is the third straight night that the Diamondbacks beat the Expos with a homer in their final at bat. Jay Bell was the hero on May 10, with Luis Gonzalez doing the honors on May 11.

June 25: Bank One Ballpark plays host to its first no-hitter as then-St. Louis hurler Jose Jimenez outduels the Diamondbacks' Randy Johnson, 1-0. The game's only run scores on Thomas Howard's single in the top of the ninth inning.

Chronology (Continued)

July 9: Arizona's bullpen is solidified with the addition of closer Matt Mantei, acquired from Florida for pitcher Vladimir Núñez, pitcher Brad Penny and a player to be named later.

July 11: Jay Bell's sixth inning grand slam wins $1 million for fan Gylene Hoyle of Chandler, who predicted the player and the inning before the game as part of Shamrock Farms Grand Slam Sundae. As an afterthought, the Diamondbacks beat Oakland, 7-4.

July 13: Third baseman Matt Williams and second baseman Jay Bell become the first Diamondbacks to start an All-Star Game. Pitcher Randy Johnson and left fielder Luis Gonzalez also make appearances. No team had more representatives.

July 21: Tony Womack legs out a ninth-inning, inside-the-park grand slam off relief ace Billy Wagner to give the Diamondbacks a 7-4 victory in Houston. It is the first inside-the-park homer in franchise history.

September 24: Matt Williams scoops up Doug Mirabelli's ground ball for the final out of an 11-3 victory in San Francisco that clinches the National League West championship for the Diamondbacks. Arizona becomes the first expansion team to reach the playoffs or win a division title in its second year of competition.

September 26: An estimated 8,000 fans jam the Bank One Ballpark Plaza to greet the Diamondbacks on their return home from their sweep of the Giants.

October 3: The Diamondbacks notch win No. 100 of the year in the season finale. Bernard Gilkey and Rod Barajas hit back-to-back home runs in a 10-3 win over San Diego at Bank One Ballpark.

October 5: In the team's first post-season appearance, Arizona drops an 8-4 decision to the New York Mets. Edgardo Alfonzo's ninth-inning grand slam, his second homer of the night, makes the difference.

October 6: Todd Stottlemire scatters 4 hits over 6.2 innings to help the Diamondbacks notch their first post-season win, 7-1, Steve Finley's two-run single in the third puts Arizona ahead to stay.

October 9: Arizona's season ends when Todd Pratt homers in the bottom of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory in Game Four of the NL Division Series.

November 11: The Diamondbacks earn their first Gold Glove Award when Steve Finley is honored as one of the National League's top fielding outfielders.

November 16: After leading the major leagues in strikeouts, innings pitched and complete games, Randy Johnson gives the Arizona franchise its first major individual trophy by winning his second Cy Young Award.

2000

April 11: Randy Johnson is selected co-National League Player-of-the-Week, sharing the honors with Montreal's Vladimir Guerrero. Johnson was also selected N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month for April.

May 31: Arizona turns its first-ever triple play, in the fifth inning of a home game with St. Louis. With the bases loaded and nobody out, the Cardinals' Mark McGwire hit a fly ball to center, which was caught by Steve Finley, who then fired to home plate, where catcher Damian Miller tagged Placido Polanco, then threw to third base, where shortstop Tony Womack tagged out Edgar Renteria.

July 5: Luis Gonzalez becomes the first Diamondback to hit for the cycle, accomplishing the feat in Houston with a ninth-inning home run in a 12-9 Diamondbacks win.

July 11: Pitcher Randy Johnson and outfielder Steve Finley represent the Diamondbacks at the All-Star Game in Atlanta. Johnson is the starting pitcher for the National League, while Finley enters the game as a defensive replacement as singles home a run in his only at-bat.

July 20: The first-ever weekday matinee at Bank One Ballpark ends in dramatic fashion, as Tony Womack's two-run homer in the ninth gives Arizona a 3-2 win over St. Louis, in front of 40,937 fans.

July 24: The Diamondbacks defeat the Cleveland Indians, 12-7, in the Hall of Fame Game at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown. Minor league outfielder Luis Terrero was named the game MVP collecting 2 hits with a double and 2 runs.

July 26: Curt Schilling is acquired from Philadelphia for Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla, and Travis Lee. Two nights later, Schilling scatters 6 hits over 8.0 innings, leading the Diamondbacks to a 4-1 win at Florida.

September 10: Randy Johnson becomes the 12th pitcher in major league history to record 3,000 career strikeouts with a fourth inning strikeout of Florida's Mike Lowell at Pro Player Stadium. Earlier in the game, Johnson records his 300th strikeout of the season, joining Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers to collect 300 strikeouts in three consecutive seasons.

October 2: Buck Showalter is dismissed as manager of the Diamondbacks.

October 30: Former major league catcher and broadcaster Bob Brenly is named Diamondbacks manager.

November 7: Outfielder Steve Finley wins his second consecutive Gold Glove award, his fourth award overall.

November 14: Randy Johnson wins his second consecutive National League Cy Young Award, becoming the eighth pitcher in history to win the award three times.

December 8: Free agent first baseman Mark Grace signs a two-year contract with the Diamondbacks. Grace comes to Arizona after 13 seasons with the Chicago Cubs.

April 3: The Bob Brenly managerial era opens with the Diamondbacks defeating Los Angeles, 3-2.

April 26: Luis Gonzalez sets a National League record and ties Ken Griffey Jr.'s Major League record for home runs in the month of April by hitting his 12th and 13th round-trippers in a 13-6 victory over Atlanta...Gonzalez also earns National League Player of the Month honors.

May 8: Randy Johnson ties a Major League record with 20 strikeouts over 9.0 innings. Johnson did not get the decision, as the Diamondbacks scored 3 runs in the bottom of the 11th for a 4-3 win over Cincinnati. The performance later earns him co-National League Player-of-the-Week honors for the week of May 7-13.

May 29: Erubiel Durazo's game-winning RBI double in the top of the 18th gives Arizona a 1-0 win at San Francisco in the longest game, by innings, in franchise history. The marathon comes one day after the two teams played a 12-inning contest, with the Diamondbacks also coming out victorious.

June 4: Curt Schilling is named National League Pitcher-of-the-Month for May, after going 5-1, with a 2.35 ERA.

June 8: Luis Gonzalez ties a club record with 3 home runs in a game, one to each field, as the Diamondbacks defeat the Royals in Kansas City, 11-4.

June 17: Tony Womack's grand slam in the fourth inning sparked an 8-3 Father's Day home win over Detroit. It was an emotional moment for Womack, as his father had passed away two months earlier.

July 2: Luis Gonzalez earns his second National League Player-of-the-Month award of the season, after hitting .417 in June, with 12 home runs and 35 runs batted in.

July 19: Randy Johnson sets a major league record for strikeouts by a relief pitcher, fanning 16 San Diego Padres in a 3-0 Diamondbacks win. The relief appearance was necessitated when a transformer blew at San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium the night before, suspending play in the bottom of the second inning. Johnson had been scheduled to pitch the next day, and took over for starter Curt Schilling when the game resumed.

August 12: Junior Spivey becomes the fifth rookie in the last 50 years to record a pair of 5-hit games, as Arizona completes a sweep of the Braves in Atlanta, winning 9-1. Spivey's first 5-hit game came June 21 in Colorado.

August 19: Arizona completes a sweep of the Chicago Cubs to extend its winning streak to a club record-tying 9 games.

August 23: Randy Johnson becomes the first pitcher in major league history to record four consecutive 300-plus strikeout seasons, recording his 300th strikeout of the 2001 season in Pittsburgh.

August 30: Steve Finley becomes the first position player to pitch in a Diamondback game, tossing a scoreless ninth inning against San Francisco.

September 5: Curt Schilling becomes the first 20-game winner in club history, defeating the Giants, 7-2, in San Francisco. Schilling is also the season's first 20-game winner.

September 8: Matt Williams' walk-off 2-run homer in the tenth gives Arizona an 8-6 win over San Diego. Steve Finley ties the game in the ninth with his second home run of the game, ending reliever Trevor Hoffman's streak of 27 consecutive save conversions.

September 11: Tragedy strikes America, as terrorist attacks in New York, Washington D.C. and Pennsylvania lead to a postponement of baseball for one week. The games are rescheduled for the week following the original end of the regular season, which pushes the World Series into November for the first time.

September 27: Randy Johnson becomes a 20-game winner for the second time in his career, as he defeats Milwaukee at Bank One Ballpark. During the same game, Johnson ties a major league record by recording his 23rd double-digit strikeout game of the season, the third consecutive season he has recorded 23 double-digit strikeout games. Johnson also joins Schilling as the first 20-game winning teammates since 1999.

September 28: Luis Gonzalez' 54th home run of the season comes in the bottom of the 11th inning, giving Arizona a crucial 4-3 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

October 5: Behind the complete-game, 3-hitter by Albie Lopez, the Diamondbacks clinch a tie for their second National League West Division crown in 3 years, blanking the Brewers in Milwaukee, 5-0. Later that night, San Francisco loses at home to the Dodgers, giving the Diamondbacks the title outright.

October 9: The Diamondbacks open the National League Division Series with a 1-0 victory over St. Louis, behind the complete-game, 3-hitter by Curt Schilling.

October 12: Craig Counsell's 3-run homer in the seventh gives the Diamondbacks a dramatic 5-3 victory over the Cardinals in St. Louis, and a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five Division Series. St. Louis attempts to rally in the ninth, but falls short as pinch-hitter Mark McGwire grounds into a game-ending double play.

October 14: Tony Womack's ninth-inning single scores Danny Bautista with the game-winner as the Diamondbacks post their first-ever playoff series win, defeating the Cardinals 2-1 in Game #5 of the Division Series. Curt Schilling tosses his second complete game of the series, limiting the Cardinals to six hits, while striking out nine.

October 16: The Diamondbacks are victorious in their first-ever National League Championship Series game, defeating Atlanta in Phoenix, 2-0. Randy Johnson ends a personal 7-game post-season losing streak with a complete-game 3-hitter.

October 19: Arizona takes a 2-1 lead in the best-of-seven series with a 5-1 win in Atlanta. Curt Schilling throws a complete-game 4-hitter, and singled and scored as part of a 3-run fifth inning.

October 20: Arizona explodes for 12 hits en route to an 11-4 victory over the Braves, to take a 3-1 series lead. The Diamondbacks capitalize on 4 Atlanta errors.

October 21: The Diamondbacks become the fastest team to reach the World Series, winning the National League pennant in their fourth year of existence by defeating the Braves 3-2 in Turner Field, winning the NLCS. Craig Counsell is named series Most Valuable Player, after hitting .381 in the series. Randy Johnson wins his second game of the series, with Byung-Hyun Kim recording his second save with 2.0 scoreless innings of relief. Erubiel Durazo's 2-run, pinch-hit homer in the fifth inning is the game-winner.

October 27: The World Series comes to Arizona, as the Diamondbacks open the Fall Classic with a 9-1 victory over the American League Champion New York Yankees. Curt Schilling limits New York to 3 hits over 7.0 innings, while Craig Counsell and Luis Gonzalez each homered.

October 28: Randy Johnson tosses a 3-hit shutout and strikes out 11 in his first World Series appearance, as the Diamondbacks defeat the Yankees 4-0 to take a 2-0 series lead. Matt Williams' 3-run homer in the seventh inning breaks open a pitcher's duel between Johnson and Andy Pettitte.

November 3: After dropping 3 heartbreaking games in New York, the Diamondbacks respond with a 15-2 blowout of the Yankees, sending the World Series to a decisive seventh game. Arizona scored early and often, including a Fall Classic record 8 runs in the third. Randy Johnson goes 7.0 innings to pick up his second victory of the series, while Danny Bautista goes 3-for-4 with 5 RBI.

November 4: The Diamondbacks complete one of the most dramatic World Series in history, and become the fastest team to win a World Championship, by defeating the Yankees 3-2 in the seventh and deciding game. Luis Gonzalez' looping single just beyond shortstop Derek Jeter's grasp scores Jay Bell with the series-winning run. Randy Johnson comes on in relief to pick up his record-tying third Series victory. Johnson and fellow pitcher Curt Schilling are named World Series co-Most Valuable Players.

November 7: Over 400,000 people line the streets of Downtown Phoenix for a parade honoring the World Champion Diamondbacks. Following the parade, over 50,000 people pack Bank One Ballpark for a celebration rally.

November 13: Randy Johnson wins his third consecutive National League Cy Young Award, and the fourth of his career. Johnson collects 30 of the 32 first-place votes, with the other 2 going to teammate Curt Schilling, who finished second.

December 13: The Diamondbacks are the guests of President George W. Bush at the White House. Earlier in the day, the team is treated to a tour of the United States Capitol by Arizona Senator John McCain. President Bush congratulates the Diamondbacks and thanks them for giving the country something to take its mind off the tragedy of the September 11th terrorist attacks.

February 5: The Diamondbacks sign 18-year old Tetsuya Yamaguchi to a minor league contract, the first Japanese amateur player signed by Arizona.

April 26: Randy Johnson wins his 6th straight start to open the year, eventually winning Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for April.

May 17: Erubiel Durazo, in only his second game back from a spring training wrist injury, breaks the club RBI record and ties the home run mark...he hits three 2-run home runs and adds a 3-run double in the eighth inning.

May 29: Curt Schilling improves to 10-1 on the year with the 7-3 win at San Francisco...he adds to the offense, going 2-for-4 with a run scored...his performance on the mound secures Pitcher-of-the-Month honors, going 5-0 with a 2.80 ERA during the month of May.

June 8: Curt Schilling pushes his club-record winning streak to 9 victories as he out-pitches Pedro Martinez at Fenway Park, 3-2.

July 9: Bob Brenly guides the National League squad at the All-Star Game in Milwaukee, WI...joining him at Miller Park are his entire coaching staff, with Robin Yount serving as the A.L.'s honorary captain...Curt Schilling got the starting nod and pitched 2.0 shutout innings...Damian Miller tied an All-Star Game record with 2 doubles...Junior Spivey, Luis Gonzalez and Byung-Hyun Kim also played, while Randy Johnson was selected by bypassed the game.

July 13: Byung-Hyun Kim ties the club record with his third save in as many days...he also notches his first Player-of-the-Week honors for July 11-14.

3.6 MILLION VISIT BANK ONE BALLPARK DURING INAUGURAL SEASON

After years of dreaming, and a three-year building process, Arizona finally entered Major League Baseball on March 31, 1998, as the Diamondbacks played their inaugural game against the Colorado Rockies in Bank One Ballpark. Andy Benes was the first-ever starting pitcher, and Travis Lee produced the franchise's first base hit and home run. The first win for the Diamondbacks occurred on April 5, with a 3-2 victory at home over San Francisco after the club opened up with 5 consecutive losses. The belief that Arizona was ready for the majors was validated at the box office, as the Diamondbacks played to 21 sellouts at Bank One Ballpark, and drew a total of 3,602,856 fans.

Arizona, like all expansion teams, struggled out of the gate, losing 31 of its first 40, but under manager Buck Showalter's guidance, the Snakes shed the look of an expansion team, and eventually tied a major league expansion team record by putting together a 7-game winning streak in early September.

The year was highlighted by players who came to Arizona from different paths. Free agency brought Jay Bell, who hit 20 home runs, while a trade on the night of the Expansion Draft brought Devon White, who led the club with 85 RBI and 22 stolen bases while tying Lee for the club lead in home runs with 22. Benes, who was signed as a free agent, posted a 14-13 record, with the 14 wins tying Tampa Bay's Rolando Arrojo for most wins by an expansion pitcher.

The Expansion Draft produced pitcher Omar Daal, whose 8-12 record was deceiving, considering his 2.88 earned run average, infielder Tony Batista, who hit 18 home runs, and outfielder David Dellucci who hit .260 while playing in 124 games. Reliever Gregg Olson, signed by the club as a minor league free agent, ended the season as the club's Pitcher of the Year, earning 30 saves, the second highest total in Major League expansion history.

Arizona gained national notoriety in an 8-7 win at San Francisco on May 28. With an 8-6 lead, two out in the bottom of the ninth and the bases loaded, Showalter elected to intentionally walk Barry Bonds, bringing home a run to cut the lead to 8-7. The move paid off, as Olson got Brent Mayne to line out to right to ice the win.

Interleague play was highlighted by a late June home series with Seattle, in which outfielder Yamil Benitez hit two dramatic homers. The first was launched 452 feet into Friday's Front Row, then 2 days later, Benitez hit a game-winning solo home run in the ninth, giving Arizona 2 of 3 against the Mariners. Benitez had made his way into the record books 2 weeks earlier, clubbing his first career grand slam on June 9 vs. Anaheim. In the top half of the same inning, Cecil Fielder also hit a slam, the sixth time ever that each team hit a grand slam in the same inning.

White and Lee represented the Diamondbacks at the annual All-Star Game, with White going 3-for-3 with a triple in the mid-summer classic in Denver, and Lee participating in the Rookie Skills Competition. Daal produced the first complete-game shutout in team history on July 30, blanking the Cubs on 4 hits.

Arizona posted a 13-16 record in August, with Olson saving 6 of the 13 wins. The highlight victory of the month occurred in the nightcap of a doubleheader in Philadelphia. After losing the opener 11-1, the Diamondbacks scored 5 times in the top of the ninth to tie the second game at 9-9, with White's three-run homer in the 11th producing a 12-9 victory. White drove in 5 runs in the contest, the third of 5 5-RBI games during the season.

By September, the Diamondbacks had left their first 40 games behind them, and played more like a contender. Not only did they split the 24 games played in the season's final month, 2 of the wins came at the expense of the Giants, who were battling for the National League Wild Card spot. Brian Anderson tossed a 1-0 shutout at Pittsburgh on September 3, while Benes posted a 3-0 record and 0.47 ERA for the month. Olson picked up 7 more saves, including his 200th career save on September 7. The month, and the inaugural season, ended with the Diamondbacks taking 2 of 3 games from the eventual National League champion Padres.

1999 - FASTEST TO FIRST DIVISION CROWN (100-62, FIRST IN N.L. WEST)

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

DIAMONDBACKS DOMINATE BY 14 GAMES WITH 100-WIN SEASON... BIG UNIT CAPTURES CY YOUNG AWARD

The Diamondbacks' commitment to winning produced historic results in 1999, becoming the fastest team to go from expansion to post-season, winning 100 games and the National League West in their second year of existence.

The foundation was laid during the winter, when the club made a series of free agent signings and trades to transform the roster. Randy Johnson, Todd Stottlemire, Armando Reynoso, Steve Finley, Greg Colbrunn and Greg Swindell were signed as free agents while G.M. Joe Garagiola Jr. made trades to acquire Luis Gonzalez and Tony Womack.

With new talent surrounding them, returning veterans Jay Bell and Matt Williams flourished. Bell led the club with 38 home runs, while Williams hit 35 and drove in 142. Finley added 34 homers and 103 RBI. Gonzalez had a breakout season, batting .336, with 26 home runs and 111 RBI. Womack, who had led the National League in stolen bases the prior two seasons in Pittsburgh, topped the majors with 72 thefts, 1 shy of Arizona's team total in the inaugural season of '98.

Johnson, who returned to the National League midway through 1998, going from Seattle to Houston, anchored a pitching staff that posted a 3.77 ERA. The Big Unit led the majors with 364 K's and the league with a 2.48 ERA to procure his first N.L. Cy Young Award, second of his career. Omar Daal had a career season with a 16-9 record and 3.65 ERA, while Reynoso went 10-6.

Even with all the new talent, it took time for the Diamondbacks to gel, going 13-11 in April after a 1-5 start. Included was a 16-inning, 5-hour, 14-minute marathon against the Dodgers on April 13, highlighted by Kelly Stinnett's pinch-hit home run in the bottom of the 16th to tie the game at 6-6, and Dante Powell's game-ending RBI single. On April 11, Gonzalez began a hitting streak that would last 30 games, while Williams earned N.L. Player-of-the-Month honors, batting .357, with 8 homers and 25 RBI.

Arizona's fortunes turned in May as the club was 18-10, going from third place when the month began to a 3 1/2-game advantage by the end of May. Gonzalez continued his torrid hitting streak, a streak that ended in San Francisco on May 20. The marquee wins of the month were 3 consecutive victories at home over Montreal on May 10-12, all coming on home runs. Jay Bell ended the first game of the series in the ninth inning, then Luis Gonzalez was the hero in the middle game, extending his hitting streak with a 10th inning walk-off shot, followed in the series finale by Matt Williams, who capped the sweep of the Expos with a bottom of the ninth blast. Travis Lee's second grand slam of the season keyed a 7-3 win in San Francisco on May 18, putting Arizona alone in 1st place for the first time in franchise history. One setback in May occurred the night before Lee's grand slam, as pitcher Todd Stottlemire was diagnosed with a partial tear of the right rotator cuff on the 17th.

The Diamondbacks struggled through June as their offense hit a collective slump. The low point came on June 25, when St. Louis righthander Jose Jimenez pitched the first no-hitter in Bank One Ballpark history. To make matters worse, Arizona wasted a strong effort by Johnson, who allowed just a run on 5 hits, while striking out 14. The lone run of the game came in the 9th inning. Things didn't get much better for the Big Unit over his next 3 starts as he was blanked each time out, giving the opposition 4 consecutive shutout victories over Johnson to tie a major league record, while the D'Backs were no-hit, 1-hit, 2-hit and 3-hit in succession.

With the All-Star break approaching, Garagiola worked some trade magic by making a dramatic move to improve Arizona's bullpen on July 9, acquiring closer Matt Mantei from Florida in exchange for pitchers Vladimir Nunez, Brad Penny and a player to be named. Mantei's first appearance as a Diamondback came 2 days later, as he earned the save in a 7-4 victory over Oakland in the final game before the break. That was also the day that Jay Bell won $1 million for a fan by hitting a tie-breaking grand slam in the fifth inning, the player and the inning that was predicted by that fan.

Out of the break, the Diamondbacks embarked on an 8-game road trip that proved to be the turning point of their season. On July 20, with Arizona just 4 games above .500, and 2 1/2 games out of first, Johnson took the mound against his former teammates in Seattle's new Safeco Field, and tossed an 8-hit shutout for a 6-0 Arizona win, the first-ever shutout in the Mariners' new home. The win sparked a run that saw the Diamondbacks post a 51-17 record over the season's remaining 68 games. It also started a run that saw the D'Backs win 10 out of 11 to close out the month.

Just 2 nights after Johnson's performance in Seattle, the Diamondbacks recorded another key victory as Tony Womack hit an inside-the-park grand slam off of Houston's Billy Wagner in the Astrodome to stake Arizona to a come-from-behind win. It was the first inside-the-park homer in franchise history.

Johnson was named National League Pitcher-of-the-Month for July, despite posting a 2-3 record. During the month, Johnson's ERA was 1.13, and he recorded 64 strikeouts.

The winning continued in August, as Arizona posted streaks of 5, 4 and 6 games, en route to a 20-8 record for the month, the best monthly mark in club history to date. Most impressive was that the majority of the winning occurred on the road, as Arizona took 5 out of 6 on a trip to Philadelphia and Chicago, and 6 out of 7 on a swing through Pittsburgh and Florida. Gonzalez led the offensive charge, batting .342 for the month, with 7 home runs and 24 RBI. In his first full month with the club, Mantei recorded 7 saves, allowing just 1 earned run over 10.1 innings pitched. By the end of August, the Diamondbacks' lead in the National League West had ballooned to 7.5 games. August also saw the return of Stottlemire, who opted not to have surgery on his torn rotator cuff. Instead, an intense rehab program put Stottlemire back on the mound in Pittsburgh on August 20, and he notched the first win after his return 5 days later in Florida.

Matt Williams hammered 35 home runs and drove in 142 to assist in leading the Diamondbacks to the fastest post-season qualification in expansion history.

Nothing changed in September, as Arizona took complete command of the race with a 19-7 finish. Fate played a part in the Diamondbacks' fortunes on September 5, as Arizona defeated Atlanta 7-5, when a 3-run, ninth inning rally was sparked when Stinnett reached first base after striking out on a wild pitch that had appeared to end the game.

Arizona passed the 1962 Los Angeles Angels as baseball's most successful second-year team by posting its 87th win of the season on September 13th over Pittsburgh. A season of remarkable firsts was capped on the night of September 24th, as the Big Unit pitched a complete-game, 11-3 win at San Francisco to give the Diamondbacks the N.L. West crown. Johnson was 3-0 in September, while Andy Benes posted a 4-1 mark. Matt Mantei added 6 more saves, and the Diamondbacks as a team batted .301.

The first major league free agent acquired by the Diamondbacks, Jay Bell led the club with a career-high 38 homers in 1999 and was voted by the fans to start in the All-Star Game in Boston.

The Diamondbacks' first trip to the post-season was a brief, but dramatic Division Series against the Wild Card New York Mets. After dropping the opener 8-4, Arizona bounced back to even the series behind a gutsy performance from Stottlemire, who limited the Mets to 4 hits over 6.2 innings, while Steve Finley drove in 5 runs in a 7-1 victory. The series then shifted to New York, where the Mets took Game #3, 9-2, then won the series on Todd Pratt's home run to center, just out of the reach of a leaping Finley, to take a 4-3, 10-inning victory.

Gonzalez led the National League in hits with 206 while finishing second in the batting race (.336) and second in doubles (45). Bell closed the year second in runs scored (132), while the foursome of Gonzalez, Bell, Finley and Williams all eclipsed the 100-RBI mark, the seventh time a quartet achieved that mark in league history. Johnson's Cy Young campaign included league leading totals in innings (271.2), complete games (12), ERA (2.48) and strikeouts per 9-innings (12.06).

Bell, Williams and Finley each earned National League Player-of-the-Week honors during the season, as did Johnson, who won the award twice. Finley earned his third career Rawlings Gold Glove, the first-ever for the Diamondbacks' franchise. Bell, Williams, Johnson and Gonzalez represented Arizona at the All-Star Game in Boston, with Bell and Williams becoming the first Diamondbacks to be voted into the National League starting lineup.

2000 - LATE TAILSPIN SEALS FATE (85-77, THIRD IN N.L. WEST)

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

D-BACKS FINISH 12 GAMES OUT... JOHNSON WINS SECOND STRAIGHT CY YOUNG AWARD

A season of high expectations ended in frustration, as the Diamondbacks suffered through a series of injuries, winding up third in the National League West with an 86-76 record. The day after the regular season ended a change was made as manager Buck Showalter was relieved of his duties on October 2. He was replaced at the end of the month by former big league catcher and Diamondbacks broadcaster Bob Brenly.

The cast that made up the 1999 National West Champions was virtually unchanged as spring training began, but the first sign that things would be different in 2000 occurred during the final game of the exhibition schedule when third baseman Matt Williams fouled a pitch off his right foot, breaking the second metatarsal. He then suffered a right quadriceps strain during a rehab assignment in late May in El Paso, forcing him to go back on the disabled list. All told, Williams, who had been the cornerstone of the Diamondbacks offense during its first 2 seasons, would play in just 96 games, and not truly regain his form offensively until the final month of the season. Closer Matt Mantei also opened the season on the disabled list with tendinitis in his right biceps.

In spite of injuries, the Diamondbacks opened with their strongest start in history, going 16-9 in April to jump to a 1 1/2 game lead in the division. Randy Johnson was 6-0 with a tiny 0.91 ERA in April, earning National League Pitcher-of-the-Month honors, just the third pitcher in history to win 6 games before May 1. The Big Unit wound up winning a second consecutive Cy Young Award from the BBWAA. Todd Stottlemyre, still pitching with a partial tear in his right rotator cuff, went 4-1 during the initial month. Luis Gonzalez led Arizona's power numbers with 8 home runs, while Erubiel Durazo opened the year by batting .333 in 22 games.

The Diamondbacks also made a pair of "discoveries" prior to the 2000 campaign, signing 40-year-old righthanded pitcher Mike Morgan as a non-roster invitee to spring training, and signing infielder Craig Counsell after he had been released in March by Los Angeles. Morgan came on in relief of Stottlemyre on April 5 to pitch 4.0 shutout innings in an 11-3 victory over Philadelphia, to earn his first save in 9 years, and finished the month with 4 saves, 1 more than his previous career total. The club also bolstered its bench in a mid-June trade that brought outfielder Danny Bautista from Florida in exchange for utility man Andy Fox.

Arizona reeled off a 9-game winning streak in May, as well as an 11-game home winning streak, as they continued to pace the N.L. West. Womack assembled a career-best 24-game hitting streak, leading the club in batting for the month with a .347 mark. Steve Finley clubbed a franchise-record 9 home runs in May, while driving in 31. The Diamondbacks' starting pitching, in particular its top 2 pitchers, continued to dominate, with Johnson going 3-1 and Stottlemyre posting a 4-2 mark. For the first 2 months of the season, Johnson and Stottlemyre had combined to post a 17-3 mark. Meanwhile, Mantei had returned to the 15-day D.L. due to shoulder weakness, opening the door for Byung-Hyun Kim, who had come to the Diamondbacks in 1999 from Korea and assumed the closer's role by posting 5 saves and a 2-1 record.

The final game of May saw the Diamondbacks record their first-ever triple play, in the fifth inning of a home game against St. Louis, as Steve Finley took a fly ball to center, threw in to catcher Damian Miller to tag Placido Polanco at the plate, with Miller firing to Tony Womack covering third for the tag on Edgar Renteria.

The Diamondbacks' injury problems continued to mount during a 13-14 month of June, including a 3-9 road mark, and a 5-game losing streak during a road trip to Texas and Chicago. Williams, Durazo and Stottlemyre all ended up on the D.L., with Stottlemyre's injury being the most painful. During the first inning of the June 25 game at home against Colorado, Stottlemyre was forced to leave due to an inflamed right elbow. This, after Stottlemyre had been on the D.L. earlier in the month due to tendinitis. Stottlemyre would eventually miss all of July and August, making just 4 starts in September before undergoing season-ending elbow surgery on September 26. Durazo had been bothered throughout the early portion of the season by a right wrist injury that required surgery on May 30. After appearing in 3 games at the end of June, Durazo returned to the D.L., and played in just 5 games in August before undergoing another wrist operation on August 24.

In an effort to bolster the offense, the Diamondbacks brought up infielder Alex Cabrera, who, like Durazo, had been discovered by the club in the Mexican League. Cabrera had been so dominant at both AA El Paso and AAA Tucson that he was named Howe Sportsdata's Minor League Player-of-the-Year, despite appearing in just 74 games. He made his major league appearance one for the record books, as he homered in his first trip to the plate, off of Houston's Yorkis Perez. It marked the 78th time in Major League history a player had hit a home run in his first career at-bat, and just the 13th time it had happened in a pinch-hitting role.

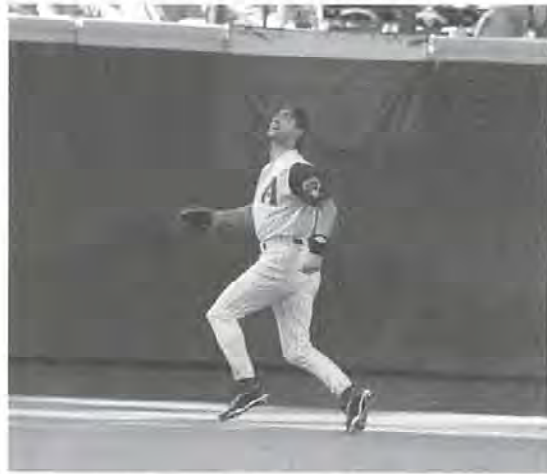

The Diamondbacks continued to struggle in July, winning just one home series during the month. Randy Johnson's 4-2 win at Oakland on July 9 gave Arizona a 52-39 record and 2 1/2-game lead in the division at the All-Star break. Out of the break, Texas and Seattle combined to take 5 out of 6 from the D-backs at Bank One Ballpark. The lone victory during that stretch came courtesy of righthanded pitcher Geraldo Guzman. In his second major league start, Guzman limited the eventual A.L. West champs to five hits in a 7-0 victory. After sweeping a 2-game set from St. Louis, Arizona dropped 6 of its next 9 games. Still clinging to the division lead, Arizona made a blockbuster trade on July 26, obtaining pitcher Curt Schilling from Philadelphia for infielder Travis Lee and pitchers Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla. The following night, Arizona enjoyed its most productive offensive night of the season, using 19 hits to defeat the Cardinals in St. Louis, 17-5. On July 28, Schilling made his Arizona debut, limiting the Marlins to six hits in a 4-1 win at Florida.

August provided both a reprieve and the ultimate undoing of the Diamondbacks in 2000. Arizona reeled off a 7-game winning streak in the middle of the month that included series sweeps in Philadelphia and at home against the Cubs. Schilling and Johnson both tossed complete games in the Chicago series, but even with the winning streak, the Diamondbacks were unable to get back into first, still sitting a half-game out after the Cubs left town. It was the next series, a 3-game home set with Milwaukee, that proved to be the beginning of the end. The Brewers pulled off a stunning sweep, including a defeat of Schilling in the series finale. Greg Colbrunn, playing at first base after Durazo's injury, responded by hitting .425 in August, while Steve Finley hit .330 with 6 home runs. Lefthander Dan Plesac went 3-0 out of the bullpen, with a 1.08 ERA.

A September swoon ended the Diamondbacks hopes of a second consecutive division title. Atlanta's 3-game sweep at Turner Field early in the month pushed the Diamondbacks 8 games behind red-hot San Francisco in the N.L. West. The Big Unit eased some of the pain on September 10, when he notched his 3,000th career strikeout at Florida. However, even a run at the Wild Card faded when the Diamondbacks were swept in a 3-game set in the middle of the month at Los Angeles, as the Dodgers scored only 4 runs in pulling off the sweep. The Diamondbacks scored once in the series opener, then were blanked over the final 19 innings of the series.

As had been the case the year before, the National League West crown was decided in San Francisco, only this time it was the Giants doing the celebrating in a win over the Diamondbacks. San Francisco's 8-7 victory in the series opener at Pac Bell Park gave the Giants the title, although Arizona ended up winning 3 games in the 5-game set.

A finally healthy Matt Williams turned in his best month of the season in September, batting .315 with 6 home runs and 20 RBI, while Craig Counsell, who had seen his playing time increase due to Tony Womack's knee injury, batted .357. Matt Mantei also rebounded to post saves in 6 of the club's 12 September victories, allowing opponents to bat just .118 over 10.0 innings.

Despite the struggles, the Diamondbacks earned their share of post-season honors. Johnson earned his second consecutive National League Cy Young Award, posting a 19-7 record, with a 2.64 ERA (second in the National League), while striking out a league-leading 347 batters, and tying teammate Schilling for the league lead in complete games with 8. The Big Unit tied Greg Maddux for the N.L. lead in shutouts with 3, and limited opponents to a .224 batting average. Steve Finley overcame late season injuries to earn his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove. Johnson and Gonzalez were selected National League Player-of-the-Week during the season, with Gonzalez taking the honors twice. Johnson earned the starting assignment for the National League in the All-Star Game in Atlanta, with Finley also being selected as a reserve. In November, Johnson and Gonzalez were among 28 members of the Major League Baseball All-Star team that made an 8-game tour of Japan, defeating a team of Japanese All-Stars in the series.

Shadow Mountain High School graduate, Curt Schilling, is acquired from the Phillies in a 5-player exchange on July 26.

2001 - WORLD TITLE LANDS IN ARIZONA (92-70, FIRST IN N.L. WEST - WORLD SERIES CHAMPS)

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

BRENLY'S TROOPS DEFEAT YANKEES IN SEVEN-GAME THRILLER... JOHNSON/SCHILLING CO-WORLD SERIES MVP'S

A season that began full of question marks ended with the most emphatic exclamation point imaginable as the Diamondbacks went from potential contender in the spring of 2001 to Champions of the first World Series ever staged in the month of November.

New manager Bob Brenly wanted a more relaxed atmosphere for a clubhouse still comprised of mostly veteran players, and he was aided in that cause by the winter signing of free agent first baseman Mark Grace. The longtime Chicago Cub was brought in to not only solidify the Diamondbacks' infield, but to bring a fresh attitude to a team that had bogged down under the weight of high expectations and mounting injuries the year before.

The Diamondbacks also sought to improve an offense that had struggled throughout 2000. In addition to Grace, who had led the majors in hits during the decade of the 1990's, Arizona signed outfielder Reggie Sanders, who brought with him a booming bat that had been slowed by injuries the season prior while a member of the Atlanta Braves. Arizona would also benefit from a full season's production of 2 of the game's most dominant pitchers, Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling. Still, the experts had the Diamondbacks pegged anywhere from first to third with a lot of concerns about age as the season began.

In the season's first month, Arizona started slowly. After giving their new manager a win in the season opener at Los Angeles and a series win by taking 2 of 3 from the Dodgers, the Diamondbacks returned home, only to be swept in a 3-game set by St. Louis.

The night after the Cardinals series, Diamondback fans were treated to a classic pitcher's duel, as Curt Schilling bested Kevin Brown and the Dodgers, 2-0, in a game that took only 1 hour and 55 minutes to complete.

Sanders roared out of the starting gates, batting .344 in April, hitting 8 home runs, including a walk-off shot on April 20 to beat Colorado. The next day, Sanders hit his first career grand slam as part of a 2-homer game in a 10-5 Diamondback win. Sanders' power output paled in comparison to teammate Luis Gonzalez, who tied a major league record by hitting 13 home runs in the month, earning National League Player-of-the-Month honors in the process. The pitching staff was bolstered by Schilling, who went 3-0 in April, and by a surprising face, righthander Robert Ellis. A non-roster invitee in the spring, Ellis stepped into the starting rotation after injuries claimed Bobby Witt and Brian Anderson, and posted a 3-0 record, including a 6.0 inning effort in a 2-1 debut win at St. Louis on April 16.

Injuries, which had derailed Arizona's pennant hopes in 2000, became a factor again as closer Matt Mantei suffered a capsule strain of the right elbow on April 25. The injury eventually required season-ending "Tommy John" surgery.

Randy Johnson added yet another accomplishment to an already long list on the night of May 8, when he struck out 20 Cincinnati Reds at Bank One Ballpark to tie a major league record for 9 innings of work. Johnson, however, was not involved in the decision, though the Diamondbacks pulled out a 4-3 win in 11 innings.

The Diamondbacks hit their stride in May, going 18-10, including a 13-6 mark at home. Arizona moved from third place at the start of the month to first place in the N.L. West by month's end. The key was an 8-2 record against division competition, and the start of a 9-game winning streak that would go into June. Gonzalez continued to sizzle at the plate, batting .339 for the month, with 7 home runs, and Grace drove in 23 runs while hitting .345. In addition to Johnson's record-setting performance, Arizona pitchers had a strong month overall, setting team monthly records for runs allowed (88) and ERA (2.75). Rookie Bret Prinz, called up to replace the injured Mantei, picked up 4 saves while recording a 0.82 ERA. Schilling also continued to dominate, going 5-1 for the month.

Near the end of May, Arizona was locked in the longest game in franchise history, an 18-inning marathon in San Francisco, that was scoreless until Erubiel Durazo's RBI double in the top of the 18th just after 1:00 a.m.

All-Star outfielder and World Series hero Luis Gonzalez keeps an eye on one of his club record 57 home runs in 2001.

A winning streak against division foes that began in late May carried into June, as Arizona reeled off 9 in a row, all against N.L. West foes. An 18-9 record in June pushed Arizona to a 6-game lead in the N.L. West. Gonzalez earned his second National League Player-of-the-Month Award of the still not half over season, batting .417 with 12 home runs and 35 driven in. In the process, Gonzalez set team monthly records in 6 offensive categories. His performance was highlighted by a 3-homer game on June 8 in Kansas City, hitting roundtrippers to each part of the outfield, Rookie infielder Junior Spivey, called up earlier in the month, tied a club record with a 5-hit game at Colorado on June 21.

Johnson and Schilling combined to go 9-1 for the month, while as a team, Arizona hit .300. The D-backs tied a team record with 12 home wins in June.

As strong as they were in June, the Diamondbacks found an equal amount of trouble in July, going 11-15. The club went into the All-Star Break on a downward slide, losing 5 out of 6, including being swept at home by Oakland, a series in which Arizona managed just 2 runs. It took a Danny Bautista leadoff single in the eighth to break up Mark Mulder's bid for a perfect game in the series opener, while Tim Hudson and Barry Zito continued the dominance in the remaining games. An 11-game road trip out of the break saw the Diamondbacks go 6-5, yet their division lead shrunk to 1 1/2 games, and the lead turned into a deficit after Arizona was swept in a 4-game home set by San Francisco. After beating Montreal on July 31, Arizona stood a half-game out of the lead.

Johnson remained a steady force during the month, and continued to make history. On July 18, Arizona's game at San Diego had to be suspended when a transformer in Qualcomm Stadium exploded. The game was resumed as part of a doubleheader the next day, with Johnson coming on in "relief" of Curt Schilling. Johnson struck out 16 Padres, setting a major league record for most strikeouts in a relief appearance. In addition, the Big Unit limited the Padres to 1 hit over 7.0 innings in a 3-0 Diamondbacks win. For the month, Johnson went 3-0. The closer's role had been given to righthander Byung-Hyun Kim, who picked up 4 saves. It was another strong month at the plate for Gonzalez, who batted .310 with 9 home runs.

In an attempt to bolster a pitching staff hit by injuries, the Diamondbacks acquired righthanded pitcher Albie Lopez from Tampa Bay on July 25.

Johnson, Schilling and Gonzalez were selected to the National League All-Star Game, and Gonzalez was selected to participate in the Home Run Derby the night before the midsummer classic in Seattle. Gonzo, who had been voted by fans to the N.L. starting lineup, knocked off Sammy Sosa in the finals to take home a surprise victory. Schilling had been selected by N.L. Manager Bobby Valentine to start the game, but citing the fact he would be pitching in Anaheim 3 days later, deferred to Johnson, who made his second consecutive start, and the eighth appearance of his career.

With the season hanging in the balance, Arizona righted itself in August, and the night of August 10 can be targeted as the specific date things got put back on track. After dropping 2 out of 3 in Florida, and with a weekend series with the Braves in Atlanta next, Curt Schilling delivered a masterpiece, blanking the Braves on 6 hits over 7.0 innings, with Spivey and Grace both collecting 2 hits in a 7-0 win. Arizona went on to sweep the 3-game set, with Spivey delivering another 5-hit game in the series finale, becoming the 50th rookie all-time to have a pair of 5-hit games in his first season.

Danny Bautista slides head-first at home plate on Tony Womack's game-ending single that staked the Diamondbacks to a 2-1 victory over the Cardinals, propelling Arizona into the NLCS against Atlanta.

The Diamondback logo took on a patriotic look behind home plate at Bank One Ballpark following the tragedies of September 11, 2001.

Johnson hit the record books again in August, becoming the first pitcher in history to have 4 consecutive 300-plus strikeout seasons by fanning his 300th victim on August 23 in Pittsburgh. Johnson went 5-1 for the month, coupled with Schilling's 4-1 mark. The pitching staff set monthly records in strikeouts (227) and fewest home runs allowed (20). Gonzalez and Sanders each hit 10 homers in the month, with Sanders batting .322. By month's end, the Diamondbacks were back in first place by 4 games.

A pair of heartbreaking 1-run losses in San Diego opened September, but baseball took a back seat on September 11 due to the terrorists attacks. A week-long postponement of games would push the regular season into the first week of October. When play resumed on September 17, the Diamondbacks' game at Colorado was both a game and somber tribute to those who had lost their lives and the public servants who put their lives on the line to help others. On the field, Arizona maintained a steady lead on San Francisco, despite dropping 2 of 3 at Pacific Bell. The lone win was Curt Schilling's 20th of the season, making him the franchise's first 20-game winner. Johnson followed him on September 27, making the duo the first 20-win teammates since 1999.

Luis Gonzalez' magic season continued, as he became the 26th player in history to go over 400 total bases in a season on September 29. The night before, Gonzalez' 11th inning walk-off homer gave Arizona a huge 4-3 win over Los Angeles.

The Diamondbacks used the final week of the season, rescheduled due to the terrorist attacks, to clinch their second N.L. West title in 3 years. After a 3-game home sweep of the Rockies, the club traveled to Milwaukee, where Albie Lopez tossed a 3-hit complete-game for a 5-0 victory. Later, much later that night (1:00 a.m. local time), the Giants lost at home, giving the Diamondbacks the title. After an emotional rollercoaster of a season, and the events that shook the nation, Arizona and its fans had been through plenty. The ride, however, was just getting started.

Arizona defeated St. Louis in the Division Series, 3 games to 2, beat Atlanta in the National League Championship Series, 4 games to 1, and became the fastest team to win a World Series, defeating the New York Yankees in a classic confrontation, 4 games to 3. This historic week climaxed on Sunday, November 4, when Luis Gonzalez looped a single over a drawn-in Yankee infield to cap a 2-run ninth inning rally off of Mariano Rivera and to set off the celebration and bring the Valley of the Sun its first major sports championship.

The series was credited with giving the nation a much-needed break from the tragedy, and reaffirmed baseball's place in the fabric of the country. In addition to being able to raise the Commissioner's Trophy, Diamondback pitchers Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling ended a season in which they dominated as few pitching duos ever had, by being named World Series co-Most Valuable Players.

The accolades continued days later, as the club treated 300,000 fans to a parade through Copper Square, leading to a championship celebration in a packed Bank One Ballpark. In mid-November, Johnson received his third consecutive National League Cy Young Award. Luis Gonzalez earned the Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Award, and as the World Champions, the Diamondbacks capped their phenomenal season with a visit to the White House to meet President George Bush on December 13.

2002 - THIRD DIVISION CROWN IN FIVE YEARS (98-64, FIRST IN N.L. WEST)

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2002 Season

LATE-SEASON INJURIES CONTRIBUTE TO EARLY FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF EXIT... JOHNSON LANDS FOURTH STRAIGHT CY YOUNG HONOR

With hardly a chance to catch its collective breath, the Arizona Diamondbacks entered 2002 as baseball's defending World Champions, intent on making it two titles in as many years. Unfortunately, the injury bug bit hard and the Diamondbacks stayed afloat long enough to clinch a third National League West crown, but found themselves eliminated in three straight games of the Division Series against the St. Louis Cardinals.

Knowing that standing pat would mean falling behind, the Diamondbacks made moves to bolster its pitching depth, signing free agent righthanded starter Rick Helling, and trading for lefthanded relief specialist Mike Myers. Helling, who had been Texas' staff ace the past four seasons, was set to join a starting rotation that already featured that dominant duo of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, while Myers would be used to go against left-handed hitters in late-game situations.

However, as had been the case two years before, injuries would dictate the fortunes of the 2002 D-backs, and, like 2000, it started in the spring.

Third baseman Matt Williams, who had battled various injuries the previous two seasons, but had rebounded to be a productive force in the 2001 World Series, broke his left fibula while taking ground balls on February 25 in Tucson. The injury would keep Williams out of action until July 10. In the meantime, Craig Counsell stepped in and thrived in his new role as everyday third baseman. Counsell hit .292 in the season's first month, while providing stellar defense at the hot corner.

Jay Bell also went down with a right calf injury in the spring, clearing the way for Junior Spivey to become a bonafide star. Spivey, who was expected to open the season at Tucson (AAA), instead became the everyday second baseman. He opened the season by batting .323 in April, while tying for second in the National League in doubles, and placing himself in the top ten in multi-hit games, hits, extra-base hits and hit-by-pitches. Damian Miller also had a strong April with 22 RBI's in the first month. Johnson and Schilling picked up where they left off, with Johnson posting a 6-0 mark, and Schilling going 5-1. Johnson earned the National League Pitcher-of-the-Month award for April, becoming the first pitcher ever to post 6 wins prior to May 1 in 2 different seasons (1999).

Schilling turned in April's pitching highlight, tossing a 1-hitter at Milwaukee on April 7, while striking out 17. Johnson also had a 17-strikeout game on April 21 against Colorado, marking the first time teammates had 17-K games in the same season. While Byung-Hyun Kim notched 5 saves in the closer's role, Myers also picked up a pair of his own. As a team, the Diamondbacks were tied with Los Angeles for the N.L. West lead at month's end, with a 16-10 mark.

Arizona took sole possession of the division lead in May, posting an 18-10 ledger that included a 12-5 record at home, closing out the month by taking 6 of 10 games from their closest pursuers in the N.L. West. Schilling earned National League Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for the third time in the last 4 seasons by posting a 5-0 record with a 2.80 ERA. Spivey continued his torrid hitting, batting .333 for the month with 4 home runs, while moving into a tie for the league lead in triples. Erubiel Durazo, who had missed the first 6 weeks of the season with a broken wrist, made an immediate impact on the club when he returned. In his second game back on May 17, Durazo hit a trio of 2-run homers against the Phils, while setting team records in RBI (9) and total bases (14).

The injury bug bit yet again on May 22, when Danny Bautista suffered a season-ending shoulder injury just months after earning the everyday role thanks to his 2001 post-season work.

June was a month of extremes. At the beginning of the month, the Diamondbacks swept an interleague series at Boston's Fenway Park on a road trip that included a return to Yankee Stadium, where Arizona salvaged the final game of a 3-game set. By the end of the month, the club needed wins in 2 of 3 games at Cleveland to earn a split of a road trip in which they had dropped 2 of 3 in Houston.

Quinton McCracken, signed as a minor league free agent in the spring, saw increased playing time due to the Bautista injury, and responded with a .403 batting average for the month. Matt Mantei returned to active duty after missing over a year due to "Tommy John" surgery, making his first appearance June 28 at Cleveland.

The All-Star break was just what the D-backs needed. After entering the break 2 1/2 games out of first, Arizona posted a 14-6 mark for the remainder of July, and used the club's first-ever 7-0 homestand to move back into first place by 5 games. The Diamondback pitching staff reeled off a 31-inning scoreless streak during the homestand, while Luis Gonzalez batted .340 for the month.

Arizona took control of the division race in August with a 19-10 mark, including a 10-4 road record, highlighted by a 4-game sweep of the Mets at Shea Stadium. Consecutive sweeps of Florida and Cincinnati led to an 8-game winning streak. Curt Schilling's win over the Cubs on August 16 made him a 20-game winner for the second consecutive year, while Byung-Hyun Kim went 3-0 with 6 saves. However, another player was lost to injury, as infielder Craig Counsell was sidelined on August 9 due to a pinched nerve in his neck. The injury eventually required season-ending surgery.

Curt Schilling recorded a career-high 23 wins and joined Randy Johnson as the only teammates in history to achieve 300 strikeouts in the same season.

The Big Unit stood tall once again, delivering the first "Triple Crown" of his major league career, leading the league in wins, ERA and strikeouts to earn his fourth consecutive Cy Young Award.

September was difficult and costly, as the Diamondbacks struggled to clinch their third division title in four years, with yet another injury adding to the difficulty. Luis Gonzalez suffered a separated shoulder while attempting to make a sliding catch of a foul ball of the bat of former high school teammate Tino Martinez on September 23 in St. Louis. Just two days earlier, lefthanded pitcher Brian Anderson was sidelined for the remainder of the campaign with a broken bone in his left foot. The N.L. West title was finally claimed on the next-to-last day of the season with a home win over Colorado, marking the first time the Diamondbacks were able to clinch a division crown in front of the home fans.

During the month, Steve Finley collected his 2,000th career hit, and Schilling joined Johnson on the 300-strikeout list for the season, marking the first time in baseball history that one team had a pair of 300-strikeout pitchers.

Battered and bruised, the Diamondbacks could not match up against St. Louis in the Division Series and were swept in three straight.

Johnson's career best 24-5 record earned him a fourth consecutive National League Cy Young Award, only the second pitcher in major league history to win 4 in a row, joining Greg Maddux (1992-95). During the season, Johnson moved from ninth to fourth on baseball's all-time strikeout list, and joined Schilling as the first teammates to win at least 23 games. Schilling, Gonzalez, Spivey and Damian Miller joined manager Bob Brenly and his coaching staff on the National League All-Star team in Milwaukee. Johnson was selected, but chose not to attend to rest a sore back and prepare for the second half of the season.

2003 - "BABY BACKS" EMERGE IN INJURY-PLAGUED YEAR (84-78, THIRD IN N.L. WEST)

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

D-BACKS RECORD FIFTH CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASON... JOHNSON & SCHILLING MISS SIGNIFICANT TIME WITH INJURIES

It has been said that a baseball season is a marathon, not a sprint. The greatest evidence of that can be found in the 2003 Arizona Diamondbacks, who rode a roller coaster of emotions, history-making streaks and heart-breaking setbacks. In the process, they gave their fans, and all of baseball, a look at the future, while maintaining a commitment to win in the present.

One of the major themes of the year, as it had been in 2002, was injuries, and it didn't take long for that factor to come to the forefront. On Opening Day, reliever Bret Prinz was lost due to a strained right groin. That day's starting pitcher, Randy Johnson, went on the disabled list April 12 due to an inflamed right knee, an injury that would eventually require surgery.

Fellow starting pitcher Curt Schilling was also bitten hard by the injury bug. Schilling went on the disabled list on April 18 due to an emergency appendectomy, then went back on the shelf at the end of May with broken bone in his pitching hand. The bullpen lost Mike Koplove and Matt Mantei for extended periods, with Koplove missing the final 3 1/2 months of the season.

Among position players, it was even worse. Infielder Craig Counsell required right thumb surgery in May, and would miss two months. No fewer than 4 players, including 3 starters, went down in the month of June alone. In all, 646 games were missed by 16 players, 8 pitchers and 8 position players, at various points during the 2003 season.

As a result, the Diamondbacks leaned heavily on a farm system that had been cultivated over 7 years by General Manager Joe Garagiola Jr. and his staff. That system produced in a way that no one outside of the Diamondbacks offices ever predicted or gave the organization credit for.

A total of 13 rookies made their debut in Diamondbacks uniforms in 2003, the fifth-highest total of first-year players in the majors, yet many of those players took a team that had struggled through the first two months of the season, and helped lift Arizona into contention for a third consecutive National League West Division title. The most impressive contribution was made by a trio of righthanded pitchers who solidified a staff searching for consistency after two of the top pitchers in the game - Johnson and Schilling - went down.

Brandon Webb made 28 starts after being called up from Tucson, posting a 10-9 record and a dazzling 2.84 ERA. Webb held opposing hitters to a paltry .212 average, third-best in the National League. He opened his career with 13 consecutive "quality" starts, the most to open a Major League career since Montreal's Steve Rogers had 16 in 1973. Jose Valverde literally came to Arizona's rescue after Matt Mantei went down with a shoulder injury, contributing 9 saves in 9 chances in June to earn National League Rolaids Pitcher of the Month honors. Oscar Villarreal, who made the club out of spring training, established a National League record for appearances by a rookie with 86, also setting a club record, while his 10 wins in relief broke Gregg Olson's 1999 team record, and tied Webb for the most wins by a Diamondback rookie.

Around the infield, Matt Kata displayed his versatility, as did youngster Alex Cintron, who just missed qualifying as a rookie by a matter of days. Catcher Robbie Hammock made an impression offensively with a .282 average, and defensively with his ability to not only handle a pitching staff, but also to play at several other positions, including third base and the outfield.

With a revolving door attached to the 25-man roster, the Diamondbacks stumbled out of the gate, dropping 11 of their first 14 games. The club hovered just below the .500 mark for the first two months of the year. At the end of May, Garagiola engineered a trade designed to jump-start a stagnant offense, sending right-handed pitcher Byung-Hyun Kim to Boston for infielder Shea Hillenbrand. An American League All-Star in 2002, the Mesa Community College product's arrival coincided with a surge that would see the Diamondbacks vault back into contention.

Area product Shea Hillenbrand was acquired from the Red Sox in late-May and provided punch to the lineup.

Arizona posted a 20-6 mark in June, highlighted by a club-record 12-game winning streak that began on June 18 in Houston. By the time it ended on July 1 in Colorado, the Diamondbacks were 9 games above .500, had shaved 5 games off their deficit in the division, and a week later would be in second place.

The club would remain in second place for the next 6 weeks, but would lose ground to the division-leading Giants. Over a stretch of 11 games in mid-July, Arizona dropped 6 of 7 to San Francisco, including a 4-game sweep in Pac Bell Park, effectively ending the Diamondbacks' chances at an N.L. West 3-peat.

The pursuit of the Wild Card remained, and near the trading deadline, the Diamondbacks acquired slugging outfielder Raul Mondesi from the New York Yankees in exchange for pitcher Bret Prinz, outfielder David Dellucci, and minor league catcher Jon-Mark Sprowl. Ironically, the trade occurred as Arizona was being swept in Florida by the eventual World Champion Marlins in a series in which the need for Mondesi was evident, as the Diamondbacks plated only 4 runs in the 3 games.

While Arizona remained a factor in the Wild Card race, they could never sustain enough momentum to overtake the Marlins or Phillies, who traded the coveted post-season spot through the final 2 months of the regular campaign.

A mid-September surge kept the Diamondbacks in the Wild Card race until the final week of the season, and insured the club of its fifth consecutive winning season, one of only three National League clubs that can lay claim to that distinction.

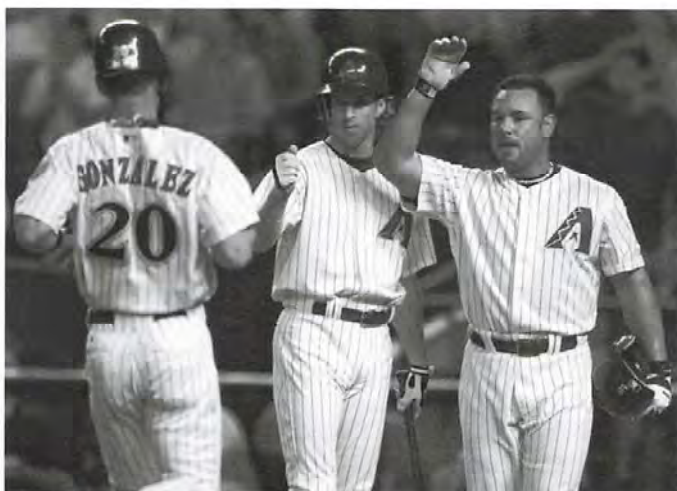

Alex Cintron led the "Baby Backs" attack by establishing himself as an everyday player, hitting .317 with 13 home runs in 117 games

Brandon Webb won Baseball America's Rookie-of-the-Year award and finished third in the BBWAA balloting, going 10-9 with the National League's fourth best ERA at 2.84.

2003 also marked the end of two of baseball's great playing careers. In early June, Matt Williams ended his 17-year career in a Diamondbacks uniform, with his last at bat a pinch RBI single in San Diego to help Arizona beat the Padres on May 31. He was designated for assignment and subsequently released to make room for Hillenbrand. Prior to the final series of the regular season, Mark Grace announced his intention to retire after a 16-year Major League career, going 2-for-3 in his final start on September 27, and appearing as a defensive replacement a day later.

Garagiola wasted little time in revamping the Arizona roster for 2004, with an eye towards adding more power to the offense and giving more opportunities to the young players who had distinguished themselves over the summer. Pitcher Curt Schilling was dealt to Boston on November 28 for pitchers Casey Fossum and Brandon Lyon, then just 3 days later, slugger Richie Sexson and pitcher Shane Nance were acquired from Milwaukee in exchange for 6 players.

Luis Gonzalez is greeted at home plate by Steve Finley and Carlos Baerga after one of his team-leading 26 home runs in 2003.

2004 - LONG SUMMER LEADS TO OFF-SEASON OVERHAUL (51-111, FIFTH IN N.L. WEST)

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

BIG UNIT'S PERFECT GAME IN ATLANTA HIGHLIGHTS OTHERWISE TOUGH SEASON

As the saying goes, "change is inevitable," and for the Arizona Diamondbacks, 2004 marked a dramatic series of changes that affected the organization from the front office to the dugout.

The season began with high hopes and expectations, as first baseman Richie Sexson, obtained in a trade with Milwaukee, was expected to add punch to an offense that lacked power the year before. However, injuries nearly wiped out every phase of the Diamondback attack.

After a slow start, the club began to show its potential during a late-April home series against the Chicago Cubs. Arizona won the first two games of the three-game set by a combined score of 19-1. Sexson capped the fireworks in a 9-0 series opening win by clobbering a 503-foot homer off of Bank One Ballpark's Jumbotron. It was the longest home run in B.O.B. history, but as it turned out, it was the last Sexson would hit as a D'Back.

Two nights later, a check swing resulted in Sexson suffering a partial dislocation of his left shoulder. The slugger attempted to come back in late May, but re-aggravated the injury in his second game back at Florida, forcing season-ending surgery.

Sexson wasn't the first Diamondback to head to the disabled list. Second baseman Roberto Alomar fractured his right hand in mid-April in Milwaukee. After Sexson, two vital parts of the bullpen, Oscar Villarreal and Matt Mantei, both had their seasons ended in mid-May. At the end of May, infielder Matt Kata suffered a left shoulder dislocation diving for a ball at Dodger Stadium. More injuries followed, as the Diamondbacks scrambled to keep 25 players in uniform.

With the players Arizona counted on to contribute on the field filling up the disabled list, the young players on the farm waiting for an opportunity got their chance. Third baseman Chad Tracy made his Major League debut in Milwaukee on April 22, going 4-for-8 in an 11-9, 15-inning win. Fellow infielder Scott Hairston spent four days in early May with the big club, then rejoined the D-backs for the remainder of the season a week later. In June, Hairston played at Baltimore against his brother, Jerry Jr., going 2-for-5 at Oriole Park in Camden Yards on June 8, including a double that his brother had to track down in left field.

Outfielder Luis Terrero went from batting .313 at Tucson to leading the Diamondbacks in stolen bases (10) and bunt hits (6). Alan Zinter, who had logged over 1,500 games in the minor leagues, played in 28 contests for the Diamondbacks, highlighted by a walk-off, two-run homer to give Arizona a 9-8, 11-inning win over Milwaukee on September 28.

Once Sexson went down, Shea Hillenbrand was asked to move from third to first base, and as he learned a new defensive position, his offense remained steady. Hillenbrand led the club with a .310 batting average, while driving in a team-leading 80 runs. Hillenbrand became the focal point of the offense when the club dealt outfielder Steve Finley, along with catcher Brent Mayne, to the Los Angeles Dodgers, for a trio of young players, led by catcher Koyie Hill. Ironically, Hill was lost for the season due to injury when he fractured his right ankle in a collision with Pittsburgh's Ty Wigginton on August 17th.

Once again, the Diamondbacks were forced to look to the farm, and Chris Snyder came up from El Paso (AA) to handle the bulk of the catching duties, while hitting 5 home runs.

On the mound, righthander Greg Aquino took advantage of an opportunity presented when Jose Valverde went on the disabled list in mid-June and emerged as the club's closer with a team-leading 16 saves, best among National League rookies. Aquino was part of a bullpen where change was the only constant. A total of 19 pitchers served in relief roles, led by righthander Mike Koplove's 76 appearances.

Randy Johnson celebrates his perfect effort on May 18 in Atlanta, the 17th perfect game in Major League Baseball history and first-ever no-hitter in Diamondback history.

The starting rotation also went through change, but not at the top. Randy Johnson added more to an already stellar resume, notching three significant milestones. On May 18, the 40-year-old lefthander tossed the 17th perfect game in Major League history by shutting down the Braves in Atlanta. Six weeks later, Johnson's strikeout of San Diego's Jeff Cirillo in the eighth inning made him just the fourth pitcher in Major League history to strikeout 4,000 batters. On September 15th, Johnson moved into third place on the all-time strikeout list and passed Steve Carlton for most strikeouts by a lefthanded pitcher when he fanned Colorado's Vinny Castilla in the seventh inning.

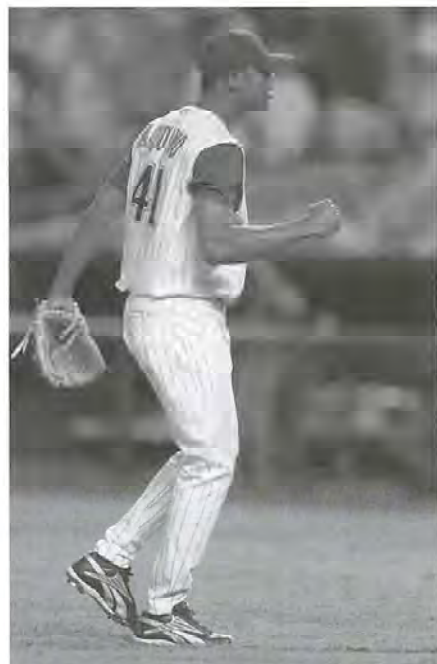

Through all the struggles his team had on the field, Johnson had a year worthy of Cy Young consideration, posting a 16-14 record. His ERA of 2.60 was second in the National League, and he led the Majors with 290 strikeouts.

The rest of the rotation struggled as the offense was often unable to back up strong efforts. Righthander Brandon Webb's sophomore year was a prime example of the problem. Webb's won-loss record of 7-16 stood in contrast to his 3.59 ERA.

As was the case with position players, the struggles of the starting rotation created opportunities for youngsters who showed promise. In particular, lefthander Michael Gosling, who joined the club in September and went 1-1 with a 4.62 ERA. Gosling's win came in St. Louis on September 19th, a 3-2 victory over the eventual National League champions.

Change wasn't limited to the playing roster. On July 2nd, Bob Brenly was dismissed as manager and replaced by third base coach Al Pedrique. Five weeks later, Jerry Colangelo announced he would be leaving his post as Chief Executive Officer at season's end, to be replaced by Jeff Moorad.

Diamondbacks' management quickly worked to change the team's immediate fortunes, eventually naming Bob Melvin, the club's bench coach during its World Championship season in 2001, as manager. Melvin's coaching staff would include former Diamondback Jay Bell as bench coach.

Greg Aquino recorded a rookie club record 16 saves in his first-ever big league experience.

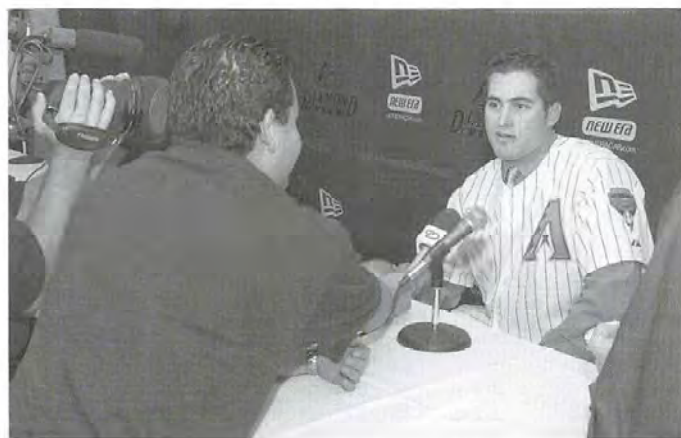

Chad Tracy was one of the bright spots in a tough year for Arizona, batting .285 in 143 games during his rookie season.

TEAM HISTORY & RECORDS

The roster also got an immediate boost from the signings of free agent infielder Troy Glaus, righthanded pitcher Russ Ortiz and infielders Royce Clayton and crowd favorite Craig Counsell, a member of Arizona's back-to-back N.L. West championship clubs in 2001-2002, including MVP honors in the '01 National League Championship Series against Atlanta.

The transformation was not limited to the calendar year of 2004, as this past January the D-backs added outfielder Shawn Green, obtained in a trade with the Los Angeles Dodgers. The acquisition of Green completed a series of transactions that also landed All-Star pitcher Javier Vazquez and promising lefthander Brad Halsey, while the Randy Johnson era ended in Arizona as he was dealt to the New York Yankees. The Diamondbacks also signed free agent lefthanded pitcher Shawn Estes, first baseman Tony Clark and acquired Jose Cruz, Jr. from Tampa Bay in exchange for Casey Fossum.

Arizona's busy off-season of revamping the roster kicked off with the signing of Troy Glaus, who was introduced at a Bank One Ballpark press conference on December 9.

2005 - D-BACKS REBOUND FOR SECOND PLACE FINISH (77-85, SECOND IN N.L. WEST)

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

BOB MELVIN RETURNS TO VALLEY AS MANAGER AND ENGINEERS A 26-GAME REVERSAL OF FORTUNE

To understand the significance of the 2005 Arizona Diamondbacks, you only need to look back one year. The 2005 Diamondbacks took on a different look, from players to manager to coaching staff, and produced a 26-game improvement in the win column. A team that was mired in the basement of the National League West in 2004 stood in first place on the last day of July. Despite finishing the campaign 77-85, the nightmare of the previous year was wiped away by a team that finished in second place, five games behind the eventual division-winning Padres.

Bob Melvin returned to the organization as Manager, and found a roster that had dramatic improvements in terms of run production and defense. Free-agent Troy Glaus led a power-laden attack with 37 home runs and 97 runs batted in. He was far from a solo act, as Arizona 6 different players who hit 20 or more home runs.

On the mound, Arizona saw a dramatic improvement in several areas. Starters won 21 more games over a year ago. Three different closers earned double-digit saves. Four more shutouts were thrown. A lot of that can be tied to an improvement in team defense. The D-backs turned 32 more double plays than they had in 2004, and they were one of four teams in the National League to finish tied for second with a .985 fielding percentage. To put it more bluntly, Arizona fielders, led by the middle infield combo of shortstop Royce Clayton and second baseman Craig Counsell, committed 45 fewer errors.

Counsell was joined by first baseman Tony Clark as two of the best stories of the 2005 Diamondbacks. Rejoining the team that helped him earn Most Valuable Player honors in the 2001 National League Championship Series, Counsell did exactly what many expected him to do in stabilizing the infield defense. What he added at the plate was career-highs in home runs (9) and stolen bases (26). Counsell proved to be an ideal leadoff hitter, reaching base in 121 of his 149 games.

Clark was perhaps the steal of the winter in terms of free agents. Signed just three weeks before the opening of spring training camp, Clark finished second on the squad in batting (.304), home runs (30) and RBI (87), while playing most of the first half of the season in a reserve role. Clark joined teammate Alex Cintron and Cincinnati's Jacob Cruz as the majors' top pinch-hit home run hitters, each with 3.

The real steal of the season, however, was the waiver claim the Diamondbacks made on June 3, picking up righthander Claudio Vargas from Washington. As a Diamondback, Vargas went 9-6, including a stretch of 11 starts from June 21-August 18, in which he went 7-2 with a 2.82 ERA.

Righthander Javier Vazquez, obtained from the Yankees in the Randy Johnson trade, made 33 starts for Arizona, going 11-15. Vazquez established a club record with a streak of 220 consecutive batters faced and 54.1 innings pitched without allowing a walk from April 25-June 9.

The Diamondbacks started strong, using a 6-game winning streak in to move into first place on April 27. Glaus hit 7 home runs in the month while driving in 18. Outfielder Luis Gonzalez drove in 16, while batting .300. Righthander Brandon Lyon emerged as a strong closer, saving 10 games in 13 appearances.

They spent the next month battling San Diego for the top spot in the NL West, never falling farther behind than 3.0 games on the final day of the month. May also featured a strong 10-game road trip in which Arizona won 7 games.

The Diamondbacks struggled overall in the month of June, but 2 of their 9 wins in the month came during the club's first-ever visit to Chicago's south side, winning a 3-game series against the eventual World Champions. The 2 wins were both blowouts, with Arizona outscoring the White Sox by a combined score of 18-5.

Craig Counsell returned to the Diamondbacks and served as the everyday leadoff man, setting a career-high with 26 stolen bases.

Arizona maintained second place throughout July until winning three out of four at Wrigley Field at month's end to move into a first-place tie with two months of baseball left. During that same series, Conor Jackson made his Diamondback debut. The heralded prospect, who had dominated at the plate throughout his ascension through the club's farm system, had an RBI double in his first Major League start on July 30 in a 3-2 Arizona win.

August proved to be the month that sealed the Diamondbacks' fate in 2005. A 13-game road trip through Florida, Atlanta, St. Louis and Cincinnati, coupled with being swept in a 4-game series at home by the New York Mets put the club 6 1/2 games behind the Padres. The final month of the season was spent fighting off the Giants and Dodgers. The D-backs reeled off a season-high 7-game winning streak during the final week of the season and recorded 10 wins in the final 12 affairs to secure a second place finish.

Claudio Vargas joined the Diamondbacks in June as a waiver claim from the Nationals and posted 9 wins.

One other area of improvement, not so coincidentally, was health. After over 1,500 missed games due to player injuries in 2004, that number was cut by nearly two-thirds in 2005.

Lyon missed 3 months due to a right elbow strain, and with him gone, Jose Valverde, a member of the 2003 "Baby Backs" returned to the closers role, and responded by notching a team-leading 15 saves. Starting pitchers Shawn Estes and Russ Ortiz both 2 months each, with Ortiz going on the DL for the first time in his 8-year Major League career.

The Diamondbacks also said farewell to the franchise's first General Manager in 2005, as Joe Garagiola, Jr., left in mid-August to accept a Vice Presidency with Major League Baseball. Bob Gebhard, the Senior Vice President and Special Assistant to the General Manager and former General Manager of the Colorado Rockies, took over the reigns on an interim basis to closeout the '05 regular season.

On October 28, the club named Josh Byrnes as Senior Vice President/General Manager. Byrnes, who arrived in Arizona after serving as Assistant General Manager with the Boston Red Sox, and his newly-formed staff immediately went to work, turning over a roster that witnessed the acquisition of switch-hitting catcher, Johnny Estrada, and Rawlings Gold Glove infielder, Orlando Hudson, as well as marking the return of Miguel Batista to Arizona. Byrnes also accommodated Javier Vazquez's wintertime trade request by moving him to the Chicago White Sox for righthanded starter Orlando "El Duque" Hernandez, righthanded reliever Luis Vizcaino and minor league outfielder Chris Young.

2006 - A LOOK AT THE FUTURE (76-86, FOURTH IN N.L. WEST)

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

WEBB HAS ALL-STAR YEAR, AWARDED WITH NL CY YOUNG AWARD AND HUDSON CAPTURES ANOTHER GOLD GLOVE

Transition – a word used often in sports but hard to identify as it takes place, was fully evident for the D-backs in 2006, as familiar names said goodbye, and new names belonging to exciting players with tremendous potential started to make the first of what is hoped to be many memories.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS

NEW BRAND OF BASEBALL
2006 SEASON

As with any team, the Diamondbacks were boosted by their pitching. Righthanded starter Brandon Webb began the year with a 4-0 April, while Claudio Vargas had 2 starts in which he did not allow an earned run. Overall, a 12-13 record through the season's first month kept Arizona within 3 games of the NL West lead.

The club surged in May, moving 8 games above .500 by month's end, including a homestand in which they won 8 consecutive games, and narrowly missed a 9-0 run by losing the finale 9-8 to Cincinnati. Later in the month, Arizona took 7 of 9 at Chase Field, recording series wins over San Diego and Atlanta, and a 3-game sweep of the Pirates. Arizona then recorded back-to-back shutouts of the Reds at Great American Ballpark, moving 10 games over .500 for the first time since July 20, 2003. One of the two blankings was registered by Webb, who improved his record to 8-0 with a complete game 7-hitter.

May ended with one of the top pitching matchups of the year in the Major Leagues, as Webb matched 8.0 scoreless innings against the Mets' Pedro Martinez. Ironically, neither figured in the decision, as the Mets took a 1-0, 13-inning victory.

The club bolstered its bullpen on May 24 by acquiring righthanded reliever Jorge Julio from the New York Mets for righthanded starting pitcher Orlando Hernandez.

June started strong, with a four-game sweep of the Braves in Atlanta, completing a 7-3 road trip. Newly acquired Jorge Julio moved into the closers role during that series, earning 2 saves. However, as was the case in 2005, the majority of the month was a struggle. Back-to-back series sweeps in Phoenix by the Phillies and Mets started the downward spiral. The club was also swept by the Rangers, Devil Rays and Mariners, with only a win over the Angels slowing the slide.

As soon as June ended, Arizona's fortunes immediately improved. The final day of the month saw the club return to its winning formula of strong starting pitching and timely hitting to defeat the A's in Oakland, 6-4. The following day, July started with Miguel Batista holding the A's spellbound with a perfect 6.0 innings, enroute to a 7-2 win. The next day, Webb matched Batista with a complete game as the Diamondbacks completed the sweep, 3-1.

Webb was Arizona's lone representative on the National League All-Star Team for the midsummer classic in Pittsburgh. He pitched a 1-2-3 fourth inning, retiring Derek Jeter (strikeout), Alex Rodriguez and David Ortiz.

Out of the All-Star break, a 6-3 homestand put the Diamondbacks back above .500, and back in the thick of the NL West race. The first game was a mixture of good and bad news. While the club did score 2 in the bottom of the ninth to beat Milwaukee, 4-3, infielder Craig Counsell suffered a right rib fracture. The next night, 2004 first-round draft pick Stephen Drew made his Major League debut. Five days later, the Diamondbacks unveiled more of their future as outfielder Carlos Quentin made his first appearance in the big leagues.

Arizona could not sustain a long string of wins in August, but the month did feature several memorable moments. On August 15, the club played its second 18-inning game in franchise history, and as was the case in San Francisco in 2001, Arizona took the victory, beating the Rockies in Denver, 2-1. Ten days later, pitcher Brandon Lyon made his first-ever big league plate appearance, drawing a 15th inning walk in a 9-7 win over the Dodgers. Lyon also picked up the win in the five-hour marathon.

The Diamondbacks again went the trade route in an effort to bolster its pitching staff in August, picking up veteran righthander Livan Hernandez from the Washington Nationals for two minor league pitchers. Hernandez made his Diamondbacks debut on August 11, and added to his reputation as a big game pitcher by posting a 3-1 record with a 2.65 earned run average over a five-start stretch from September 8-29. Later in August, Arizona dealt outfielder Shawn Green to the New York Mets.

The Diamondbacks gradually fell back in the race in September, compounded by a road sweep at the hands of the Washington Nationals. After splitting the first two games against the Marlins in Florida, Arizona was no-hit by Anibal Sanchez, the second time in franchise history that the Diamondbacks had been no-hit.

Despite falling out of contention, Webb continued to remain among the league's top pitchers. He tossed his first-ever one-hitter in a win over St. Louis on September 9 at Chase Field. Arizona took 3 of 4 from the eventual World Champions. Another marathon took place on September 16, as the D-backs and Rockies went 16 innings at Chase Field, before Chris Snyder's sacrifice fly scored Chris Young for a 7-6 win.

The season ended with an emotional 4-game weekend set at home with San Diego. The Padres became the first visiting team to clinch a playoff berth at Chase Field by winning on the next to last day of the season. The next afternoon, a sellout crowd bade farewell to Luis Gonzalez, Craig Counsell and Miguel Batista as the Padres won 7-6, giving the D-backs a final mark of 76-86.

Webb, who tossed 5 complete games and 3 shutouts, was recognized for his excellence when he was selected as the National League Cy Young Award winner in November. It marked the fifth time in Arizona's nine-year existence that a Diamondback pitcher took the honor, with Randy Johnson having won four consecutive Cy Youngs from 1999-2002. Ironically, Diamondback fans got a special Christmas present on December 25 when word first surfaced that the club was negotiating to bring Johnson back from the New York Yankees, a deal that was finalized in early January.

Pitching was a major focus of the Diamondbacks' offseason. In addition to acquiring Johnson for Luis Vizcaino and two minor leaguers, Arizona also picked up lefthanded starter Doug Davis and right handed reliever Dana Eveland from Milwaukee in a trade that sent catcher Johnny Estrada and righthanded starting pitcher Claudio Vargas to the Brewers.

Second baseman Orlando Hudson won his second consecutive Gold Glove Award.

SCOUTING

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

ED DURKIN
NATIONAL SUPERVISOR

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Ed Durkin enters his 11th season as a member of Arizona's scouting department, his first as the National Supervisor after spending seven years as the Diamondbacks Eastern Regional Supervisor. He held the title of Professional Scouting Coordinator from 1996-98, a role that had him heavily involved in the 1997 Major League Expansion Draft for the Diamondbacks.

Durkin has amassed 21 years of scouting experience. He started as a part-time scout in 1986 with Milwaukee before serving as a full-time scout from 1988-92 and a National Crosschecker (Eastern) from 1993-96. He makes his home in Palm Harbor, Florida.

GREG LONIGRO
EASTERN SUPERVISOR

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Greg Lonigro enters his first season as Arizona's Eastern Supervisor after spending his first nine seasons as an area scout. He joined the Diamondbacks in 1998, covering New York, West Virginia and his home state of Pennsylvania. This is his 20th year in professional baseball.

In 1986, Lonigro was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds in the first round (seventh overall) out of Florida Junior College. He played parts of six seasons in the Reds' minor league system before being traded to the Chicago White Sox in 1992. He would also see time with the Chicago Cubs and Florida Marlins before ending his playing career in 1995. He makes his home in Connellsville, PA.

STEVE MCALLISTER
CENTRAL SUPERVISOR

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Steve McAllister returns for a third year in the role of Central Supervisor. He worked as a full-time scout in the Midwest region from from 2002-2004.

McAllister has been involved in professional baseball—for the past 26 years—first as a player and then as a scout. In 1981, he was drafted out of Bradley University as the Houston Astros' fifth-round selection. He played six seasons in the minor leagues before starting his scouting career. He has previously scouted the Midwest for the Milwaukee Brewers, California Angels and the Boston Red Sox.

McAllister is an inductee in both the Chillicothe (IL) High School Athletic Hall of Fame and the Bradley University Athletic Hall of Fame.

BOB MINOR
WESTERN SUPERVISOR

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Bob Minor enters his first season as Arizona's Western Supervisor after spending 25 years with the New York Mets. He started there in November 1981, spending 13 years as an area scout and 12 years as a crosschecker.

Minor resides in Garden Grove, CA with his wife, Patty, and two sons, Jimmy (16), and Billy (14).

INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

Since being awarded a franchise by Major League Baseball, the Diamondbacks have placed a strong emphasis on scouting talent from around the globe. Arizona has scouted and signed players from Australia, Canada, Columbia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Netherlands Antilles, Nicaragua, Panama and Venezuela. In addition to inking players from the United States and Puerto Rico, the Diamondbacks have also signed players who previously played in Taiwan.

Junior Noboa was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager, Latin American Operations on Feb. 20, 2007, after serving as the Director, Latin America Operations since October 2003. He also works as the Director of the Diamondbacks' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic.

He was the organization's first international hire in August 1995 and a month later signed the organization's first two players. In 1997, he was the first recipient of the Roland Hemond Award, bestowed upon a member of the baseball department who best exemplifies the "Diamondback" approach to their work. In 1999, Noboa signed Geraldo Guzman, a carpenter who had not played professionally since 1992 but went on to pitch in 17 games for the Diamondbacks from 2000-01. Noboa is also responsible for the signings of current Diamondbacks Jose Valverde and Greg Aquino.

Jim Marshall continues to serve as the club's Director of Pacific Rim Operations, a role he has filled since coming on-board in 1996. His main duty is to maintain relations with baseball organizations in Australia, Japan, Korea and Taiwan. He also works as a major league and advance scout for the Diamondbacks.

Marshall played in the big leagues from 1958-62, logging time with the Baltimore Orioles, Chicago Cubs, San Francisco Giants, the original 1962 New York Mets and the Pittsburgh Pirates. He managed the Chicago Cubs from 1974-76 and the Oakland Athletics in 1979.

His first visit to Japan was in 1960 as part of a goodwill tour with the Giants. Three years later, he signed with the Chunichi Dragons of the Japanese Central League and hit .268 with 78 home runs and 252 RBI over three campaigns.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

2005 ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR

The Arizona Diamondbacks were named the Topps Organization of the Year for 2005 during the annual Baseball Winter Meetings held in December 2004 in Dallas, TX. It was the first such award for the Diamondbacks, who have had a minor league system in place since 1996, with the big league club beginning play two years later.

The Topps Baseball Organization of the Year Award is presented annually to a Major League organization based on the number of players in their system who have received Topps awards during the season. Points are awarded for four different minor league categories including All-Star players, Players of the Month, the Trautman and Taylor Spink Award recipients, and for Major League rookies who made the Topps Rookie All-Star team.

The Diamondbacks' individual winners were: Phil Avlas (August P.O.M. - California League); Lorenzo Cain (Trautman Award - Arizona League); Matt Elliott and Carlos Gonzalez (Class A All-Star Team - Midwest League); Andy Green (Class AAA All-Star Team/Trautman Award - Pacific Coast League); Conor Jackson (Class AAA All-Star Team - Pacific Coast League); Miguel Montero (May P.O.M. - California League); Dustin Nippert (August P.O.M. - Southern League); and Dan Uggla (Class AA All-Star Team - Southern League).

Topps is an international marketer of entertainment products, principally collectable picture cards, confections and sticker collections.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Name a memorable moment in the history of the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Greg Schulte has described it as it happened. Schulte has been the link between D-Backs fans and their team since the club first took the field in 1998. Like the D-backs themselves, Schulte embarks on his 10th season of calling Major League Baseball in 2007.

His passion for the game of baseball comes through in every broadcast, and has earned Schulte praise from fans and fellow broadcasters alike.

Schulte's voice will forever be linked with one of baseball's greatest moments, as he delivered the call of Luis Gonzalez' 9th-inning single to win the 7th game of the 2001 World Series.

A part of the Phoenix radio scene since 1979, Schulte joined the Diamondbacks after spending 14 years at the Diamondbacks flagship radio station, KTAR. Over that time, Schulte was involved with nearly every major sports entity in the market. He served for 15 seasons with the Phoenix Suns, working with Al McCoy first as producer, and, for the last two seasons, as color commentator. He also served as analyst for Arizona State University football and basketball, and shared play-by-play duties for ASU baseball. In addition, Schulte spent three years as pre and post-game host for the NFL Cardinals broadcasts after they arrived from St. Louis.

Greg is also active in the community, working extensively with the Leukemia-Lymphoma Society.

Prior to his arrival in Arizona, Schulte was sports director at WQUA in Moline, Ill., and also handled play-by-play duties for University of Iowa basketball. Schulte and his wife Nancy have two children, Scott, (27), and Stephanie, (24), and reside in Glendale.

DARON SUTTON
TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

One of baseball's best young broadcasters joins the Diamondbacks in 2007, as Daron Sutton will serve as the club's primary play by play announcer on television.

Sutton comes to the Diamondbacks after five years in a similar capacity with the Milwaukee Brewers. During his tenure in Milwaukee, Sutton won a 2003 Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Achievement for Individual Excellence on Camera from the Chicago/Midwest Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. He was also nominated for regional Emmys in 1999 and 2004.

The son of Hall of Fame pitcher and broadcaster Don Sutton, Sutton spent two seasons as a radio play by play announcer for the Anaheim Angels, and also hosted the club's pre and post game radio shows. He also spent two seasons calling Atlanta Braves games on FSN South.

While in Atlanta, Sutton handled Southeastern Conference telecasts of men's and women's basketball, swimming and diving, gymnastics, track and field and volleyball. The past two years, Sutton served as the television play by play broadcaster for University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee men's basketball.

Sutton pitched two seasons in the Angels and Braves organizations, and graduated from Auburn University-Montgomery in 1992 with a degree in communications.

Community involvement is a high priority with Sutton. He and his wife Kristin hosted an annual golf tournament in Milwaukee for the Autism Society of Southwestern Wisconsin, and he can be found regularly speaking to local schools to promote reading and education.

Sutton and his wife and the proud parents of two daughters, Abbey (9) and Lilly (5).

MARK GRACE

TELEVISION ANALYST

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

After a distinguished 16-year Major League playing career, Mark Grace made a smooth transition to the broadcast booth, and returns for his fourth season as the Diamondbacks' television analyst, working alongside Daron Sutton and Greg Schulte on the Diamondbacks Television Network and Fox Sports Net.

In 2007, Grace will add to his broadcast resume by serving as an analyst for FOX Saturday Baseball during the regular season.

Grace announced his retirement during the final weekend of the 2003 regular season, ending his career with 2,445 hits, a .303 average, 511 doubles, 173 home runs and 1,146 RBI in 2,245 Major League games. He was a four-time winner of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award, anchoring first base for both the Diamondbacks and Chicago Cubs.

Grace joined the Diamondbacks in 2001, after 13 seasons with the Cubs, and was an integral part of the Diamondbacks' World Championship that year. His single to lead off the ninth inning of Game 7 ignited the rally that led to a 3-2 victory over the New York Yankees. He went 6-for-16 in the 2001 National League Championship Series against Atlanta.

Grace has previous broadcasting experience, having served as analyst for ESPN Radio during the 1999 and 2000 Division Series. Grace is the father of two boys, Jackson (6) and Preston (3), and resides in Paradise Valley.

TOM CANDIOTTI

RADIO ANALYST

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Former Major League pitcher Tom Candiotti is in his second season as color analyst on Diamondbacks radio broadcasts.

Candiotti brings tremendous insight into each broadcast, offering not only the perspective of a pitcher, but also taking listeners inside the game from all angles.

Candiotti pitched in 451 games over a 16-year Major League career with Milwaukee (1983-84), Cleveland (1986-91, 1999), Toronto (1991), Los Angeles Dodgers (1992-97) and Oakland (1998-99), posting a 151-164 record and a 3.73 career ERA. Famed for his knuckleball, Candiotti won 10 or more games in 7 different seasons, and pitched in the 1991 American League Championship Series (Toronto) and 1996 National League Division Series (Los Angeles Dodgers).

Following his playing career, Candiotti served as a special assistant to the General Manager with the Indians (2000-01), and established his broadcasting credentials as an analyst with ESPN, both during MLB game coverage and on the set of "Baseball Tonight." While with ESPN, Candiotti also served as an analyst for the network's coverage of the Little League World Series, while also writing a column for ESPN.com.

Candiotti's broadcasting experience also includes serving as a color analyst for Toronto Blue Jays telecasts.

An accomplished bowler, Candiotti regularly participates in Professional Bowlers Association Tour events in Arizona. Candiotti is the proud father of three boys, Brett (22), Casey (8) and Clark (5) and resides in Paradise Valley.

JEFF MUNN

RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY/PRE AND POST-GAME RADIO HOST

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Jeff Munn returns for a second season as pre and post-game host on the Diamondbacks' Radio Network, while continuing in his role as the club's secondary radio play-by-play announcer.

Munn is in his seventh year as a Diamondbacks broadcaster, having joined the radio team in 2001.

In addition to his work with the Diamondbacks, Munn is also the radio play-by-play voice for Arizona State University Women's Basketball. Munn has also been heard as a fill-in play-by-play announcer on ASU Men's Basketball and Baseball broadcasts. He also served as a play by play announcer for MLB Radio's coverage of the Arizona Fall League in 2006. Munn also serves as the stadium announcer for the Fiesta and Insight Bowls, and also served in the same role for the inaugural BCS National Championship game.

Munn attended Arizona State University, majoring in history. He resides in Tempe with his wife of 15 years, Laurie, and their two children, Patrick (11) and Hayley (8).

JOE GARAGIOLA

TELEVISION ANALYST

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Any baseball team would love to have a Hall of Famer available to pinch-hit, and the Diamondbacks have got just that, as Joe Garagiola, a member of the broadcasters' wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame, returns for his 10th season as an analyst. Garagiola will work selected games throughout the 2007 season.

Garagiola has combined insight and humor over five decades of baseball broadcasting, including nearly 25 years on the Saturday Game of the Week telecasts on NBC. In addition, Garagiola spent 11 years as a co-host on NBC's "Today" show, as well serving as host of a number of popular game shows.

Garagiola's broadcasting career began shortly after his playing career ended. He broke into the major leagues in 1946 as a catcher with the St. Louis Cardinals, and contributed four hits in Game 4 of the 1946 World Series, won by the Cardinals in six games. Joe also played with the Chicago Cubs, New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates. Upon retirement in 1954, Garagiola was offered a position on the Cardinals' broadcast team, working with fellow Hall of Famers Harry Caray and Jack Buck. Garagiola would eventually move to the television booth with the New York Yankees, working with the initial co-winner of the Ford C. Frick award, Red Barber. At NBC, Garagiola shared the booth with two more Cooperstown enshrines, Curt Gowdy and Vin Scully.

A Valley resident, Garagiola has been extremely active in the community and was honored as the 1998 recipient of the Children's MVP Award presented by the Jim Eisenreich Foundation. The award goes to a former player who has made significant contributions to children's causes. He works tirelessly for the Baseball Assistance Team, and is very visible at major league spring training camps, educating players on the evils of spit tobacco.

Garagiola was honored in November of 2001 the Arizona Chamber of Commerce for his work in the community, which includes his efforts on behalf of the St. Peter's Indian Mission in the Gila River Indian Community. Nicknamed "Awesome Fox" by the staff of St. Peter's, the baseball field at St. Peter's School is named "Awesome Fox Field" in his honor.

Garagiola is the author of several baseball books, including the newly released "Let's Just Play Ball, with the forward written by his lifelong friend, Yogi Berra.

JON MAGNUSON

HOST - D-BACKS PLAYIN' HARBALL

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Jon, a member of the Diamondbacks' broadcast department since 1997, will return as the host of the weekly magazine show, "D-Backs Playin' Harball," seen on 3TV, following Sunday game telecasts.

Magnuson was part of the production team that earned a Rocky Mountain Regional Emmy in 2000 for their work on "Playin' Harball." Magnuson came to the Diamondbacks from the Phoenix Suns, where he served as a feature producer/reporter for their pre-game show for four years.

A native of Golden, CO, Magnuson graduated from Arizona State University with a B.A. in Broadcast Journalism. Magnuson and his wife, Nicole, and sons, Keaton (6) and Kyler (3), reside in Phoenix.

TODD WALSH

PRE-GAME TELEVISION HOST - FSN ARIZONA

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Todd joined FSN Arizona in 2001, hosting "Diamondbacks Countdown" and providing in-game reports for each FSN Arizona telecast, as well as hosting the network's weekly "Diamondbacks Insider" program. He serves in a similar role for the NHL's Phoenix Coyotes.

Walsh's work has twice earned him top sports reporter in Phoenix honors by the Arizona Republic (2001 and 2002), and in September 2002, he was named the best sports television interviewer by the Phoenix New Times.

Walsh has been a fixture in the Valley since 1988, working in a variety of on-air roles for KTAR through 1993. He also served as a color commentator on Arizona Cardinals games for three seasons. Walsh has been the sports director for KDKB radio (93.3 FM) since 1993.

A native of Rochester, NY, Walsh graduated from the University of Arizona in 1986 with a degree in radio and television. While at U of A, he was a basketball manager for coach Lute Olson, and had a role as a sports reporter in the 1987 movie "Can't Buy Me Love."

MATT WILLIAMS
TELEVISION ANALYST AND PRE-GAME HOST

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Former Diamondbacks infielder Matt Williams returns for a third season as an analyst for selected television and radio broadcasts.

In addition, Matt and his wife, Erika, will serve as hosts for the club's over the air television pregame show on 3TV.

Williams brings an impressive playing resume to the broadcast booth, having hit 378 home runs over a 17-year Major League career with the Giants, Indians and Diamondbacks. Matt was an Arizona original, having been acquired from Cleveland in a post-Expansion Draft trade.

Over his career, Williams earned four Rawlings Gold Gloves at third base, and played in three World Series, including the Diamondbacks' seven-game win over the New York Yankees in 2001.

ERIKA WILLIAMS
TELEVISION PRE-GAME HOST

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Erika Williams, familiar to Phoenix television viewers for her work as a news anchor at KTVK (3TV), joins her husband, former Diamondbacks Rawlings Gold Glove infielder Matt Williams as hosts of the Diamondbacks' pre-game show on 3TV.

Williams joined 3TV in 2001, serving as weekend anchor for "Good Evening Arizona" and "The NewsShow." On the night the Diamondbacks defeated the New York Yankees in Game 7 of the World Series, Williams and co-anchor Frank Camacho anchored hours of live coverage of the celebrations throughout the state.

Williams began her television career in Lubbock, Texas, earning first and second place honors in the prestigious Texas Media Awards. In addition to her work with the Diamondbacks, Williams can also be seen on 3TV as a fill-in anchor.

Dbacks™

DIAMONDBACKS EN ESPANOL

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Once again this season, the Diamondbacks will offer broadcasts of all 162 regular season games in Spanish. The Diamondbacks' Spanish Radio Network is anchored in Phoenix by Radio Fiesta (1400 AM). In addition, the Diamondbacks will feature the largest Spanish-language television package in Major League Baseball as 50 of the club's 81 home games will be shown on KPHE (Channel 44).

MIGUEL QUINTANA
SPANISH RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Miguel Quintana, who began his broadcast career in Phoenix 21 years ago, is in his ninth season as the Diamondbacks' Spanish radio play-by-play voice.

Miguel began his career as a 15-year-old sportswriter for El Sol in Agua Prieta, Sonora. In 1981, he joined KIFN Radio (now KVVU) in Phoenix as a sports commentator, and later moved to KTVW (Channel 33), eventually becoming sports director. Quintana also worked in Los Angeles for KVEA-TV, before returning to the Valley in 1995 to serve as play-by-play voice for the Arizona Sandsharks indoor soccer team.

Miguel's work in baseball has earned him notice from baseball officials, as he was selected to be one of the stadium announcers for the inaugural World Baseball Classic, working at games at both Chase Field and in Anaheim.

Miguel has been a baseball commentator for the Mexican Pacific League and has done play-by-play for the Arizona Rattlers. Miguel and his wife, Karoly, have two boys, Miguel, Jr. and Khalid Omar, and they are expecting another child this July. Miguel also has three daughters, Lisette (21), Jasmine (16) and Jennifer (11).

OSCAR SORIA
SPANISH RADIO AND TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

At the age of 36, Oscar Soria is one of the most respected baseball commentators in the Hispanic community. Oscar is in his eighth full season on Diamondbacks Spanish broadcasts. In addition to teaming with Miguel Quintana and Richard Saenz on radio, Soria will serve as play by play announcer on the club's new 50-game package on KPHE Television (Channel 44).

Soria is a veteran of 18 seasons as a broadcaster with the Hermosillo Naranjeros in winter baseball and also covers the Diamondbacks for El Imparcial, writing a daily column.

Last winter was his second announcing the Mexican Pacific League and the Caribbean Series for ESPN Deportes. In addition, Oscar provided play by play for the inaugural World Baseball Classic for ESPN Deportes.

Oscar was among the nominees of announcers for the Mexican Pacific League "All Century Team," finishing second in the general balloting and voted as the best TV broadcaster. In 2005, he was voted the best announcer in the state of Sonora receiving the Carlos Vazquez Award.

Oscar has also covered basketball, boxing, soccer, tennis and football for Telemex in Sonora.

The native of Tijuana, Mexico graduated from Universidad del Noroeste with a degree in accounting. Oscar and his wife, Benny, have a daughter, Paula (6) and a son, Oscar Gilberto (1), and make their home in Phoenix.

RICHARD SAENZ
SENIOR DIRECTOR OF HISPANIC MARKETING/SPANISH RADIO ANALYST

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

The man overseeing the Diamondbacks' marketing efforts in the Hispanic community puts on the headsets again this season, as Richard Saenz is in his sixth season as an analyst on the Diamondbacks Spanish Radio Network.

Saenz has been with the Diamondbacks' organization since 1996. Prior to that, he spent 18 years with the Arizona Electric Power Cooperative in his native Benson, eventually becoming the company's Director of Business Development. Saenz also served for years as Mayor of Benson (1989-93).

Saenz played baseball for two years at Cochise College in Douglas, then continued his education and playing baseball at Eastern Oregon State University in LaGrande, Ore. Richard, his wife Sheri and their son R.J. (3), reside in Phoenix. Richard also has a daughter, Alisha, and two granddaughters, Jayden (3), and Kendall Grace (2).

ARTURO OCHOA

SPANISH RADIO RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

The newest member of the Diamondbacks' Spanish broadcast team is a familiar voice on the Phoenix airwaves. Arturo Ochoa will serve as a radio play by play announcer for 50 games this season on the club's Spanish radio network.

The native of Cananea, Sonora, Mexico has been the Spanish radio play by play announcer for Phoenix Suns NBA home games on KSUN Radio since 2003. A graduate of Northern Interamericana University.

JERRY ROMO

SPANISH TELEVISION ANALYST

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

A member of the Diamondbacks' broadcast family since 2003, Jerry Romo will serve as an analyst alongside Oscar Soria for the club's 50 Spanish-language telecasts on KPHE (Channel 44).

Romo has served for several years as a producer of a variety of Diamondbacks' programming, most recently with the club's over-the-air televisión pregame show. He has also been heard on Diamondbacks' Spanish radio broadcasts, and during the winter months, can be heard on Spanish radio broadcasts for the NBA Phoenix Suns.

Romo is a graduate of Arizona State University.

BEHIND THE SCENES

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

BRADY CLYMA
BROADCAST PRODUCER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

The 2007 season is Brady Clyma's second full season as the broadcast producer, joining the Diamondbacks after a three-year stint as a staff producer for FSN Arizona. He produced "Diamondbacks Countdown" for three seasons with FSN Arizona, as well as various other pro and college live events.

Prior to moving to the Valley, Clyma spent 10 years in sports television in Detroit working on local Detroit Tigers, Pistons and Red Wings telecasts. A graduate of Michigan State University, he has won two Emmy's for his sports television coverage.

Clyma and his wife, Amy, live in Gilbert with their son, Kyle (1).

LEO GILMARTIN
RADIO PRODUCER/ENGINEER

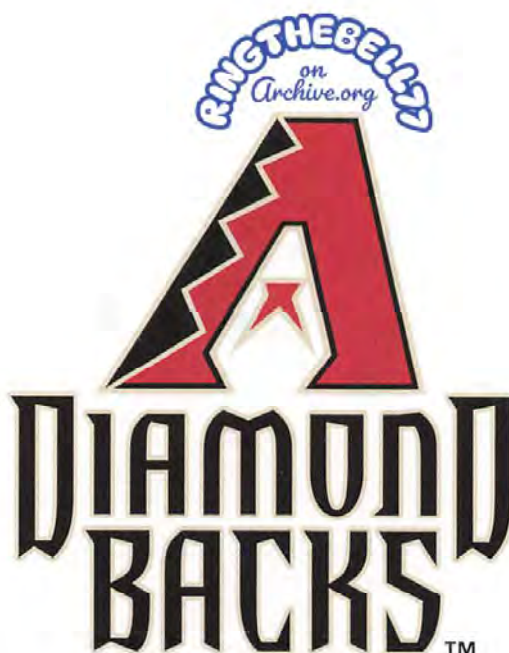

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

An Arizona native, Leo Gilmartin joined the Diamondbacks in September 1996 as manager of broadcast services, then for the last five seasons has been a full-time member of the travel party as the producer/engineer for all radio broadcasts on KTAR (620 AM). His day-to-day management tasks include overseeing the team's radio and television networks.

Gilmartin graduated from Arizona State University with a degree in broadcast journalism and added his current radio production duties beginning with the 2001 season. His father, Joe, has been a long-time journalist in the Valley and currently writes for D-backs Insider.

Leo and his wife, Gail, have two daughters, Sara (8) and Hannah (4), and make their home in Gilbert.

REMEMBERING OUR FRIENDS

John Michaelson Radio Booth

The KTAR Radio booth at Chase Field was named after John Michaelson prior to the 2001 season, honoring the veteran producer/engineer who passed away in the winter of 2000. A veteran behind the scenes in radio broadcasting for years, including three seasons on Diamondback broadcasts, John was a tireless worker and friend to all who came in contact with him.

Steve Pascente Memorial Press Lounge

Steve Pascente was one of the most dedicated at his craft and died while on location covering football in Washington D.C. His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the Diamondbacks opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

Dick Dozer Memorial Press Box

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. After leaving the beat of the big leagues, he arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an oldtimers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Kams. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994, yet his memory lives on daily in the Diamondbacks' front office. His son, Rich, was an integral player in the D-backs inception serving as team President from 1995 through 2006 and has an executive conference room named in his honor.

MEDIA COVERAGE POLICIES

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Director, Player & Media Relations	Mike McNally
Coordinator, Player & Media Relations	Lynita Johnson
Assistant, Player & Media Relations	Bryan Pelekoudas

It is once again a privilege for our staff to be of assistance as you cover the Arizona Diamondbacks. Following are the Player & Media Relations policies for the 2007 season. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and we will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

WORKING PRESS CREDENTIALS: Pursuant to Major League Baseball policy, all season credentials issued by the Diamondbacks will include a laminated picture identification. Due to security issues, no member of the media will be allowed access to Chase Field without showing a photo ID. Daily passes will be issued to media members who do not qualify for season credentials. Media who qualify for daily credentials include: freelance writers on a specific assignment for a publication, representatives of weekly and monthly publications working on special coverage, and additional radio and television representatives when the need arises for extra pre-game personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.). Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer, or director, at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. Requests may be made via FAX or company email if the requesting affiliation is currently on file with the Player & Media Relations office.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Daily photo passes will be issued to photographers on assignment for legitimate news gathering organizations, and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests for photographer credentials must follow the procedure detailed above. The Arizona Diamondbacks will not issue credentials to freelance photographers. Please remember that priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. Field photo space at Chase Field is at a premium and priority for space will be given to daily publications and wire services. There is also a small space designated for in-game photography in the front row of the press box. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products only. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and bar future use.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in Chase Field where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. The clubhouse is the dressing and preparation area for the players for that day's game and is not a place for the media to congregate. The clubhouse will close 50 minutes prior to the first pitch, and there may be times where the clubhouse will close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Post-game access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the individual club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to the start of the game. The field must be cleared 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game, and at no time is the media permitted in fair territory, or outside the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Chase Field prior to and after every game. All television live shots must be done in designated areas outside the clubhouse due to space limitations, or on the warning track area outside either dugout. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give inning or half inning score updates. At no time can they file reports once play is under way. Any violation of these policies will result in immediate revocation of credentials.

CELLULAR PHONES: The use of cellular phones is prohibited on the field or in either clubhouse. The only time a radio correspondent can use a cellular phone for an interview would be in either dugout after receiving advance permission from the player or staff member. Any other telephone interviews must be arranged through the Diamondbacks' Player & Media Relations Department.

ROVING CAMERAS: Television stations are prohibited from using a camera light in the seating area of the ballpark. Should a light come on, the game could be stopped by the umpiring crew and any stoppage in play due to a camera light will result in revocation of the credential. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to games. For the comfort of our fans, interviews are to be conducted on the concourse, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The press box at Chase Field is located directly behind home plate. The writers' wing is on the first base side, while the broadcast booths are behind the plate and towards the third base side. The front row of the Working Press Box is for members of the BBWAA. All electronic media seats are in the second and third rows. Game notes and statistics will be available for pick-up at least two hours before game time in the area immediately behind the working press box. The Diamondbacks also offer additional working space, with television monitors, in the area behind the press box. A fax machine and copier are available in the press box should the need arise. The press box is an active working area and cheering and loud conversation will not be permitted. At no time will guests be permitted in the press box. The Arizona Diamondbacks prohibit any person under the age of 18 from entering the press box level on game days.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the press box. As is consistent with all National League clubs, pre-game meals for the media will be available for a cost, and will be served two hours prior to game time through the end of the first inning. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Arizona Diamondbacks are fortunate to have an ample supply of Charge Call phones in the press box. If for some reason media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season. To have a phone extension installed for the season, or for a single visit to Chase Field, please contact Vicki Berryman at (602) 462-6099.

REGLAS PARA LA MEDIA

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Director, Relaciones de la Prensa y los Jugadores	Mike McNally
Coordinadora, Relaciones de la Prensa y los Jugadores	Lynita Johnson
Ayudante Relaciones de la Prensa y los Jugadores	Bryan Pelekoudas

Una vez más, es un privilegio a poder asistirlos en cubrir los Arizona Diamondbacks. Siguiendo son las reglas del Departamento de las Relaciones de la Prensa y los Jugadores. Si tiene alguna pregunta, por favor comuníquese con alguien de nuestro departamento.

CREDENCIALES DE TRABAJO: De acuerdo con la póliza del Béisbol De Grandes Ligas, todas las credenciales de temporada completa incluirán una foto personal. Es requerido que miembros de la prensa carguen alguna otra prueba de identificación a todo tiempo ya que pueden ser pedidas por miembros de seguridad. Credenciales para juegos individuales deben ser pedidas por el editor, productor o director del afiliado por medio de un membrete de la compañía por lo menos 48 horas antes del partido. Pedidos pueden ser por medio de fax al 602-462-6527 o e-mail a credentials@dbacks.com y es la responsabilidad del afiliado confirmar que el pedido haya sido aceptado o rechazado. Los Arizona Diamondbacks no autorizan credenciales para escritores independientes.

CREDENCIALES DE FOTOGRAFIA: Pases de foto serán dadas a fotógrafos que estén reuniendo información para algún noticiero reconocido y representantes de compañías que estén licenciadas por el Béisbol De Grandes Ligas. Pedidos para credenciales de fotografía tendrán que seguir los mismos pasos ya mencionados bajo

CREDENCIALES DE TRABAJO: Los Arizona Diamondbacks no autorizan credenciales para fotógrafos independientes. Por favor recuerde que noticieros con fecha tope tendrán prioridad en todas las áreas dedicadas a fotógrafos. Aparte de las áreas a nivel de campo, también hay un espacio chico designado para fotógrafos que deseen tomar fotos durante el partido en la primera fila en el cuarto de prensa. Todas las fotografías tomadas deben ser utilizadas para algún noticiero o para productos oficialmente reconocidos por la organización. Cualquier otro uso de estas fotografías serán consideradas como violación de marca registrada. Fotógrafos están prohibidos entrar a los vestidores, excepto cuando se haya hecho otros arreglos con un representante del departamento.

MEDIOS DE INTERNET: Solamente aquellas personas que estén licenciadas por el Béisbol De Grandes Ligas tienen el derecho exclusivo de reportar las descripciones y jugada por jugada del partido por Internet. Ninguna transmisión de parte de cualquier otro medio será permitido que origine dentro del estadio, incluyendo video de alguna cámara que este situada dentro del estadio. Infracciones tendrán como resultado revocación de credencial y puede ser susceptible por medio de la ley. Los Arizona Diamondbacks no autorizan credenciales a personas de sitios web, excepto que el sitio sea una organización de noticias nacionalmente reconocida.

POLICE DE AUTOGRAFOS: Esta prohibido que miembros de la prensa con credenciales pidan autógrafos o equipo en el terreno de juego, dugout o vestidores. Cualquier infracción tendrá como resultado revocación inmediata de la credencial e impedirá el uso futuro.

ACCESO AL VESTIDOR: Toda credencial listara localidades específicas dentro del Chase Field en donde acceso sea permitido. Miembros de la prensa tendrán que tener una razón específica para tener acceso al vestidor. El vestidor no es lugar para que la prensa congregate. El vestidor cerrará una hora antes del primer lanzamiento, y habrá ocasiones donde cerrará antes para juntas del equipo. Generalmente, un periodo de no más 10 minutos es permitido después del partido para que los jugadores se relajen. Acceso después del partido al vestidor del equipo contrario será determinado por las reglas individuales del equipo.

ACCESO AL CAMPO: Todos los miembros de prensa con derecho de estar en el campo de juego tendrán la oportunidad de obtener entrevistas en tiempos designados antes del inicio del partido. La prensa debe salir del campo 50 minutos antes del inicio del partido. La prensa en ningún momento es permitida en terreno bueno (dentro las líneas de foul), o detrás de la primera o tercera base. Estas precauciones son por motivos de seguridad.

TRANSMISIONES EN VIVO: Estaciones sin derechos de transmitir el partido en vivo pueden transmitir informes desde el Chase Field antes y después de todos los partidos. Todo el video de televisión que sea transmitido en vivo tiene que ser desde áreas designadas afuera del vestidor o desde la franja de advertencia afuera de cualquier dugout. Transmisiones en vivo durante el partido son prohibidas a las estaciones de televisión que no tengan el derecho de transmitir el juego por medio de contrato directamente con los Arizona Diamondbacks. Estaciones de radio y corresponsales para reportes fuera de la ciudad son permitidas para dar información del partido entre o después de las entradas. En ningún momento pueden dar información durante el partido. Cualquier infracción tendrá como resultado revocación inmediata de la credencial.

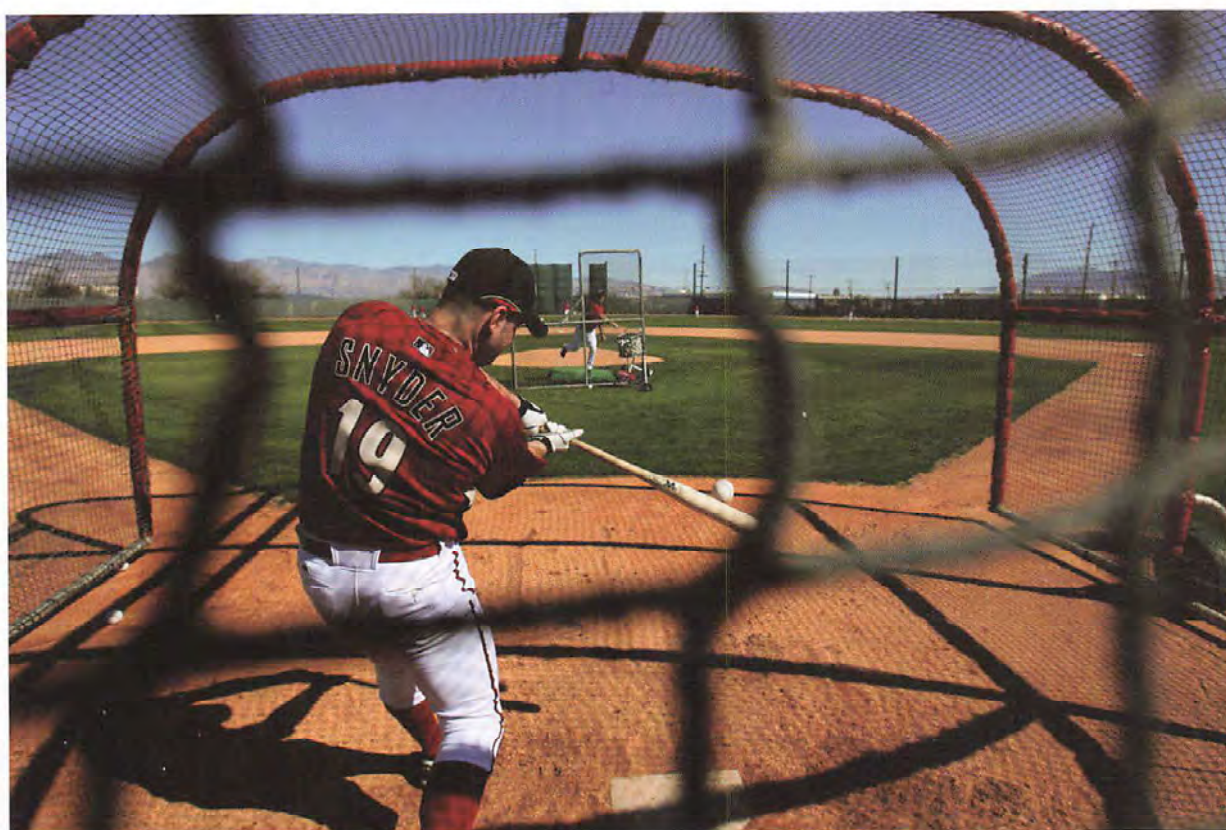

TELEFONOS CELULARES: El uso de teléfonos celulares esta prohibido en el campo y en los dos vestidores. Para que un corresponsal de radio pueda hacer una entrevista por teléfono, el corresponsal debe tener autorización del jugador o de un miembro del departamento. Cualquier otra entrevista por teléfono debe de ser coordinada por medio del Departamento de las Relaciones de la Prensa y los Jugadores de los Diamondbacks.

CAMARAS DE TELEVISION: El uso de luces para cámaras de televisión esta prohibido en el área de asientos del estadio. El juego podría ser parado por los umpires y cualquier parada en el juego debido a esta causa tendrá como resultado revocación de la credencial. Fotografías desde el área de los asientos están prohibidas y todas las entrevistas de televisión deben ser conducidas en el área de los restaurantes detrás de los asientos durante el partido.

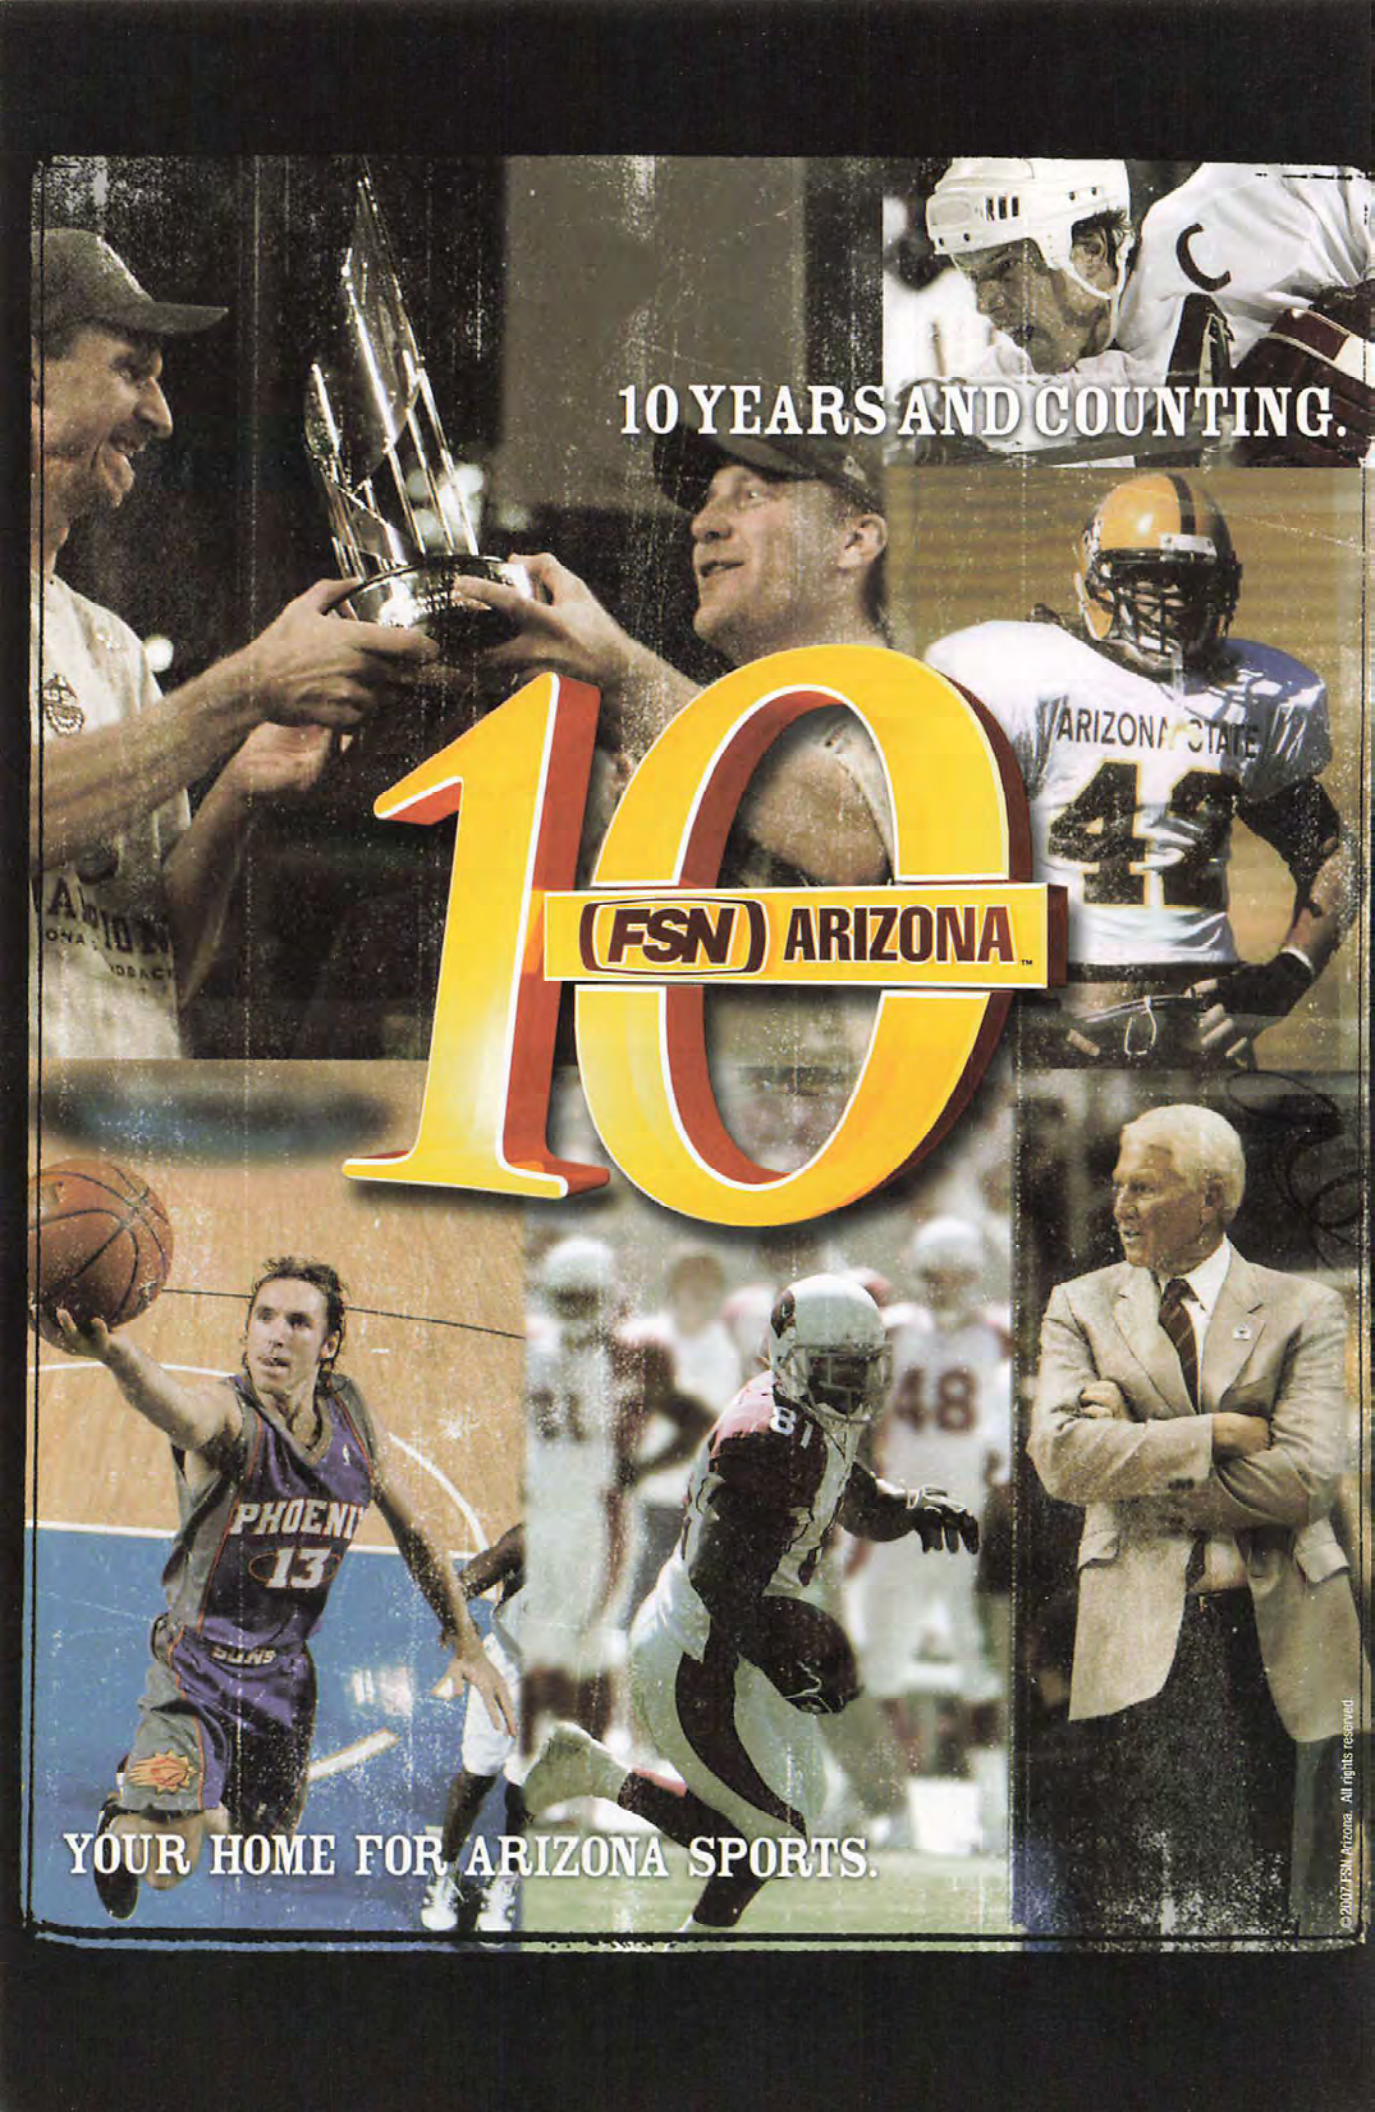

AREA DE PRENSA: La tribuna de prensa del Chase Field esta localizada directamente detrás de home. El área de escritores está al lado de la primera base, mientras los puestos emisores están detrás de caja de batco para el lado de tercera base. La primera fila de la tribuna de prensa de trabajo es para miembros del BBWAA. Todos los asientos de medios electrónicos están localizados en la segunda y tercera fila. Notas y estadísticas del juego estarán disponibles por lo menos dos horas antes del inicio del partido en el área inmediatamente detrás de la tribuna de prensa. Los Diamondbacks también ofrecen un área adicional de trabajo, con monitores de televisión, en el área detrás de la tribuna de prensa. Una maquina de fax y una copiadora está disponible en la tribuna de prensa. La tribuna de prensa es un área de trabajo activa y vitoreando y conversaciones fuertes no se permitirán. Personas que no tengan credencial para la tribuna de prensa en ningún momento serán permitidas. Los Arizona Diamondbacks le prohíben a cualquier persona menor de 18 años la entrada a la tribuna de prensa los días de juego.

SALA DE COMEDOR: La sala de comedor esta localizada detrás de la tribuna de prensa. Comida para los miembros de prensa estará disponible por un costo y será servida 2 horas antes del inicio del partido y finalizará después de la primera entrada. Los miembros de medios deben tener credencial para poder entrar al comedor.

TELEFONOS PARA LOS MEDIOS: Los Arizona Diamondbacks tienen el lujo de tener una abundante cantidad de teléfonos para llamadas de carga en la tribuna de prensa. Si por alguna razón miembros de la prensa sienten que no hay suficientes líneas disponibles, ellos deben investigar instalar su propia línea para el uso durante la temporada. Para tener una extensión de teléfono instalada para la temporada, o para una sola visita al Chase Field, por favor comuníquese con Vicki Berryman al (602) 462-6099.

CHASE FIELD &
COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

CHASE FIELD

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

On Sept. 23, 2005, the next era of Diamondbacks baseball was officially christened with a new name for the place the club calls home.

As a result of the merger between Bank One and Chase, all Bank One properties are now known as Chase, and that includes Chase Field, formerly Bank One Ballpark.

Owned by Maricopa County, Chase Field (seating capacity 48,785) plays a major part in making Downtown Phoenix the sports hub of the Valley of the Sun. Chase Field is bounded by Jefferson Street on the north, Fourth Street on the west and Seventh Street on the east, and is within easy driving distance of two major freeways (Interstate 10 to the north, Interstate 17 to the south).

Chase Field also holds the distinction of being the second-highest facility in the major leagues, sitting 1,100 feet above sea level. It trails only Denver's Coors Field in terms of elevation.

THE STRUCTURE

Ground was broken on Chase Field Nov. 16, 1995, with the construction project taking 28 months at a cost of $354 million.

The facility was designed by Ellerbe Becket, with architect Bill Johnson as the design principal. John Wasson was the project manager for the Diamondbacks, with Huber Hunt & Nichols serving as the managing contractor.

Chase Field incorporates the traditional look of red brick and green structural steel in a setting that blends into its surroundings. Many of the building's design details are borrowed from the historic warehouse district that surrounds it. One former warehouse, the Arizona Citrus Growers' Packing House, is actually preserved and incorporated into the south façade of the building. Appropriately, that former food warehouse is used as a commissary for the ballpark's concession stands.

Chase Field has the longest LED board in Major League Baseball, stretching 1,119 feet on the middle level.

THE ROOF

Fans attending Diamondbacks games are always anxious to see the retractable roof in action before or after the game.

The roof comprises nine million pounds of structural steel, operating on the same tried-and-true technology found in drawbridges and overhead traveling cranes. A pair of 200-horsepower motors open or close the roof in slightly more than four minutes, utilizing more than four miles of cable strung through a pulley system. Each half of the roof consists of three moveable trusses, which telescope over a fixed-end truss. The east and west sides of the roof can operate either in unison or independently. Either side of the roof can be opened to any position in order to maximize sunlight on the turf and minimize sunlight on the interior steel and concrete.

The roof opens and closes to its own music, composed specifically to time out exactly to the four and a-half minutes needed to open or close the roof.

In 2007, the Diamondbacks played 52 games with the roof closed, 2 more than the previous season, while 29 were played with the roof open.

ROOF OPEN - ROOF CLOSED?

The decision is made on a game-to-game basis, and it depends on outside conditions. In the early portion of the season, conditions are generally more favorable to opening the roof, not just because the air temperature is lower, but also because the air is drier, meaning the temperature drops rapidly after sunset.

Into the summer months, the famed Arizona monsoon adds higher humidity to the triple-digit temperatures, making it necessary to keep the roof closed. Although, there have been days where daytime cloud cover has kept the temperatures down, allowing for the roof to be opened that night.

The final consideration is the most basic – fan comfort. Day games are often played with the roof closed not because of the air temperature, but because of the sun. Chase Field is one of the few baseball venues whose field sits directly north-south. The intense sunlight makes conditions in the upper level uncomfortable even on days when the temperature is in the 80's. The decision whether to open or close the roof is ultimately based on what is best for all fans in attendance.

A hotline is available for fans to call and get that day's "roof forecast". The number is 602-379-ROOF (7663).

THE FIELD

The playing surface at Chase Field consists of Bull's Eye Bermuda, which has proven to be the best suitable grass for a facility with a retractable roof.

Even though more than half of the Diamondbacks' games are played with the roof closed, the turf receives sunlight at every opportunity. On game days, the roof remains open into the afternoon to allow maximum exposure. When areas of the field receive little natural sunlight, large incandescent growth lights provide a substitute.

A visible feature of the field takes fans back in time almost 100 years. There is a dirt path between the pitcher's mound and home plate, reminiscent of the paths seen in very early pictures of the game.

The path is actually symbolic of the Chase Field experience – The best of baseball history and tradition displayed in a setting that features all the modern conveniences.

KEEPING COOL

Midway through the 2001 season, Chase Field became the beneficiary of the new Northwinds cooling system designed for highly populated facilities in Downtown Phoenix. The Northwinds system site is located directly south of the Ballpark.

The unique aspect of the system is that while conventional cooling uses cold water, the Northwinds system uses ice, which is produced on site during the overnight hours. The system starts with a base of three million pounds of ice. On a typical summer day, with no Diamondbacks game schedule approximately one million pounds will have to be reproduced. On a scheduled game day, the figure jumps to two million.

With the new system, the time needed to cool the ballpark is reduced, allowing more time for the roof to remain open permitting more natural light to reach the grass.

SEATING AND TICKETS

Sightlines in Chase Field are second to none. More than 80 percent of the seats are inside the foul poles and there is no upper deck around the outfield. In addition the seats down the foul lines, beyond the infield, are slightly canted toward the infield so that no fan will have to twist his or her body to look toward second base and the pitcher's mound.

All lower-deck seating is directly accessible from the lower concourse, which is at the same level as the outside pedestrian entry plazas and gates. The concourse itself is open to the playing field so fans can stay in touch with the game while visiting the concession stands, merchandise stores or other amenities.

The Diamond Level provides exclusive locations and amenities. Lounges and dining areas serving approximately 4,400 club seats are featured. Above the club seats are 69 private luxury suites, which offer the utmost in comfort and catering.

The upper concourse seats approximately 20,000 fans. Escalators on the west side of the ballpark can take fans to either of the upper levels.

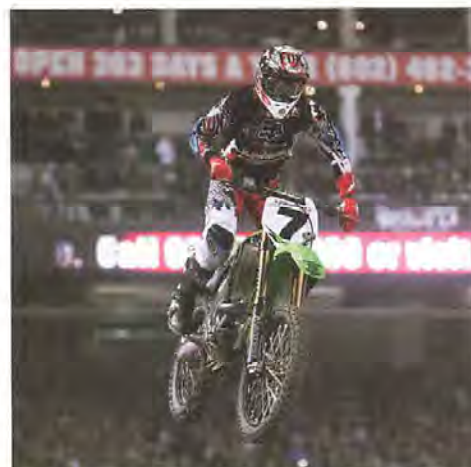

VERSATILITY

While it is primarily known for baseball, Chase Field has hosted a wide range of events in its nine years of operation. Not only has it been the home of the Diamondbacks, last spring it hosted the first round of the first-ever World Baseball Classic.

The list includes concerts, religious convocations, the Arizona National Boat Show and two annual motocross events. Chase Field also served as the site of the Fiesta Bowl National Band Championship for six consecutive years from 2000-2005. Chase Field was also the site of the first-ever outdoor college basketball game, as Arizona State's women's basketball team hosted Tennessee on Dec. 27, 2000.

Another category of competition was added to the Chase Field resume in January 2006 with the arrival of the Professional Bull Riders tour.

Chase Field also served as the home of college football's Insight Bowl for six years. Operated by the Fiesta Bowl, the event brings together teams of the Big East and PAC 10 Conferences.

LESLIE'S POOL PAVILION

After eight years and over 20,000 visitors, the most talked-about feature of Chase Field got a new look in 2005. The new pool features a more functional use of space, allowing for greater flexibility and additional areas to view the game.

The pool and spa sit nearly four feet above the ground, allowing fans in the pool to enjoy an unobstructed view of the action on the field. Natural stone finishes, including canterra and flagstone create the look and feel of an Arizona backyard. The Pavilion also features a new private bar area, plasma televisions and plush patio seating.

The remodeling project, which included a complete demolition of the original pool, was completed in six weeks.

Located behind the outfield wall in right-center, the Leslie's Pool Pavilion sits 415 feet from home plate. This, of course, means home runs will occasionally find their way into the Pavilion. When a Diamondback homers into the Pavilion, water cannons fire streams of water 30 to 35 feet into the air.

For the trivia buffs, we offer this note: the first player to hit a home run into the Leslie's Pool Pavilion was Mark Grace. He hit the noteworthy homer as a member of the Chicago Cubs, on May 12, 1998.

FOOD

You name it, and you can find it at the nearly quarter mile of concession stands in the Chase Field concourses, but the dining experience begins before fans go through the Ballpark gates.

Fans entering Chase Field through the main gates will notice Sliders, located on the west side of the Ballpark Plaza. Sliders features a traditional menu of sandwiches, salads and pizza, and is a popular pre and post-game destination.

Among the concession stands on the concourses are those that feature McDonald's, Peter Piper Pizza, Blimpie's Subs and Garcia's Mexican Food. In addition, specialty ice cream, yogurt, smoothies, shaved ice and specialty popcorn are also available. Fielder's Choice offers fans a wide selection of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Both the upper and lower concourses feature Taste of the Majors, a concession stand which offers food items associated with each National League city.

One of the unique offerings is Big Dawgs, a stand featuring grilled foot long hot dogs with a variety of toppings that range from onion rings and French Fries to cole slaw.

Friday's Front Row Sports Grill continues to be a popular year-round destination for visitors. Friday's offers fine food and beverages, along with patio seating during Diamondbacks' games. The restaurant is open every day except Christmas.

The upper concourse features two Miller Lite beer gardens, which overlook the playing field.

The Lexus Club, located in right field on the Infiniti Diamond Level, provides fine dining and a spectacular view for fans with club seats or luxury suites.

PARKING

Chase Field utilizes the established Copper Square parking infrastructure for its guests. An attached 1,500-car parking garage provides parking for guests on the Diamond Level. Away from the park, downtown Phoenix offers some 33,000 parking spaces within a 15-minute walk of the Chase Field. The Diamondbacks estimate that about 15,000 spaces are needed to accommodate a sellout crowd.

Pedestrian access to Chase Field includes a bridge over the railroad tracks along 4th Street. The bridge is connected to the parking garage, and is equipped with elevators for the physically challenged.

The Copper Square location also makes getting to and from a game easier. Chase Field is located minutes from five major freeways, and will also be located along the route of the Metro Light Rail system, construction of which is already underway.

PETER PIPER PLAYHOUSE

Kids can find all kinds of entertainment, baseball and otherwise, at the Peter Piper Playhouse, located behind center field. The Playhouse offers fans a variety of games, similar to those found at Peter Piper Pizza locations, and gives fans of all ages a chance to meet Baxter in his home. Baxter appears in his "den" during each Diamondbacks' game to pose for pictures and sign autographs.

MUSIC

As is the case with the overall atmosphere of Chase Field, music at Diamondbacks' game is a blend of the old and the new.

Bobby Freeman provides traditional organ music throughout the stadium. Fans will find Bobby in the Main Team Shop prior to games, serenading fans, before moving to his press-level location during the game. Freeman also served as ballpark organist for the Pacific Coast League Phoenix Firebirds before joining the Diamondbacks in 1998.

In addition to the organ, the Diamondbacks' Game Operations Crew "plays the hits" through a brand new sound system. As is the case in many ballparks, Diamondbacks' players are serenaded with their favorite tunes as they come to bat or enter the field. Each player is asked to identify his favorite song, and the game operations staff works through his vast archives to find the tune.

GRANT TRENBEATH
HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Grant Trenbeath has mastered growing and maintaining natural grass in a retractable roof environment as he enters his 10th season as the only Head Groundskeeper at Chase Field, the first MLB stadium built with that combination. Trenbeath has been a pioneer in handling grass in a retractable roof venue. He has served as a consultant to other retractable roof venues in Major League Baseball, sharing his expertise on how to balance maintaining an aesthetically pleasing and safe playing surface with the need for fan comfort.

Trenbeath's continued dedication to his craft has not gone unnoticed. The Chase Field surface was ranked among players as the second best in the National League in a 2003 poll commissioned by Sports Illustrated. In 2006, he was also acknowledged for his efforts when he was selected by the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Committee to serve as the Director of Grounds for the 36th annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the first ever Tostitos BCS National Championship Game at the University of Phoenix Stadium.

Trenbeath has worked in turf management for 15 years, spending three seasons with the Oakland Athletics' minor league affiliate in Medford, Oregon, then joining the A's as head groundskeeper for their minor league complex and spring training for three seasons before joining the Diamondbacks seven months prior to their inaugural season.

Trenbeath brings a player's perspective to turf management, having played baseball while attending Willamette University in Salem, Oregon. Grant, and his wife, Trina, and 2-year-old daughter Annika make their home in Chandler.

DIAMONDBACKS IN THE COMMUNITY

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

Established in 1997, before the Arizona Diamondbacks ever played a major league game, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation focuses on the three areas of need: homelessness, indigent healthcare and children's programs of all types, including education and youth baseball field development.

A board of Diamondback and Maricopa County appointees are responsible for annually approving all grant applications. Gifts are given through two different grant cycles. Program grants (gifts of $5,000 or less) are given to Arizona non-profits for program funding. The deadline for this application is Dec. 15 of each year. The other is our Grand Slam Awards, gifts of $100,000. The deadline for Grand Slam Awards is Nov. 15 of each year.

The Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation generated more than $2 million in 2006 to be distributed before the beginning of the 2007 season. Funds for the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation are raised through events such as the annual Diamondbacks Foundation Golf Classic, "Shirts off Our D'Backs," broadcast auctions and other team related activities.

The Arizona Diamondbacks take great pride in being recognized as a leader in community giving. Our commitment to the needs of our state will continue be a cornerstone of our corporate mission.

EDUCATION

The game of baseball requires athletic skills, teamwork and knowledge of the game. Playing sports also reinforces values of perseverance, character and self-confidence. These skills are important not only in the game of sports but in academics, relationships and life. The Diamondbacks set out to share these lessons with the community by hosting events and programs to remind youth and adults of the importance of education and setting goals.

D-BACKS LINE-UP FOR LEARNING

The Diamondbacks teach economically disadvantaged urban students the importance of character, education and healthy choices through the D-backs Line-Up for Learning program. Partnering with Communities In Schools of Arizona, this program is also designed to support and develop quality teaching in areas of need. More than 120 classrooms and over 3,200 students are invited to attend a Diamondbacks game each year where each child receives a T-shirt and a free meal for completing the program. In addition, 50 hard-working students have the opportunity to meet some Diamondbacks players prior to the game and participate in an on-field pre-game ceremony.

READ YOUR WAY TO THE BALLPARK

Since 2000, the Arizona Diamondbacks and The Arizona Republic joined with 12 public library districts in Maricopa County to present Read Your Way to the Ballpark, a summer reading program for children and their families. More than 77,255 kids participated in the program in 2006. The program features a game board with incentive points as you start at your library and end up at Chase Field. Kids ultimately work toward winning a free ticket to a Diamondbacks game.

CHAD TRACY'S "COVER TO COVER" READING PROGRAM

This program is based on the Diamondbacks' goal to encourage kids to "finish what they start" and more specifically that children develop a commitment to, and passion for, reading. Each season, 1,400 students from 16 schools statewide participate in the program. The Diamondbacks host each school for a game, treating them to luxury bus transportation, a free meal, an autograph, a game ticket and a T-shirt.

FAMILY HEALTH AND SAFETY WEEKEND

Agencies and Fire Departments from across the state visit Chase Field for an annual Family Health and Safety day. Hundreds of firefighters attend this event to help educate the public about safety via presentations and hands-on demonstrations. Safety messages include: train track safety, fire safety tips and home escape plan, checking smoke detectors, CPR and information on bike helmets, car seats, seat belts and water safety.

THE GREAT BIKE CHASE

The Diamondbacks know the importance of wearing a helmet when at bat and when on a bicycle. As part of a bike safety educational campaign, the Diamondbacks and Maricopa County's Clean Air Campaign host "The Great Bike Chase" where hundreds of cyclists ride their bicycles from Steele Indian School Park to Chase Field for a Diamondbacks game.

DIAMONDBACKS WINTER CLASSIC

The Diamondbacks host an annual Winter Classic holiday party at Chase Field inviting children from local shelters to enjoy games, food and special visits from Diamondbacks players and Santa Claus. In partnership with George and Laura Duerr of Ashley Manor, each child also receives a gift and a nutritious lunch. Additionally, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and Diamondbacks employees provide a brand new pair of shoes for each child.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

The Diamondbacks sponsor a variety of programs throughout the year inviting members of the community, from children to senior citizens, to share in the excitement of baseball and instill a sense of community pride. Through teamwork, these programs have accomplished various missions that include improving the lives of those who are less fortunate and educating the community of important social issues.

SEASON TICKET DONATIONS

The Diamondbacks donate more than 60,115 tickets per year to non-profit organizations and individuals who would not otherwise be able to attend a game due to financial or physical limitations. Diamondbacks season ticket holders also share in the spirit of generosity by donating otherwise unused tickets to the Diamondbacks Community Affairs Office. Through this unique donation program, hundreds of additional tickets were distributed to less fortunate Arizonans.

COMMUNITY CORNER

The Diamondbacks teamed up with non-profit organizations and charitable causes to host Community Corner, a program that educates Chase Field visitors on a variety of issues. During home games, the Diamondbacks invite organizations to share information and help raise community awareness about their causes by having fans visit them at the Community Corner kiosk in the ballpark.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS FOUNDATION FUNDRAISING EVENTS

SHIRTS OFF OUR D-BACKS

The Diamondbacks host this annual event during the last regular season home game. Forty lucky fans are presented with autographed jerseys from Diamondbacks players and coaches on the field. Two-dollar scratch-off cards are sold throughout the Ballpark. In 2006, over $132,000 was raised for the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and the Valley of the Sun United Way.

DIAMONDBACKS FOUNDATION GOLF CLASSIC

This event gives participants the opportunity to play golf at the exquisite Whirlwind Golf Club at Wild Horse Pass. Participants are treated to a one-of-a-kind experience - playing golf with Arizona Diamondbacks players and coaches.

BROADCAST AUCTIONS

The Diamondbacks hosted two broadcast auctions with one benefitting the Diamondbacks Foundation and the other benefitting the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA). In May, $40,250 was raised to benefit the Diamondbacks Foundation, which supports community initiative statewide. In September, $22,740 was raised to support the work of MDA across the state.

The Diamondbacks Community Affairs office offers a variety of programs for the community. Fan mail and requests for player appearances, donations, and sponsorships must be submitted in writing, addressed to the following:

YOUTH BASEBALL AND SOFTBALL

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

The Diamondbacks have made a commitment to sharing with the community one of the skills they know best, baseball. Our players' dedication, enthusiasm and respect for the game are visible both on and off the field. Through our organization's community outreach efforts, we strive to revitalize the spirit of baseball and softball to youth in inner cities, renovate fields in underprivileged communities and provide support and training for junior athletes.

"DIAMONDS BACK" FIELD BUILDING PROGRAM

Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation implemented this program for constructing new and rebuilding current youth fields for baseball and softball. The fields are selected by the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation based on need, usage, and ownership and maintenance abilities. Upon completion, fields are donated to an owner who will maintain the facility and regulate usage.

A baseball field can bring together neighborhoods and families. It is a place for making friends and making memories. It is a place for learning a game and learning lessons of life. Through the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, the "Diamonds Back" Field Building Program is committed to supporting and enhancing youth baseball in our state. This program's sole mission is to design and build youth ball fields so that more children can experience the great game of baseball. Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, our Diamondbacks players and community partners such as APS are creating diamonds from dirt, and making a Major League difference in the lives of Arizona's youth.

EXECUTION

Funding for the "Diamonds Back" Field Building Program comes from corporate sponsors, player participation and Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation Youth Baseball Fund, as well as in-kind and donated services and materials. A design and construction team will build fields, led by Nelsen Design and Summit Builders as general contractor.

An application and selection process will determine most fields. Interested parties must complete and submit a "Diamonds Back" Youth Field application form. This application is also available for any smaller grants for youth baseball and softball needs. To request an application, write to Allison Gabel, Senior Community Affairs Coordinator, Arizona Diamondbacks, P.O. Box 2095, Phoenix, AZ 85001.

Fields may include: backstop, full fencing, dugouts, bleachers, bullpens, irrigation, fully turfed playing field, warning tracks, electric scoreboard, scorer's table and storage unit and lighting system. Projects will depend on existing infrastructure, needs and future funding.

Three more fields were added to the total last season with the dedication of Craig Counsell Field (Buckeye), Williams Family Field (Show Low), and Mark Grace Thunderbolt Field (Luke Air Force Base.) The total stands at 22 fields entering the 2007 season.

TRAINING CENTERS

The Arizona Diamondbacks Training Centers are a series of traveling youth baseball and softball camps focusing on developing youth baseball/softball skills the "Diamondbacks Way." The camps are aimed at providing instruction in all aspects of baseball and softball to youth, ages 7-16, while continuing to promote the enjoyment, participation and interest in baseball throughout Arizona. The Training Centers run concurrently with school vacation periods, including spring, summer, intersession and holiday breaks.

LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL DISTRICT DAYS

This unique fundraising program was made available to specific Little League Districts throughout Arizona. Little Leagues are given the opportunity to sell group discounted tickets to little leaguers and their families, with fundraiser rebates going back to each league. Participating Little Leagues and their uniformed players are invited to participate on the field at a Diamondbacks game for a pre-game parade, along with a ceremony and check presentation to the district.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS NATIVE AMERICAN RECOGNITION EVENTS

The Arizona Diamondbacks are the only MLB team that has established a tradition of hosting a five day baseball tournament for more than 500 Native American youth. The Inter-Tribal Youth Invitational Tournament is held each summer and encompasses members from 12 tribes throughout Arizona. The tourney features a baseball clinic with special guest speaker, Diamondbacks second baseman, Orlando Hudson. The Arizona Diamondbacks also host Native American Recognition Day at Chase Field. This annual event celebrates the rich diversity of the Southwest's Native American culture, with exhibits and entertainment during the game. The festivities also included a 5-day all Native American Youth Baseball Tournament.

D. BAXTER THE BOBCAT

MASCOT

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 200

Introduced: June 23, 2000

Residence: Baxter's Den
at Chase Field

D. Baxter the Bobcat came out of the bag on June 23, 2000, at Chase Field. The idea for the mascot came from Brantley Bell, son of Diamondback Spring Advisor and former second baseman Jay Bell, who explained to his dad that the team should have a "BOB" cat as a mascot since the team played in the BOB (Bank One Ballpark). Bell informed management about his son's idea and the mascot was developed.

Today, Baxter has gained acceptance throughout the baseball world for his athleticism and an infamous "fur" ball. In addition to his numerous game-day responsibilities, Baxter also serves as an ambassador for the Diamondbacks organization, venturing off the field to visit hospitals, schools, community festivals, and corporate functions throughout the Valley and the state of Arizona. During the fourth inning of every home game, Baxter can be found in his Den, signing autographs and taking photographs with all of his adoring fans. Baxter's Den is located in the Peter Piper Playhouse on the main concourse beyond centerfield.

For more information on Baxter, call (602) 462-6630.

JOE BLACK

On May 17, 2002, Major League Baseball and the Arizona Diamondbacks suffered a great loss with the passing of Joseph Black, Jr.. He began his playing career in the Negro Leagues and shuffled through various professional leagues before making his Major League debut in 1952 with the Brooklyn Dodgers as a teammate of Jackie Robinson. In his rookie season, Joe made baseball history when he became the first African-American pitcher to win a World Series game and was eventually named the National League Rookie of the Year.

Joe remained an integral part of baseball following his playing days. As Vice President of B.A.T., the Baseball Assistance Team, he dedicated his time to helping fellow baseball players who had fallen on hard times. He contributed his vast knowledge of the game as a consultant to the Commissioner of Major League Baseball. A resident of Phoenix, he worked in the Diamondbacks' Community Affairs Department, sharing his stories as a guest speaker for numerous community groups.

Beyond baseball, Joe was a pioneer in the business world and worked tirelessly to impact the civil and human rights advancements for minorities.

In remembrance of Joe, a baseball bearing his name hangs from the rafters of Chase Field, along with the retired number of his former Brooklyn Dodger teammate Jackie Robinson.

The Arizona Fall League will honor Joe's memory with the Joe Black Trophy, awarded to the league's Most Valuable Player. Ken Harvey (Kansas City Royals) of the Scottsdale Scorpions was the inaugural honoree in 2002. Jason Dubois (Chicago Cubs) of the AFL-champion Mesa Solar Sox garnered the honors in 2003. Chris Shelton (Detroit Tigers) of the Grand Canyon Rafters was named the 2004 award winner. Eric Duncan (New York Yankees) of the Grand Canyon Rafters was last year's winner.

APS has partnered with the Arizona Diamondbacks, the Arizona Character Education Foundation, the Arizona Department of Education and other Arizona professional sports teams to build a better tomorrow for Arizona's youth.

Through this unique collaboration known as Power Players, sports clinics and assemblies are used to help teach kids the basic principles of character. The Power Players program will also provide development or improvement of select athletic facilities statewide.

SPRING TRAINING 2007

SPRING TRAINING 2007

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox share Tucson Electric Park during the month of March, with thousands of fans from both the Valley and Windy City making the trip to the Old Pueblo for exhibition action. T.E.P. seats 11,000 which includes room for 3,000 fans on the lawn beyond the outfield fence.

The Diamondbacks not only have the good fortune of training less than two hours away from Chase Field, they work in one of the top-of-the-line spring facilities in baseball. Tucson Electric Park is the centerpiece of the Pima County Kino Sports Complex, that also includes six-field practice facilities for both the Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox.

Tucson Electric Park has a capacity of 11,000, including 8,000 seats in the main grandstand and another 3,000 available on the outfield lawn. Also the summer home of the Tucson Sidewinders, T.E.P. features a major league clubhouse that the D-backs use in the spring, and clubhouses for visiting clubs and umpires. The home clubhouse also has an indoor batting cage located on the lower level on the way to the playing field.

During the spring session, the Diamondbacks will dress daily in the major league clubhouse at Tucson Electric Park, while doing the majority of their work at the minor league complex across Ajo Way. Once the exhibition season begins, Arizona will take batting practice either on the stadium field, or on a diamond behind T.E.P., where the D-backs also have a half-field for infield work.

The spring of 2007 marks the 62nd year for spring training in the Tucson community, with the Cleveland Indians calling the Old Pueblo home from 1947-92. While the D-backs and White Sox work at the Kino Complex, the Colorado Rockies took over Hi Corbett Field in 1993 and are in their 14th spring there.

Tucson Electric Park has a symmetrical playing surface, measuring 340 feet down each foul line and 405 to straightaway centerfield. The spring home for the Diamondbacks is located at 2500 East Ajo Way in Tucson.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

DISABLED LISTS:

(1) 15-DAY DISABLED LIST--The minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be on the list at one time.

(2) EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST--The minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. There is no limit on the number of players on this list at one time, but this list may only be used when the club is at the maximum limit of 40 players under control. Players on the 60-day list do not count against the 40-man roster.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR: 172 days constitutes a full year of major league service.

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

- (1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or
- (2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or
 - (b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

WAIVER REGULATIONS: From 30 days after the start of the season, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire. Otherwise, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings at the close of the preceding season. With respect to trades, no waivers are necessary from 5 p.m. (ET) the after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

HOW TO FIGURE

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS 2007 Season

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.
